t Breckinridge a disunionist and a disunion Cough—is not Breckinridge a disunionist and a disunion candidate?

Breck.—He is neither. Every word and act of John C. Breckinridge's public life is for the Union and against disunion. Jackson and Clay differed in party matters, but on the question of National Union, they agreed; and yet neither or them was more decided for the Union than Breckinridge's records proves him to be. And as to him being the disunion candidate, a glance at the leading Southern spirits who favor Douglas, should satisfy you that such is not the fact. Johnson, you may add Goulden, Forsyth, Scale and others—all of the most ultra disunion and filibuster school. If Tancey's support of Breckinridge pakes B. a disunionist, then these I have named as supporting Douglas, affix disunion upon D. still more strongly. Doug.—Dout's Breckinridge go for a slave code for the Territories?

porting Douglas, afix disunion upon D. still more strongly. Doug.—Don't Breckirridge go for a slave code for the Territories?

Breck.—No more than a borse code. The Constitution of the Unigd States r-cognizes slaves as property. The Supreme Court has, over and over a gain, so decided; and in '57 that Court further decided, what all must admit to be just, that slaves being property under the Constitution slaveholders may take such property with them into the Territories, (which belong not to one State or one section but to slit the States and all the sections.) and hold it there as property is long as the Territorial condition lasts; that this property is entitled to be protected the same as any other kind of property; that Congress itself has no power to deprive a citizen of his property in a Territory; and consequently, that a Territorial Egislature, which is but the creature of Congress, has no such power. All property—the property of the citizen who goes from a Southern State into a Territory, alike with the property of the citizen who goes from a Nonthern State—should be protected by the Courts, Marshais, and other constituted authorities. You must admit that, were it otherwise, the Constitution would be a cheat—sectional instead of national; and this is what the Abolitionists are aiming to make of it by Congres-ional intervention. Mr. Breckinridge's view is the fixthough one of the sakes no special Congressional laws or code for slave property, any more than he would ask them for any other kind of property; but slaves being property, the Government should protect their owners from robbery by the John Browns and other underground operators, in the same way it would protect their owners from robbery by the John Browns and other underground operators, in the same way it would protect their owners of horses or any other kind of property. Equality of rights and privileges to all citizens, regardless of the section from which they emigrate into the Territories, demands this.

Doug.—I must admit that, you say app

Territories, by which the yeople thereof may abolish or protect slavery, as they please. This seems to be the ductifine of Judge Douglas.

Breck.—But, when you look at the subject carefully, don't you see that that is squatter, not popular sovereignty. In the very nature of things, a Territorial Government cannot be sovereign. It is the creature of Congress. Its Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor, Secretary, Judges, &c., are sent to it by the Governor of the Union; and all its powers are derived from the Act of Congress organizing it, and must be exercised in conformity to the Constitution, which is the supreme law of States and Territories.—Congress has repeatedly repealed Territorial faws. Judge Douglas proposed a repeal of the organic act of Utah, as a mode of reaching and suppressing the Mornon outrages in that Territory. The truth is, a Territory is not sovereign. Dut dependent. Judge Douglas pass has said so time and signin. And bestdes, the decision of the Supreme Court to which I have already referred, denies to both Congress and the Territories of Sovernment, the right or power to abolish slavery in a Territory. Popular sovereignt, Commence with the organization of a State Government. States are sovereign.—Ferritories are not.

Doug.—That d. es seem plain enough. But, if I am not mistasen, there is not a great dead of difference between the plain from that nonlinated Douglas pass a resolution to solde by the decisions of the Supreme Court? Breck.—Yes, and it may be said that in Doug.—I thought, myself, that that resolution was Doug.—1 thought, myself, that that resolution was introduced at Baimmore, and passed, to secure Loudisana and other Southern States. But, to come back to the matter on which we started; what is best to be done by the Democrats to carry Pennsylvania against Lincoln, and be eiested, if I can do anything to newant it.

Inus outest man; a certainly see a max and a con-be elected, if I can do anything to prevent it. And I con-fess I leel more anxious for Lincoln's defeat, now that Hickman has so glaringly played the traitor and joined the Abolituonists, than I did before. His treason shall not benefit either himself or Lincoln, if I can help it. I was anti-Lecompton; think Mr. Buchanan erred in his Kansas policy; but still I am a Democrat and against the Abolionists.

Ereck.—The course to be pursued is plain to my mind Breck.—The course to be pursued is plain to my mind, and has already been pointed out by the regular bemocratic State Executive Committee; union on Foster, the regular candidate for Governor, in October, and union on the regular electoral ticket, in November, with the understanding that this treket, in elected, shall cast the vote of the State for Douglax, it it will elect him, or to cast it for Breckinridge, if it will elect him.

Daug.—But why not have the Electors pledged to Douglas alone?

Days—But why not have the Electors pledged to Douglas alone?

Breck.—I will explain why. Suppose Breckinridge should have one hundred and twenty-five votes without Ponnsylvania, and the rest were divided among Lincoln, Bell and Dauglas. It requires 50 votes to elect. Our 27 votes would elect Breckinridge, but they would do Dauglas no good. It given to Dauglas, in such a case, the effect could only be to send the election to the House, where, by bribery and corruption, Lincoln might be elected. Better, by lart, that they should be thrown to Breckinrige, and Lincoln selects to the certainly effected. It would be anreasonable to ask or expect Democrats who are favorable to Breckinridge, to vote for electors pledged to vote against him, when their vote for Douglas can do him no good, and can only benefit Lincoln. against him, when their vote for Douglas can do him no good, and can only benefit Lincoln.

Douglas, that should no happen that the 27 votes of the Breckinridge, that should no happen that the 27 votes of our obtate cannot elect Douglas, but will elect Breckinridge, I, as a Democrate feel bound to say that they should be given to Breckinridge. Better, far better, that Breckinridge, Better, far better, that Rreckinridge, Better, far better, that the Lincoln should become President.

Breck:—Certainly. And the sooner all Pennsylvania Democrate come to this understanding, the better, for it opens the way for certain success in the context for Governic, and the state of the Breck:—Everning up bat blood and division among Democratic by keeping up bat blood and division among Democrate, to doesat Foster—to elect Abolitica Congressmen like lickman, and to throw the State to Lincoln. Fornev's interests is against a Democratic victory. He is now making bis thousands yearly, as Clerk of the Black Republication of the same money making position.

Dougla—I think you are right about Forney and in skilling siver of the Black way of the state of the position.

get another lease of two years in the same money making position.

Doug.—I think you are right about Forney, and in taking a view of the whole ground, I do think that the best chance of electing Foster and deteating Lincoln, is as you represent, by a union of all Democrats on Foster and one Electoral Ticket. Douglas can't lese anything by it; Democratic Governor in whom we all have confidence, and a President who will save the Constitution from Abolition outrage, and coutine our national Union on that basis of State and citizen equality, on which it was placed by Washington and his patriotic associates. But, I must now leave, and when we again meet, we can review the subject.

THE WESTERN CROPS. The Ohio correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, under date of August 3d, writing from New Richmond, Ohio, says: In our county, and indeed, we might say of the whole State, at no former period of its history, has the earth yielded such large increase; the copious rains of the early part of last month, the warm days and nights of the present, is making such a crop of corn as never was seen before. The wheat crop alone, of Ohio, is set down at thirty-five millions bushels—five millions excess of any crop ever before made. The oats crop is tremendous; potatoes, a large crop; fruit—crop of apples. of peaches, an average; the grape erop will be about a two third crops.

From reliable sources, we have learned that what is true of our own State, may be said of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, north western Missouri, and most of Iowa and Wisconsin Letters from our friends in Mississippi Tennessee, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, and other Southern States are gloomy, they say the South, as a whole, will not make peck of corn to the acre planted. Their sweet potato crop, upon which they largely depend for food, is entirely cut off. The cotton crop will do pretty well. It will take the surplus means of the South to buy bread stuffs and provender, and the Western States will have to supply their wants, we having such a superabundance will stand in the position the South occupied two years ago, when they had such fine crops, and we short ones

WHO ARE THE DRUSES!

The wholesale and frightful massacre of the Christians in Syria by the Druses will lead Christians in Syria by the Druses will lead our readers to inquire. Who are the Druses? and we take the following description of this fanatical people from the Washington Constitution:— They are a sect of Mohammedans who frace their origin to a washering fanatic named Hamsa who in confunction. sides and a friend of Douglas. We copy from the state and a friend of Douglas. We copy from the state and the second are not Abolitonists and have no sympathy with the Black Republicans, should be the defeat of Lincoln. He is a spirit which prompts to acts or disloyalty to the Constitution and the Union. For one, I would like to see him defeated, and I trust the old Reystone State will not vote for him. But how shall we prevent him from carrying this State, and thereby becoming President? With the present unfortunate division in the party, I see but one way of carrying the State against him; and that is, by all Democrats untiling on the same electoral ticket.

Douglas main—I am cartainly opposed to Lincoln, but I regard Douglas as the regular Democratic candidate, and dou't see how I can go for any other than a straight out Douglas electoral ticket. boughas as the regular Democratic candidate, and boughas electoral ticket.

Breck.—But you are aware that there are many, aye, thousands of Democratic in this State—Democrate who never scratched a ticket—who believe that Doughas was not regularly nominated. We all know that the delegations of several of the States in the Convention which declared him nominated were bogus, and did not represent the regular Democratic organizations of their State; and that, even in a Convention thus constituted, he failed to out which there could not be a regular nomination. We do so, we find that neither Doughas nor Breckinridge was myself free to be for Breckinridge, and I am for him, broadly a benefit to the clients of the Jessens and Jackson unquestionable; and in addition, the Platform on which and Urion,—the Platform of equal rights to the Kates and Platrom of no two class, but thoroughly national, and the North and the South.

CURTIN INSULTING GERMANS. Col. Curtin has indulged in expressions against the Germans, that will materially damage his prospects among that large and respectable class of voters in this State. The German farmers of Pennsylvania are an honest and honorable class of men, and the very bone and sinew of the Commonwealth The German farmers of Nittany Valley, of all parties, we are told, are very much displeased with Mr. Curtin, for having said, in a speech last May that: "A Dutchman is not like last May that: "A Ducenman is not like another person; he has two skulls, and in order to get an idea into his head, you must first smash one of his skulls." That's a handsome compliment for the German farmers of Centre county, and of Pennsylvania, and paid you by Andrew G. Curtin, the Black Republican Know Nothing candidate for Governor. Tell it to every German voter (or Dutchman as Andy calls them) of Pennsylvania, and see whether there is not idea enough under their "two skulls" to withhold their votes from one who makes use of such disrespectful language in speaking of the honest Germans of his native State. How can one of our German voters cast his vote for Andy? We are sure no one can do so, unless he be lost to all shame and self respect. We have something further to relate of a similar character, but space will not permit it this week.—Centre Co. Berichter.

STATE FINANCES.

The semi-annual interest on the funded debt of Pennsylvania, was promptly paid on Wednesday, the 1st inst., by the State Treasurer, who visited Philadelphia for that purpose. The total funded debt on the 1st day of December, 1859, was $38,638,961,07, the half yearly interest upon which is $798,-739.02. The balance in the Treasury, on the 1st of July, after providing for the interest, amounted to $365,402,27, so that the balance left in hand, upon a moderate calculation of the incoming receipts, will amount to about $1,000,000! This is a very handsome exhibit of the financial affairs of the State, and certainly the most flattering one since she disposed of her public works.

A CHANCE FOR "REPUBLICAN" CAPITAL. "Republican" jugglers are loud in claiming that Douglas cannot carry his own State of If any such have their dimes to back up their opinion with, is is stated that Mr. Louis Scissler, of Galena, will accommodate them. That gentleman offers to bet $25,000 that Douglas will carry Illinois, and as the "Republicans" of Galena do not feel willing to take him up, invites the "Republicans " of any other place to accept the wager by either of them. In peace and in war they have always, and at all times, been found on the side of their whole country-north and south, east and west-and never have they harbored a thought or entertained a sentiment against the integrity and perpetuity of the

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORA-TOR.—An Effective, Safe and Economical Compound, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color with-out dyelog, and preventing the Hair from turning gray. FOR BEMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and increasing demand for this preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleaness the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases. Causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy, and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is looseuing and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of Isdies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this luvigorator, when all other preparations had falled. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hoir Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great farilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator will with certainty and any required form so as to preserve it place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none cuth to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being ONLY TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists' and perfumers. cucht to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being ONLY TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists' and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his lavigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be week. The use of it lays the foundarion for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of the Hair.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL,

I'll sing to show why Tower Hall Must ever, full in sight.
The bobtail be when'er I fly
An intellectual kite.

An intellectual RIG.
The Tower Hall my theme must be,
And I no other choose,
Because my inspiration comes
From one delighted Muse, Who hovers o'er the Tower Hall,
To be my constant mate;
And sings the songs which I indite,
To all her sisters eight.

Quite oft the Muses nine appear-A mirthful, smiling throng—

And each, in turn, to me suggests
A thought to gem my song; And, when I reach the closing verse The sisters, one and all, Most sweetly whispers, "Don't forget To speak of Tower Hall!"

I listen to their whispers now— They say, "Respected Bard, Will you, to please perverted taste, Our wishes disregard? "If so, we'll leave you, sir, at once; And you in vain will rhyme; No flowers of fancy you shall pluck, When you Parnassus climb.

"Cast down by shame and sense of loss.
You'll suffer for awhile— A pilgrim poet all unblest By any Muse's smile; And from the mount where we are throned,
You shall dishonored fall? Forbear! I cry—I'll ever sing Of Bennett's Tower Hall.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

Schofula and Schotulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Dibbases, Ulores, SCHOPULA AND SCHOPULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCRES, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMOES, SALT REMUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILES AND SYPHILITIO APPECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DEOFSY, NEURALGIA OR TIO DOULDUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OE St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong and the great reaching. must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it but more because respectively. for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests m the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should e judiciously taken according to directions on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.
