Resolved, That the Democratic Electoral Ticket be headed with the name of Stephen A. Douglas or John C. Brecknirdge as an Elector at large, and in the event of the success of said ticket, if the greater number of votes shall have been cast for Stephen A. GURERNATORIAL.

The triumphant election of Gen. HENRY D. FOSTER to the Gubernatorial chair of the Commonwealth is," from all we can see and hear, a foregone conclusion. How can it be eously turned their guns against the Bell and otherwise? Every Democrat in the State-no | Everett men, from which we infer that Bell matter what his Presidential predilections are and Everett are looming up. The Republicans -is heart and soul for our pure and noble | imagined that they had absorbed or crushed hearted candidate; so are also thousands of the conservative element of the Opposition, tion has commenced. The Republican party good and true Union men belonging to other and have suddenly discovered their mistake— of Pennsylvania is in the throes of a great have "caught a neglected cold," too, just question of Governor, never has been, never expected to quake in their shoes at all this to retain the conservative element by means can be defeated; but, in addition to a united thunder, and allow themselves to be scourged of the deceptive contrivance labelled "Peoparty vote, the thousands outside of our into immediate submission. But they don't ple's party." Before the day of election arorganization, who will cast their votes for appear to be a bit slarmed. They continue to Gen. FOSTER, make assurance doubly sure. and render his election certain, and that, too, by an overwhelming majority.

And Gen. Foster is in every respect worthy the position of Chief Magistrate of this great and glorious old Commonwealth. A Pennsylvanian by birth and in feeling, every pulsation of his noble heart beats for the honor, prosperity and glory of his native State. Of incorruptible honesty and integrity, his administration will be a model one for posterity to contemplate. The government, under his direction, will be brought back to what it was in the palmy days of those pure patriots and statesmen, Simon Snyder and Francis R. SHUNK, and Pennsylvania will stand forth redeemed and regenerated from corruption and political intrigue-the wonder and admiration of the whole Union.

The Democracy of the State may well be proud of such a candidate, and we do not wonder that they are so enthusiastic in his support. Everywhere-north, south, east and west-but one spirit animates the Democ racy, and that is a determination to make HENRY D. FOSTER the next Governor by one of those old-fashioned Democratic majorities with which we were wont to astonish our foes. SIR RICHARD AGAIN!

Last week there appeared in our columns a brief paragraph, written on the spur of the moment, which, perhaps, some of our readers may misunderstand. We said that "We go for Dick first, last, and all the time,"-Dick, it being understood, meaning RICHARD J. HAL DEMAN, Esq., of Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania. We must now qualify the first exuberance of our enthusiasm, so far as to say, that what we meant was, that if so absurd a policy as that of which he is the representative is adopted, we desire that his name should be connected with the movement, just to see how many votes he will get! nois, being a little anxious to know how old He will find it, we imagine, a very different thing to run against Democratic principles, a letter, propounding certain questions which whatever arrangements he may make with the Opposition, to running in favor of them direct answers. But instead of receiving the H., who offers great inducements to purchaswas the case when he was a candidate for the UNION IN NEW YORK, It is now reduced almost to a certainty that all the opponents of Lincoln will unite on one common electoral ticket in the State of New York. If so, then good bye to OLD ABE's chances of ever reaching the White House. The Union ticket will sweep the Empire State by 50,000 majority!

THE ISSUES PRESENTED.

Hon. Wm. H. Seward, the very embodiment and soul of Black Republicanism, has recently been making an electioneering trip to Maine, where he made a number of speeches. In Boston, on his way, he had a very handsome reception, and addressed a large crowd from the balcony of the Revere House. His speech was extremely radical on the slavery question enough to suit even Garrison and Phillips .-He thus set forth the issues upon which the Black Republicans are fighting the present campaign:

1. That they have nominated Abraham Lincoln as their standard bearer, "confessing the obligations of the HIGHER LAW." 2. That they are contending "for weal or woe, for life or death, in the IRREPRESSI-BLE CONFLICT between freedom and

3. That "we are now in the last stage of the conflict, before the great triumphal inauguration of THIS POLICY INTO THE GOVERN-MENT OF THE UNITED STATES! 4. "With this victory, comes the end of slavery. After his speech, short addresses were made by Senator Wilson and others, endorsing and complimenting Mr. S.; and his speech has been published, endorsed and commended by the Black Republican papers-thus proving that he correctly represented the real doctrines and purposes of that party. It will be seen that the war here declared, is not against slavery extension, but against slavery in the States. The "higher law" and "irrepressible conflict" are to be " inaugurated into the Government of the United States" with Abraham Lincoln, and then, says Mr. Seward, "comes the end of slavery." This "irrepressible conflict" doctrine was announced by Lincoln as a part of his creed some time before Seward proclaimed it, and whatever "conservative" professions he may make now, to secure votes, this intensified abolitionism is his real doctrine. It means a "conflict" on the part of the General Government, with sovereign States, to end slavery !-This is the policy, says Seward, that is about to be inaugurated into the General Government. No sane man can fail to see where such a conflict would speedily end. "With this victory," and "this policy," would come the wreck of the Union, not the "end of

UNION IS THE WORD:

The indications are that the Democratic Many papers that opposed the first plan of union, have expressed themselves entirely satisfied with the last arrangement. Nearly all the Douglas papers in the State, we mean those that are sincere in their declarations of friendship for him, have already wheeled into line, and testify their devotion to the Democratic cause and their abhorrence of the scheme to divide the party for the benefit of Lincoln. Such papers as the Pittsburg Post. Hollidaysburg Standard, Chambersburg Valley Spirit, Armstrong Democrat, and Wilkesbarre Union-all strong and leading Douglas papers-are warmly in favor of the compromise. So are all the County Conventions 18th inst. The Democrat says: which have recently been held, and the County Committees. Even in Col. Hendrick B. Wright's district it is the same way. At a full meeting of the Democratic County Committee of Luzerne county, held at Wilkesbarre, on Saturday week, a resolution was offered by Stanley Woodward, Esq., fully and unequivocally endorsing the Cresson compromise, and recommending the Democracy of the county to give the State Electoral ticket, as formed at Reading, their undivided support. The resolution was sustained in an able and powerful speech by Col. Hendrick B. Wright, and unanimously adopted. This same Col. Wright, it will be recollected, was the President of the bogus State Convention which met at Harrisburg on the 26th ult. The good work goes brevely on. The true Democracy everywhere are wheeling into line, and the straight out disorganizers will scarcely number a corporal's guard in any county of the State by the time the election arrives. Com'th vs. John R. Frodenberger-Charged with picking the pocket of David Bender, at Johns' Hotel, North Queen street. on the 2d of April last, the particulars of which were fully reported in our columns at the time. The prisoner is quite respectable-looking, clad in black, and wears a large moustache and goatee. He manifested the warmest interest in the trial, exhibiting much excitement during the examination. His counsel, A. H. Hood, Eq., made an able and lugenious defence. Verdict guity. Seatenced to three years' imprisonment in the County Prison.

Com'th vs. Henry Miller. Indicted for arson. Verdict not guity, with defendant for roots.

The proceedings were next interlarded with a surety of peace case, the complainant being one Peter Shuey, and the defondant Mrs. Margaret Henderson, a well-known character, residing in the western and of Walnut street, this city. The plaintiff was formely a tenant of the defendant, who desired him to vacate the premises at a specified time, or she would terminate his carer. She, disdaining the assistance or profiered services of several gallant gentlemen within the bar, pleaded her own case with a voluble tongue, but without moving the sympathy of the Court or spectators. The case being such an one as should not have been brought before a tribunal, the Court decided to equalize the expenses in the case, and ordered behinding and defendant to pay an equal part of the costs. This the latter refused to do, and made a "bold stroke" to get out of the Court room, which rendered it necessary for Sheriff Rowe to perform the ungallant act of arreating her progress, for which interference he got a vigorous rap over the head with an umbrella. The hady finally succumbed, and was placed in the prisoner's box.

Com'th vs. John Charles, Henry Leipel, et al. The defendants in this case, eight or tạn in number, are charged with creating a riot. It appeared that on the second of June last the defendants, who reside in Washington borrough, proceeded to a cortain fishing ground in the Susquehanna, between Washington and Columbls. When they reached the spot, the ground was in possession of Samuel Arms and several friends who had a flat anchored in the stream which interfered with the Washington party. They requested Arms to remove the obstruction, which he refused to do. The Washington party then drew the anchor and set the flat adrift. High words and a souffle then ensued, when revolvers and knives were drawn, but no one was seriously injured.

The defendants are charged with passing a counterfeit five dollar note on the Bunk of Commerce. The transaction took place in Marietta on the 14th of March last, and the note was passed upon a Mrs. Hower, who keeps a German restaurant in that place. From the testimony of the witnesses for the Commonwealth, it appeared that the parties had attempted to pass the same note at several places during the same evening, and were told that the note was a rank counterfeit, and that the passing of it would involve them in trouble. They refused to head these warnings, and hence their appearance here. The case was submitted to the jury, who, after a brief absence, returned with a verdict of guilty against both, with a recommendation of mercy. Sentenced to three years each in the County Prison.

The complainant, Jacob Shears, a colored man, had rented a house in that locality, but appears to have refused to pay his rent, when defendants procured a writ of ejectment, and went to the house in Shears' absence, when they undertook to put his furniture out in a summary manner, having broken in the windows, raised the door off its hinges, and smashed things promisculously. The assault was committed upon the wife of Shears, who was kicked in the side and otherwise maltreated. Verdict not guilty and prosecutor for costs.

This somewhat famous Black Republican member of Congress, from the Westmore land district, better known in his immediate vicinity i our city a visit on Friday last, and made a speech in th evening at the Wigwam, South Queen street, to the Wid Awakes then and there assembled—and such a speech! O, ye gods and little fishes! After hearing him murder th en's English, and violate the plainest rules of grammar n his jumble of nonsense and abuse of the National stration and the Democratic party, for nearly two nortal hours, it will not surprise any of his auditors to know that he was selected as the prin nief hangman of the late "Smelling Committee" at Washington. It must have been highly edifying to the intelliwhilst speaking about the Kansas troubles, that "General Army." And this man is the beau ideal of a statesman in he eyes of the Black Republicans! Heaven preserve the ountry from the influence of such specimens of ignorance and imbecility in the National councils. If John Covod s one of the "great guns" of the Republican party, it migh be a problem, worthy of solution by political mathem icians, as to the quantum of brains contained in the raniums of the small guns who spout at the Lincoln meet ings! Shame upon such base ingratitude! Mr. Buchanan has his enemies, and we wouldn't give a fig for the man who hasn't, but no person, and especially such a low, vul-gar fellow as this Covode, can truthfully say that in his ublic or private career the least symptoms of dishonest nave been shown by him. He thought it necessary to inform his auditors, in his excidium, that he was not an "accomplished orator," but there was no occasion to tell them he was no gentleman, ten minutes after he commenced speaking. The impudence and mendacity which characterized his two hours' harague ought to have been rebuked, even by the distorted party spirit of a set of office-expectants; and that any portion of a respectable and intelligent community should quietly listen to such gross calumnies is much to be deplored. Mr. BUCHANAN is our neighbor, the benefactor of the poor of our city, and the present generation have grown up under his eye, to honor and esteem him as a gentleman and an estimable citizen. This alone, spart from his exalted position and his venerable grey hairs, ought to have protected him from the insults of a studio political and hired but.

The apathy with which the slanders of this blockhead wer line aparby with which the islanders of this blockhead were listened to, and the appliance with which he was occasionally greated, is an overwhelming disgrace to the party who are to be benefited by his mission, and it would be an insult to the common sense, the decency and the humanity of moderate men of all parties, to believe that they do not unqualifiedly condern the motives of those who were in-

KARL HAMMELFLEISCH KARL HAMMELFLEISCH For The Intelligences WEST EARL, August 27th, 1860.
RES. EDITORS: The Democrats in West Earl are very eased with the action of the County Committee. All we remains to be dode, in order to defeat the Black that now remains to be dode, in order to defeat the Black Republican ticket, is to persuade men who are honest, tried and true, and popular because they are honest.

West Earl asks for only one candidate—let the candidates for all the County offices be from what part of the county they may. We propose William Carpenter, Esq., as the Independent Union Candidate for Congress. Mr. Carpenter is a gentleman who will be an honor to Lancaster county, in Congress, and the people's party will elect him.

THE PROSPECT IN VIRGINIA.

The Richmond Enquirer of Thursday, has the following: The late election in Kentucky has opened the eyes of the people of that State. It has demonstrated beyond doubt that the Know-Nothing candidate has triumphed over his Democratic competitor only by means of a large accession of the supporters of Mr. Douglas—a clear indication that the division between these two classes of Coombs' supporters will necessarialy throw the State for Breckinridge and Lane in November.

We have much reason to hope that this example will not be lost on the State of Vir ginia. In this State the contest is undoubtedly confined to the Bell and Breckinridge tickets. Only in a few scattered localities does the Douglas ticket make any material exhibition of strength. With all the means of authentic information within our reach, and by the most liberal calculation, we find that Mr. Douglas cannot count an average of 50 supporters in each county of the State uch an average would give him in all about 7.500 votes. General consent has fixed the usual Democratic majority in Virginia at about 10,000. Thus supposing that entire Opposition vote shall be concentrated on John Bell—and supposing, too, that the entire Douglas vote shall be abstracted from the Democratic ranks, the above figures would leave the Breckinridge ticket a plural-

But past experience has amply proved to the wire workers who have attempted to least 6,000 men among the Opposition party who cannot be led into the support of a ticket tainted with anti slavery. Thus the contrast between the perfectly conservative position of Breckinridge and Lane and the utterly obnoxious anti-slavery records of both Bel and Everett, will bring over to the former ticket about 6,000 thousand votes from the ing over to the former Opposition ranks. This will give Breckinridge a plurality of 14,500 over Bell and clear majority of 8,000 over Bell and Douglas

The Tyrone Star, a sound Bell and Everett paper, published at Tyrone City, in its last issue contains the following:

"The Philadelphia Daily News of Aug. 4th says 'Mr. Curtin will earnestly advocate the support of Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency. Does the Daily News speak by uthority ?' We have the name of Mr. Curtin at the head of our paper as our candidate or Governor, but if he 'earnestly advocates the support of Abraham Lincoln,' he must just as 'earnestly' oppose the election of John Bell, and if this be so, we should very much like to know it. Does the Daily News, speak by authority?'

A horrible accident occurred on the 28th ult., at Freeport, Armstrong county, by which a man named Frank M'Callom, lost his life in a horrible manner. He was boiling salt at Mr. James' works, when by some mischance he was precipitated head-foremost into the cistern of boiling salt water. He succeeded in crawling out, but there being no one near to assist him, he unfortunately back again into the scalding brine. Notwithstanding this second and terrible mishap, he got out without assistance and walked to his nome. He was actually flayed alive, and, after suffering unknown tortures, he at last found death, twenty four hours after the ecident.

IN FAVOR OF UNION.

We have a list of sixty six Democratic papers in this State, that have declared in favor of the union of the party in support of one Electoral Ticket, upon the basis of the recommendation of the State Executive Committee. The list includes many papers that warmly advocate Douglas and Johnson, as well as those that go for Breckinridge and Lane; but ithe prevailing sentiment is for united action against the common enemy, as the only hope of success - Greensburg Democrat.
