shouts for Bates, Breckinridge and Douglas. We noticed in the crowd Messrs, Steinman, Leman and Shaeffer, of your city, and they will bear testimony to the absurdity of Black Republicanism having any sympathy in Mis-

Judge Bates could not be prevailed upon to speak at the "Ratification Meeting," but the Black Republicans say they will have him out yet. When Mr. Lincoln received the news of his nomination, he was playing ball with some boys—he told them to go ahead with the game, he would soon be back, that he had a little woman up town whom he had to inform of hi Meetings have been held in many of the secoding States —in some, the seceders were sustained and in others denounced. In the first Congressional district of Arkansas, Col. J. C. Hindman was re-nominated for Congress by the Convention, and the Convention endorsed the course of the South in the Charleston Convention, and appointed Col. N. B. Burrows and Col. Derosy Caroll delegates, and Hon. T. C. Hindman and Col. Bart. Pearce alternates to the

Baltimore Convention, to assemble on the 18th of June
At a meeting in Jefferson city in this State, the delegates from that district who voted against Judge Douglas, were ned. The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved. That we approve and justify the position assumed by our delegate, C. J. Corwin, and all others who co-operated with him in the Charleston Convention; and that they have our most hearty thanks for their strict adherence to their instructions—the platform of our party in Missouri and the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the principle of squarter sovereignty, and adhere to the doctrine that the Territories are the common property of the served. are the common property of the several States ing the Union, and that every citizen of the United is equally entitled to the protection of his person operty therein, whether it be slave property or any property.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Boone and Benton counties, Ky., the following resolution was adopted: counties, Ky, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a healthy State pride, as well as a just appreciation of their talents, and fitness for the position.

leads us to prefer for the Presidency, one or the other of those two noble sons of our own State, Hon. James Guthrie, or John C. Breckinridge; nevertheless, should our friends in the convention consider that the interests of the party and the country would be the better subserved by the nomination of some other, we will cordially support
Hon. Daulet S. Dickinson, Joseph Lane, Caleb Cushing, R.
M. T. Hunter, or any other sound National Democrat whom they may select.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Mobile, Ala, the seceders from the Charleston Convention were sustained. Delegates were appointed to the Convention to be held or the 11th of June. A similar meeting was held in Montgomery on the same night, with the same result. Similar meetings were held in Louisiana and other seceding States. The Black Republicans of this State have selected an electoral ticket. It will not get over 10,000 out of the 150,000 votes which Missouri will poll next November. Francis A. Hoffman, the Black Republican nomines for

Lieut. Governor in Illinois, declines the nomination. It is expected by the Black Republicans, that the American vote will be cast for Mr. Lincoln. We cannot see how consistent "American" can vote with a party who acknowledges the "German element" supreme. It is very evident that the Republicans had to knock under to this "German element"—an "element" the "Americans" have time and again voted against at the polls. It cannot be denied that the Germans dictated the candidate. Read the candid confession of the Black Republican organ of this State-the Missouri Democrat: "It may not be amiss to indicate the cause of Mr. Bates' efeat before the Convention. The threatened revolt of defeat before the Convention. The threatened revolt of the Germans in the event of his nomination was the primary cause. The influence of Henry S. Lane, of Indi-ans, who is the Republican candidate for Governor in that State, was the secondary cause. For obvious reasons we restrict ourselves to the barest mention of the two facts." Can the Papparkyrapis "A projection." Can the Pennsylvania "Americans" vote the Black Republican ticket after this candid admission? The "Ameri cans" hereabouts, and throughout the whole North-West, repudiate the ticket. They think it humiliating and truckling to the foreign vote, which "Americans" have neretofore opposed, and their vote will tell against Lincoln and Hamlin in November next. They have thrown aside good men-men of prominence and ability-for a man like Lincoln, simply because he was likely to unite the German vote. Had any one two years ago intimated such a thing, there is not a Republican in the United States who would not have spit in his face. Abe Lincoln, a third rate lawyer and $200 orator, without tact, talent or ordinary discernment, is nominated for the highest office in the world. The era of Col. Pluck is not passed, and the day of humbugs has not gone by. We are astonished, and Abe must have been confounded when he heard of it. Alas! poor Seward! the pride and glory of the Republi-can party. The master-spirit, by which this piebald association of odd and ends and worn-out elements of old political organizations was spoken into existence, is immolated to ake place for Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois. Seward, the foremost Republican in all the land, the man who has furnished brains, and given shape to the impulses of the party, the only man, his admirers say, who can carry the Empire State of New York, is set aside for Abraham Lincoln, and why? The astute delegates of this Chicago Convention want to revolutionize Illinois, and are guilty of the absurd folly of throwing away the thirty-five of the abourd folly of throwing away the thirty-five electoral votes of New York, in the hopeless effort of trying to catch the eleven votes of a Sixte that nover failtered from voting for a Democratic President, and never will. Cameron, with the twenty-seven votes of Pennsylvania, and Wade, with the twenty-three votes of Ohio, were offered the Couvention for its acceptance, but neither of them would do. Illineis was the stake, and for Illinois this sage assemblage was ready to peril everything and secrifice everything. The "mountain labored, and has brought forth a meuse!"

Brecklivinge stock is daily going up, and it is the general impression that if he is nominated the party will unite upon him. Pennsylvania has a duty to perfect will unite upon onention, and if she does it well, John C. Dieceria.

Will be the next President of the United States.

ing's Prepared Gine.—Small conveniences for general family use are often of more value than what are called "great inventions." It is estimated that in the United States there are at least five millions of households, in all States there are at least five millions of households, in all of which the annoyance of squesking, rickety chairs, sofas, tables, etc., is constantly experienced, and so long as furniture is in this condition there is always danger of a "smash.p." The experience-of the city housekeeper, with May-day before her eyes, will readily suggest the value and convenienc of really trustworthy prepared glue, that can be instantly brought in requisition where repairs to furniture and other household wares are needful. The mant of such an article is as constant and universal as the family, and hitherto it has been a want unsupplied. This, however, can be truly said no longer. Spalding's Prepared Glue seems to be all that has been desired in this direction. It is kept soluble by chemicals, retains its strength and tenacity, is convenient and always "up to direction. It is kept soluble by chemicals, retains its strength and tenacity, is convenient and always "up to the sticking point," is put in a bottle with a brush, and sold at twenty-five cents. No housekeeper in the city or country can well afford to be without a bottle of Spalding's Prepared Glue. It is just the thing for the library and echools, where books are constantly in need of repair.

june 5 1m 217 Proprietors, New York. The Blacksmith's Sign & the Dyer's Tree.

BY JAMES M'CAPPERTY. 'Twas just the last election night, The poils were closed, the stars were bright,
As going home I met Tom Blight,
A jovis! fellow;
He seemed to kneel, but was not tight,
Just something mellow. Just something melli To be concealed from public glare We left the crowd at Centre Square, And through the first back thoroughfare We made a sally, Down towards Prince street in the rair, Down Steinman's alley.

And as we homeward did incline
We took the near cut through to Vine,
Just as the fleeting hour of nine
Was passing o'er us,
And turning east, the blacksmith's sign
Stood right before us. Stood right before us.

Surrising what it might presage,
We stopped to view the stalwart sage,
As Vulcan's mirror foamed with rage
And blustering clamor,
And seemed in conflict to engage
With brandished hammer.

He stroked his beard with graceful air, He told his tale correct and square, And turning to your humble pair, Tom Blight and me,
Saying, friends have I been dealt with fair
By that there tree?

THE TREE ]

Possession's rights I duly claim,
When you had neither form nor name,
E'er you into existence came,
I had possession,
And now, sir, how can you, for shame,
Say that's aggression?

[THE SIGN.]
Through every blast and breeze that blew. Through noon-day sun and nightly dew, You sprung and sprouted, waxed and grew Past comprehension, Past comprehension,
And hide me now from public view,
Through base extension.

We oft' times saw the sledges swinging,
We oft' times heard the anvil ringing,
And mirthful Vulcan proudly singing
His mirthful strains, His miring.
E'er he to your coat-tail was hanging,
Expecting gains. Expecting gains.

For shoeing neat he has few matches,
He's skilled in ringbone, botts and scratches,
To drive lockjaw from cribs and cratches,
It failed him never,
And unsurpassed at splints and swatches
He stands forever.

The horse he shoes is still the beater,
Be it trotter, teamster, carriage or plater;
He'll speed the scrub to a first-rater,
Two twenty-five, His merit, sir, needs no repeater.

He's still alive.

He's still anve.

[THE SIGN.]
Friend, if my word would wisdom teach you,
To stand one side I would beseech you,
If you do not, may justice reach you
In legal form,
Or cold November's breezes bleach you
With rustling storm. You were not for my grief intended,
Therefore I am the less offended,
But always when I condescended
To speak you mild,
Your points and quirts you so defended
You see me wild.

[THE TREE.]
Well, well, to banish wrath's alarms. When summer's sun the hillside warms I'll stretch my legs and raise my arms Above your height,
Then those who wish to view your charn
May see you right. May see you right. So now, my friend, let's drop this matter And drown our wees in wine or water: We but give room for fools to clatter
Who should be mute. Though each at first seemed somewhat fired, Peace seemed to be what both desired—

And left them at Mr. JAMES PEOPLES' Shop Door in West Vine street, in the City of Lancaster, Pa., where he still continues to carry on his business in his old superior style of HORSE SHOEING. [June 5 1t 21

THE SONG OF THE CITY. DAISIES versus DUST.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. The country is fair, nature's beauties are there,
In blossoms and sweet scented flowers;
The fields, clad in green, full of promise are seen,
And birds sweetly sing in their bowers.
These blessings of God on the sons of the sod,
Their hearts have attuned to His praises;
But while they rejoice in harmonious voice,
We sigh, in the dust, for the daisies.

We sigh, in the dust, for the daisies.

There's life in the breeze that has traffick'd with trees
Dispensing their balms on the mountains:
There's health in the ale, which is Adam's best pale,
And flows from the cool, mossy fountains.
The country, alone, gives the system a tone—
The invalid much it amszes—
Then pack up your things, take the cars for your wings,
And fly from the dust to the daisies.

And ny from the dust to the daises.

Let husbands and wives, if they value their lives,
Pack up, and be off for the season:

I write for their good, be it well understood,
In rhymes which are ringing with reason.

It really is sweet, in a cozy retreat, The husbands will all, at the great Tower Hall
Procure, at a bargain, their raiment;
Then each of them all on his lady can call
For love, and succeed as a claimant.
So proud she will feel, to her lord she'll reveal
Her feelings in all of their phases;
If not, 'twould be just if he "kicked up a dust,"
Though dust he had left for the daisies.

My wife, standing near, with her lips to my ear, Says, "Bardie," while others you're teaching, Remember, I pray, what the moralists say, That practice is better than preaching."
"We'll leave for awhile!" she exclaims with a smile, While our me she lovingly grees. While on me she lovingly gazes.
We will, I reply: ere a week passes by.
Your two lips shall bloom 'mid the daisles.

The superior quality of Norfolk Oysters is well known, and no city in the Union possesses such advantages for putting up Oysters as Norfolk is favored with.
They are procured fresh from the extensive oyster grounds in the immediate neighborhood, and are consequently put up in a healthy state, being spiced a few hours after they are taken out of salt water.
These SPICED OYSTERS need only to be tried to prove their superiority over cysters sent from other cities, where they are often spiced in a sickly or decayed state in consequence of the difficulty of procuring them fresh from the beds.

FROM THE PREFACE.

The Empress Josephine was one of the most remarkable of all the extraordinary characters who rose into conspicuous public positions in consequence of the French Revolution. Wonderful were the events of her life. With the kindest and most affectionate of human hearts, she united the stemest principles of rectifude and a comprehensive reading.

genius.

In political foresight, her superiority to Napeleon is now universally recognized. Had he listened to her admonitions, his empire might have been averted. It is worthy of notice that this political foresight and ability has been inherited by her descendants—two of whom, Napoleon III. and Pedro II. respectively the present Emperors of France and of Brazil, are among the ablest sovereigns now reigning in the world. and of Brazil, are among the ablest sovereigns now reigning in the world.

The events of Josephine's life, and remarkable traits of character which she displayed amidst the most amazing viclositudes of fortune, afford not only an exceedingly interesting but a highly instructive lesson to all who read her blography. In this respect her career, taken as a whole, may challenge comparison with that of any other historical personages in history.

Josephine constantly locked to the glory of France and the fame of her husband as the two most desirable objects. When Napoleon desired to perpetuate his dynasty by a second marriage which might yield him a male heir to his throne, Josephine nobly sacrificed her own feelings to what she was told might eventuate to the advantage of France. In his advarsity this true woman forgot all but their happy years of wedded love—remembered not that the had been repudiated, but that he was unfortunate.

We have freely drawn upon various authors, who have recorded anecdotes and traits of Josephine, as related to them, with the tender regret of affection, which, too late, recognized her full value, by Napoleon himself, in his closing years, and it is to be hoped that the bow will be found reliable as well as entertaining. Full of truth, yet it is the very Romance of Blography.

Copies of either of the above books, with a handsome (fift, worth from 50 cents to $100, will be sent to any person in the United States, upon receipt of $1.00, and 21 cents to pay postage, by adressing the publisher, who is desirous of calling your attention to his liberal method of transacting business, viz:

Aver's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other of rara carsaparilia, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by exper-iment on many of the worst cases to be found

of the following complaints:—
SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISPASSES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AP-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPEIAS, ROSE OR St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipned in the bud. Multitude contents ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions. bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsanzilla has, and deserves much the Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend we can this compound sarsaparnia, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle. DR. J. C. AYER & CO. LOWELL, MASS.
