COATESVILLE SEMINALE,

MALE AND FEMALE,

COATESVILLE, CHESTER COUNTY, PA.

JAMES E GIFFIN, A. M., Principal and Proprietor.
This Seminary is located in Coatesville, on the Central sality-two from Harrisburg. It is easy of access from any part of the Union, and is in the midst of a moral and refined population. There could not be a more healthy and romantic situation. It possesses the advantages of having a daily mail, a telegraph office and an Adams' Express office. The next expross will open the first day of November. The School is sound and practical in every department. The course of study embraces everything that is taught in the best Colleges of our country. The School is corganized on the most approved plan of the best institutions in the New England States. Ladies and Gentlemen are entirely separate, except in recitations; in truth, they have less indercourse than at home. The Teachers becupy spartments in the buildings, and there is no association of the sexes but in the presence of their instructors. The happy influence, mutually exerted, in their slight association in the recitation room, at the table and in the public exercises, is to be seen in the cultivation of a cheerin and animated disposition, in the formation of good habits and manners, in ardent devotion to study, and in the attainment of high moral character. These, with many other valuable results, have established the fact, that the best plan for a school is, according to the evident design of a well regulated christian family.

"Ladies, equally with the gentlemen, are benefited by this arrangement. The numerous and crowded schools of this kind spreading over the country, fully attest the correctness of this Plan"

PREMITUM FOR 1860.

for the entertainment of our readers.

PREMIUM FOR 1860

In order to increase the already large circulation of the KNGKERBOCKER, we publish this month a splendid line engraving of Frith's picture of 'Morry-Making in the Olden Time,' which we shall present exclusively to the $3 subscribersate to the Magazine for 1860, whether old or new. The subject represents the pastimes of our ancestors, and is eminently of a genial, domestic character. The plate, engraved in England at an expense of 2000 dollars, is entirely new, measures twenty-five by unineteen and a half inches in size, contains thirty-nine figures, and is beyond comparison the finest work of the kind ever offered as a premium in this country.

'The engraving of Frith's picture of Merry-Making in the Olden Time, represents the humors of an English holiday in the county in those good old times when the men wore cocked-hats and knee-breeches, and the women stays and hoops—a costume not essentially differing from the corest and crincline of the present day. Almost in the centre of the picture and a little to the back-ground is a country dance on the green, with a hard-featured fiddler perched on a high seat, and another musician in a tie-wig standing by him, playing with all their might. On the right two bouncing girls are gaily pulling toward the dance a gray-haired man, who seems valuely to remonstrate that his 'dancing days are over,' while a waggish little child pushes, him forward from behind, greatly to the amusement of his spouse, who is still sitting at the teatable, from which he has been dragged. On the left, under a magnificent spreading oak, sit the 'equire and his wife, whom a country man with his hat off is respectfully inviting to take part in the dance. To the left of the 'squire is a young couple on the grass, to whom a glpsy with an ionat on her shoulder is telling their fortune. Over the shoulders of this couple is seen a group engaged in quoit-playing, and back of the whole is a landscape of gentle shops and shoulder is telling their fortune. Over the shoulders of this couple is seen a group engaged in quoit-playing, and back of the whole is a landscape of gentle slopes and copies. The picture has the expression of gayety through out and the eugraving is splendfully executed. It is fresh from the burin of Holl, not having yet been published in England: out and the eugraving is splendidly executed. It is fresh from the burin of Hotl, not having yet been published in England.'

TERMS.—Twenty-five cents per number, or $3 per annum, In advance; two copies $5; three copies $6. The postage on the Magazine (tweuty-four cents per annum) to be paid in all cases at the office where it is received.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case.—So sure as water will extinguish fre, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quice plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor, in order to give some idea of the sudden rise, and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1852. I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day—in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the humals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles.—O, what a mercy if it prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but faw who have seen more of it than I have.

awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people, cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, pain in the side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of dist ever necessary—eat the best you get and snough of it.

Ne change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you get and enough of it.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY

From Rev. Jacob Sechler, well known and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania. spected throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

HANOVER, PA., Feb. 16, 1869.

Messrs, S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. — Dear Sirs.
Jlaving realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation, — Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, — it affords no pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I resuld, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry gloot throughout the country.

37 Beware of vite and worthless counterfeits! The only JACOB SECHLER.

Genniae, Pure, and Medicinal Balsam has the name of

of the proprietors, "S. W. FOWLE & Co.," on the MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, etc., PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ROUGHNESS OF THE SKIN, etc. The IRON being absorbed by the blood, and thus circulating through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, de-pression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in al-most every conceivable case. In all cases of female debility (fluor albus, chlorosis, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, com-plete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use. cheerful exercise, immediately follow 13 use.
