A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in overy case.— So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this horb that appear surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known nutil I discovered it in 1846-second, that it should cure all kinds of humor, In order to give some idea of the suddan rise, and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I pedided it and sold about air bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it. Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the suniersal praise of it from all quarters. In my own practle I always kept it strictly for humore —but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.
