By both conjoined you inform me, as one of the "Democratic Electors at larke," that the "Democratic State Committee," of which you are chairmant, d-sires to know in the event of my election, if I will give a pledge to conform to the arrangement made by that committee, at its meeting on the 2d July last. This proposed arrangement provides, as I understand it. that the Democratic electors for Pennsylvania, shall, if elected, vote for the regularly nominated Democratic Candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, if their vote will elect these candidates: if It will not, then to vote for the candidates nominated by a meeting of gentlemen, at the Maryland Institute, in Baltimore, on the 23d June, 1860, if such vote will elect these randidates are propositions can be managed successfully, then, that the Democratic electors of Pennsylvania, if elected, may vote as they deem best for the interests of the Democratic party. This is my interpretation of your note, and its enclosure.

To this most extraordinary and unexampled proposition from a committee, appointed only by the chairman of the Democratic Convention, and for certain specific duties, 1. REPLY OF HON. WM. H. WELSH.

YORK. Pa., July 16th, 1860.

My Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 9th instant; which, however, it was my privilege to see in the duily papers, before you furnished me with a printed copy. I am glad you have adopted this public method of answering my brief note, as it enables me to lay before the people, in the same manner, my reasons for acting with the majority of the Democratic State Executive Committee at its last meeting. Had you contented yourself with a simple refusal to accede to the compromise proposed by the State Committee, I would have remained silent; but the ground you have publicly taken, demands from me a respectful answer, in justification of myself to those who placed me in the responsible position I now occupy towards the Democracy of Pennsylvania.

The multic will look in vain the product of the company of the product of the second of the product of public will look in vain throughout your letter for any tameible objection to the proposed compromise, on the score of expediency, pelicy, or principle. The one and only point in your communication is, that the State Committee acted "without any authority." The question of jurisdiction is thus raised in your own mind; and is promptly decided by yourself, without argument, in your own favor.

of the principles of our party, and in that Divine Providence that has watched over us and made us one of the great nations of the carrity of purpose—I am afraid you have failed to learn what, reality, are the "certain specific duties" which belong to a State Committee. Certainly, I have no wish to extend the powers of the one over which I have the honor to preside: nor of I desire to shield any action of my own, under the broad and general terms of the resolution which suthorized its appointment, and for which, I believe, you cordially voted in the Reading Convention. But I take it, that a State Committee is fully "competent" to act upon all questions which involve the working machinery of the party for gloss benefit I was specially created; as well as to arrange and direct all the details of organization and to propose and effectively carry out all measures which tend to secure successful results in an inpending struggle. Hence it was, that the National Executive Committee appointed by the Democratic Convention and to propose and effectively carry out all measures which tend to secure successful results in an inpending struggle. Hence it was, that the National Executive Committee appointed by the Democratic propose and effectively carry out all measures which tend to secure successful results are the successful results and the propose and effectively carry out all measures which tend to secure successful results are the merit Divine protection. I cheerfully accept the nomination of the earth, and that we may continue to merit dence that has watched over us and that we may continue to merit dence that has matched over us and that we may continue to merit dence that has watched over us and that we may continue to merit dence that has matched over us and made us one of the earth, and that we may continue to merit dence that has watched over us and that we may continue to merit dence the honor to be, Sir, with much respect, your friend and obedient servant,

SENSIBLE ADVICE:

The Greensburg Democrat, edited by a National Executive Committee appointed by the Democratic Convention which met at the Front Street Theatre, in the city of Baltimore, without any other authority than the implied power contained in the resolution which created it, assumed the right to make a nomination for the Democracy of the Union, when Benjamin Fitzpatrick declined to accept the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Stephen A. Douglass—and the adoption of the resolution, by the same Committee, in reference to the power of its members over Electoral tickets formed by bodies entirely separate and distinct from that which gave it political life, clearly shows that the gentlemen who compose that organization have movery narrow or contracted ideas of the authority and "specific duties" of an Executive Committee. You say, in your letter, that "the Reading Convention gave no power to its Committee to compromise the integrity of Democratic candidates." This is strictly true. But while your premises are correct, your conclusions are fallacious. No torturing of language, no ingenuity of expression, can fasten such an interpretation upon the compromise recommended by the State Committee Come, let us reason together, and see how far the Committee's resolution bears you out, in the position you have thus yountarily assumed.

You say a candidate for Elector, are but the creature of oluntarily assumed.

You, as a candidate for Elector, are but the creature of I un, as a candidate for Elector, are but the "creature of the Reading Convention. Equally so, is the State Com-nittee. You are both the offspring of the same parent. Without any assumption of ower on the part of either, t is your conjoined duty to endeavor to arrange the nachinery of the State organization, so as to make it most potent and efficient against the forces of the common nemy. He who fells in this high duty, is false to the acred trust reposed in him by the Convention. Thorough-yimbund with this feeling, a majority of the State Com-nitee resolved, if possible, to propose some plan for inited action, which, if accepted, would enable the Democ-tory of Pennsylvanix to assist in the defeat of the Rambi-this extent, no more.

If you carefully read the resolution of the Committee, you will perceive that it only "recommends" a certain course of action to the Democracy of Pennsylvaniand then "authorizes" its Chairman to correspond with the several Electors in regard to the proposed basis of compromise. Surely an Executive Committee has this power, if it be vested with any at all—and after an alimmatory, to the low response has been returned, by the Electory to the proposed for the will determine what course is best to be pursued for the will determine what course is best to be pursued for the will determine what course is best to be pursued for the Committee will undertake to place other names upon the Electoral ticket, or prefer to submit the whole matter that the proposed for the defeat of the Bepublican candidates for President and Vice President of the United States and Governor of Pennsylvania; but I most emphatically dany your right to question the jurisdiction of the State Committee, in its earnest and patriotic labors to unite the fragments of a broken and Electoral training the commendation is entirely and the fragments of a broken and Electoral training the commendation is entirely and the committee will be commendation is entirely because a fact all position of the State Committee, in its recommendation is entirely because a fact all position of the Democratic party, at the present the red to the public individual to the public midd. It is necessarily novel, because a fact all position of the Democratic party, at the present the scale proposed of the Democratic party, regard this scales my the united that from its condition in any previous percent and position of the Democratic party, regard this scales with unuterable regret. Those masses are very far from agreeing with you, in assuming that the only Democratic masses, firmly wedded to their party, regard this scales with unuterable regret. Those masses are very far from agreeing with you, in assuming that the only Democratic party, without reference the latter.

I have no fears that the action of the State Committee will not be sustained and upheld by the calm, good sense of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. But two of the large number of Electors who have already responded to the resolution, have refused to give it their assent and approbation. Nor have I been disappointed in my expectations of the manner in which it would be received by the true-hearted yeomanry of this Commonwealth. They know that its only object is to preserve, if possible, the unity of the Democratic party; and prevent as State of Pennsylvania from being made the unwilling instrument in the territory that must extend to Congress and the people of all the States.

If the Constitution establishes the right of every citizen to enter into the common territory with whatever property be legally possesses, it necessarily devolves on the Federal Government the duty to protect this right of the citizen whenever and wherever assalled or infringed. The Democratic party honestly meets this agitating question, which is threatening to sever and destroy this brotherhood of States. It does not purpose to legislate for the extension of Stavery, nor for its restriction, but to give to each state and to every citizen all that our forefathers proposed to give, namely—perfect equality of rights, and to commit to the people, to climite and to soil, the determination as to the kind of institution best fitted to their requirements in their constitutional limits; and declaring as a fundamental maxim that the people of a Territory can only establish or probibit Slavery when they come to form a Constitution preparatory to their admission as a State into the Union.

Constitution preparatory to their admission as a State into the Union.

If happily, our principles shall prevail, an era of peace and harmony will be restored to our distracted country, and no more shall we be troubled with the agitation of this dangerous question, because it will be removed as well from the Territorial Legislatures as from, the Hillie of Congress—when we shall be free to turn our attention to more useful issues promotive of our growth in national greatness.

Our Union must be preserved! But this can only be done by maintaining the Constitution involate in all is provisions and guarantees. The judicial authority, as provided by the Constitution, must be maintained, and its decisions implicitly obeyed, as well in regard to the rights of property in the Territories as in all other matters.

Hoping for success, and trusting in the truth and justice of the principles of our parly, and in that Divine Providence that has watched over us and made us one of the great nations of the earth, and that we may continue to merit Divine protection. I cheerfully accept the nomination so unanimously conferred on me. and cordially indorse the platform adopted by the Convention.

FORM FOSTER CLUBS!-The present divided state of the Democratic party upon the Pres idential question, unless wise counsels prevail, promises an easy victory to the Abolitionists. Unless we harmonize in some way, or else agree to postpone our dissensions until after the October election, there is much danger of Opposition to inquire into his preferences, the defeat of the Democratic candidate for Governor.

In this connection, we are free to say, that we regard Judge Douglas as the regular nominee of the National Democratic Partythat we earnestly and sincerely desire his election, but that just as earnestly and just as sincerely do we desire the defeat of the Abolition and Black Republican candidate, Mr. Lincoln. But, more than this, we desire the election of the Democratic candidate for Placed upon the Democratic Ticket by the unanimous vote of the Democratic Convention, and compelled to yield his own convictions of duty to himself, and to sacrifice his own interests at the demands of his party, it is a hard matter, indeed, that in this feud, between sections of the Democracy he should be slaughtered-not by our enemies racy of Pennsylvania to assist in the defeat of the Repub-lican candidates. The head and front of its offending hath this extent, no more. powerless-but slaughtered by his own party and by his own professed friends.

Perfectly assured that with our forces weakened by the denunciations and quarrels of the Presidential contest we must fall an easy prey to our enemies, and, impelled by sincere conviction of our duty in this respect, we implore the Democracy of "Old West-moreland" to so conduct themselves now by their moderation and prudence as to present an unbroken front in October, and thus and then crush out the life blood of Abolitionism in Pennsylvania. We entreat them to sink their differences on the Presidency for the present, and to unite in forming Foster Clubs, without reference to any Presidential candidate. By this means they can aid in defeating Andrew G. Curtin, and elect Gen. Foster, Governor. If, after that matter is disposed of, this division should still exist, and no fair and honorable arrangement shall be effected, there will still remain a month before the Presidential election in which to quarrel and worry, each other to our hearts

SHOCKING FATE OF A LOST CHILD.—Several notices have recently been published concerning a child named Thomas Henry Finley, aged 4½ years, who disappeared on July 5th, having followed from home the band of the Turners, who held a pic nic that day. His dead body was found on Saturday near the Kossuth Woods, on the "Neck," by Mr. Wm. Stevens, who was gunning. The barking of his dog in a marsh having attracted his attention, he went to the spot and found the body almost imbedded in mud. The child had evidently followed the procession to the vicinity, and having started to return to his home on the hill, over the meadows, had become fastened in the mire, and perished from exposure and hunger. During the night of the 5th his cries were heard, but nothing unusual was suspected, and no search was undertaken. The eyes and nose of the unfortunate lad had been eaten away, probably by muskrats, and the body was otherwise mutilated. One thumb was found in his mouth, showing that in the agony of starvation the lad had attempted to relieve himself. -Newark Advertiser.

CAUGHT AT LAST. William Cregar, a somewhat notorious individual in Philadelphia and Montgomery county, who has frequently been in the hands of the police on charges of counterfeiting, but always contrived to escape conviction, was arrested on Saturday week at a lager beer saloon in Fourth street, Philadelphia, in company with a man named Robert Cooper, and committed on the charge of having in their possession counterfeit notes on the Banks of Commerce and Penn Township. The arrest was made by Officer Wood, Chief of the Philadelphia Police, and when he proposed to search his prisoners, they gave up two packages containing the notes in question, which were subsequently proved to be counterfeit

An examination of Cregar's house, subsequent to his arrest, led to the discovery of part of a press for printing bank notes; also a number of engraved pieces ready to fill up as bank notes. The accused were put upon trial on Wednesday, and the jury found them guilty without leaving their box. They were sentenced on Thursday-Cregar to a fine of $500 and five years' imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary; and Cooper to a fine of $50 and five years' imprisonment.

THE DRED SCOTT CASE.

As a great deal has been said recently. about the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in this celebrated case, we publish the following syllabus of the points decided, which the Somerset Democrat, a Douglas paper, says is taken from the 19th volume of Howard's Reports, page 395, and is therefore correct. The portion of the 6th clause we have italicised, distinctly decides that territorial legislatures, do not possess the power to abolish slavery in the Territories:

1st. "The territory thus acquired is ac quired by the people of the United States for their common and equal benefit, through their agent and trustee, the Federal Govern-Congress can exercise no power over ment. the rights of persons or property of a citizen in the Territory which is prohibited by the Constitution. The Government and the citizen, whenever the Territory is open to settlement, both enter it with their respective rights defined and limited by the Constitu-

2d. "Congress has no right to prohibit the citizens of any particular State or States from taking up their home there while it permits citizens of other States to do so. Nor has it a right to give privileges to one class of citizens which it refuses to another. The Territory is acquired for their equal common benefit, and if open to any it must be open to all upon equal, and the same terms."
3d. "Every citizen has a right to take with him into the Territory any article of property which the Constitution of the United States recognizes as property." 4th. "The Constitution of the United States recognizes slaves as property, and pledges the Federal Government to protect it. And Congress cannot exercise any more authority over property of any other kind." 5th. "The act of Congress, therefore, pro-hibiting a citizen of the United States taking with him his slaves when he removes to the Territory in question to reside is an exercise of authority over private property which is not warranted by the Constitution, and the removal of the plaintiff by his owner to that Territory gave him no title to freedom."

6th. "While it remains a Territory, Congress may legislate over it within the scope of its constitutional powers in relation to citizens of the United States, and may establish a territorial government, and the form of this lectional government, and the form of its local government must be regulated by the dis-cretion of Congress; but with powers not exceeding those which Congress itself by the Constitution is authorized to exercise over citizens of the United States in respect to their ights of person or rights of property.

SUMMER AND LINCOLN-REPUBLICAN PRIN-CIPLES .- The Chicago Democrat, edited by the notorious John Wentworth, who was the chief actor in securing Lincoln's nomination at Chicago, says that the sentiments of Sumner's late speech in the Senate, are the sentiments of Mr. Lincoln and the Republican party. In a still later article the same paper says that the Republican party is in favor of "the political equality of all men." Negro citizenship and negro equality is then boldly proclaimed as "the chief corner stone of the Republican organization!" We invite attention to the following, and commend it to the especial attention of those who prate so much about Mr. Lincoln's conservatism :

"These principles; the right of ever human being to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and the political equality of all men, are the chief corner stone of the Repub lican organization. They are like the rock on which Christ built his church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against them. soever shall fall on this rock shall be broken but on whomsoever this rock shall fall it will

"Senator Sumner's speech is the best, the most fearless, the ablest, and the most powerful exposition and defence of these principles that we have yet seen. Therefore we publish it, and we endorse it. We recommend every one to call at our counting room and obtain

Dr. Bronson is a lecturer in our Medical Colleges, and his success in his speciality has been so wonderful that he has consented, at variance with the prejudices of every regular practitioner, to make it known, as he is doing, for the benefit of suffering humanity.

In the recent death of the late Lieut. Thomas Truxton Houston, United States navy, on board the ship-of-war Iroquois, in the Bay of Naples, there is much that awakens the deepest sense of sorrow not only to the hearts of those bound by the strongest ties of coneanguinity, but to the navy, that has the prondest records of his valor in the service of his country, and in the many graces and virtues that gave promise of still higher fame in the maturity of years and command.

In the elements of character best suited for the profession that Lieut. Houston had chosen, he seemed to combine them all. To the possession of a very high order of talent, he united industry with laudable ambition, that gave him the first honors of his class when he graduated at the Naval School at Annapolis. His subsequent life was in keeping with this bright dawn—it was high-toned, honorable, chivairous. The accomplished officer, the correct gentleman, the ardent friend, he ever manifested a stead-fast devotion to his profession, and a rigid observance of everything that could honor it.

Such a young man, cut off in the morning of his life and of all the rich promises that were before him, is a loss that the navy will feel, and a fruitful source of grief to his comrades in the service, who knew his value. His father and mother and brothers and sisters, so unexpectedly called to the realities of his death, feel the crushing burden that desolates their souls; and prominent in the circle of domestic affliction, the young and devoted partburden that desolates their souls; and prominent in the circle of domestic affliction, the young and devoted part-ner of his boson is left with a bleeding heart that claims the deepest sympathy.—Washington Constitution.

THE POEMPATHIC REMEDY. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

A man in Jersey thought that he His daughter fair must lose; For she in spirits was depressed, And troubled with the "blues."

One day a literary friend, Who chanced on her to call, With fervor asked, "Oh! do you read The Bard of Tower Hall?"

She answered, "No!" Her friend advised
That she, to cure her ills,
Should read the poems of the Bard,
Instead of taking pills. The maiden said, I'll surely try
The remedy you name—
'Twas close at hand; for, as she spoke,
The morning papers came.

She read the Bard; and laughing "shook The cobwebs from her brain;" Her heart, made cheerful, sent the blood With life to ev'ry vein. Restored to health; when friends are sick, She recommends to all, The Poempathic remedy.

To men who have the clothing rash—
A breaking out disease
Which through the breaks will oft lay bare
The elbows and the knees— The Tower Hall proprietors
Will quick relief ensure—
The patient takes a suit they made,
And that performs a cure!

C. L. STONER.

Scrofula, or King's Evil is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children stitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children " lear children.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life so that sensitions constituthe energies of life, so that scrofulous constitu-tions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; conseses; conse-ov disorders quently, vast numbers perish by which, although not scrofulous in the are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or one aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it.

To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is con-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affec tions which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, Rose, or Errsipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated continuing are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or, evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indipestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming licly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten. be forgotten.
