STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn. Less of Appetite. Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nerrous, Kheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles. After the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor. Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now effered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful meticinal virtues must be acknowledged,
It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, influsing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, bossessed of singular remedial properties. STOMACH OR LIVER.

READ CAREFULLY! The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-plut bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR Phe Great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. purchasing.

Beware of Imposition. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy. Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.

DANDY NAILED. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

A dandy, called "a nice young man," Resolved to cut a dash; His means were small, but very large His whiskers and moustache. He'd neither cents within his purse. Nor sense within his head:

He quenched his thirst with friendly "treats," And on "free lunches" fed. Puffed up with pride and self conceit,
He said, in language bold,
"I've brass enough, and that shall win
A maiden fair, with gold."

He neatly dressed in latest style, Yet he—so said his friends— Of neatness did not have enough To reach his finger's ends. Twas true, alas! and he was doomed
To taste the cup of woe,
Because unto his finger's ends
His neatness did not go.
He wooed a maid, and really thought
Her heart and wealth his own—
He kneeled and said, "Oh! be my wife,
To live for me alone."

To live for me atone."

She smiled; he said, "My happy heart Your smile approving halls!"

Her lips unclosed; "Be off," said she, "Go home, and clean your naits!"

He lifted up the hand refused,
And gazed, with trembling lips,
Upon his nails—he read his doom
In lines upon their tips. His "brass" grew dim; his grief found vent In one desponding groan.

The maiden rich stepped out—he stood,
With dirty nalls, alone.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children. stitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I

This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous community, but they have for less records a rich plaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; consestand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs arise from or and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from of

It is con-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affec-tions which arise from it such as Expurgation tions which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ disease. public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and pro-duced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgatten. be forgotten.

HANOVER, PA., Feb, 16, 1859.
Messrs. S. W. Fowler & Co., Boston. — Dear Sirs. Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation, — Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, — It affords nie pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she bad taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. Iwould, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry ghost throughout the Country.
