DISORGANIZATION.

It is given out in the Philadelphia Press and Harrisburg Sentinel that a straight out Sworn and subscribed, September 6th. 1860, coram.

Denotes electoral times in to be announced in Sep 11 it 35]

J. C. VAN CAMP, Alderman Douglas electoral ticket is to be announced in Douglas electoral ticket is to be announced in a day or two. We presume it is so, and that this is to be done in order to aid the Black Republicans in carrying the State, for we know of no other possible effect such a movement, if it enlists any goodly number of the voters, can have. And this is to be done in the face of an almost unanimous public sentiment against such a such a suicidal policy; for, of about seventy five Democratic papers in the State, not less than seventy (embracing those for Douglas as well as Breckinridge,) have given in their adhesion to the Cresson Compromise, and are warmly advocating the support of the regular electoral ticket formed by the Reading Convention.

Speaking of this straight out movement, the Harrisburg Patriot remarks:

"Although the object of this Committee is clearly to defeat the Democratic party by promoting division, they will fail in accomplishing their purpose. The most probable effect of a straight out ticket will be to divert a few thousand votes in the State that would otherwise go over directly to Lincoln. The a few thousand votes in the State that would otherwise go over directly to Lincoln. The opinions of the great mass of the Democratis of the great mass of the great mass of the Democratis of the great mass of th otherwise go over directly to Lincoln. The opinions of the great mass of the Democratic of Pennsylvania are resolutely fixed in favor of union, as offering the only prospect of arresting Democratic defeat; and they are too wide awake to be guiled by such a transparent scheme as this. The cause of union for the sake of the union is growing and strengthening every day, sweeping away the barriers that bogus committees and thimble-rigging politicians interpose to stay the mighty current. The time has passed when a handful of restless politicians can issue commands from closed rooms to thwart the wishes of a great party. The people laugh at their silly machinations. The united Democracy of Pennsylvania will place its iron hele upon their plot and crush it. The mailed arm of the party will smite it with the blow of destruction."

Fassing Notice.--The Housekeeper's Friend - Spaiding's Prepared Glue. This admirable a di-tion to our standard household economies will be hailed by all good housewires as a bon long wished for, but hitherto unattained. Spaiding's Prepared Glue is perfectly hitherto unattained. Spalding's Prepared Glue is perfectly adapted for those timely repairs to household wares, furniture, crockery and for fancy work, that is almost daily dema-ded by the experience of every housekeeper. It is chemically held in solution, will with-tand the action of climate and time rotains its full strength, and is put up in a snug convenient bettle, with a brush, all for twenty-five cents. On being applied, the chemicals readily exaporate and the glue b-comes firm quickly, and adheres with the tenacity of the best cabinet-maker's glue. For wood, leather, or other articles where glue is ever used, it is just the thing. We have tried it, and speak by the card. In the country it will be invaluable, and ne body in the city will think of doing without it. If Mr. Spalding desires to become a candidate for the Presidency, and his friends stick like his glue, he will be sure of an election.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

A suitor bold, for many years A maiden fair had wooed; But could not win a kind response, Though earnestly he sued.

She took his gifts, with grateful smile, His willing hands to bless; But. still, her rosy lips withheld The sighed—for, little, yes. At last, one night, when hope deferred His heart with woe did fill, He said, "Dear Mary, be my wife;" And she replied, "I will."

"You will!" he cried; and Mary's lips lie kissed, with wild delight, Then said, "My darling, tell me why You yield your heart to night?"

The maiden, with a smile, replied:
"Last night, while in my bed,
A big mosquito, Charley dear,
Alighted on my head. "He bit me, Charles, upon the bump Where generous feelings dwell— The organ of Benevolence He caused to badly swell.

"Tis now so large, that, with a heart Which kind emotions cheer. I could not, when you asked my hand Refuse it, Charley dear." Fond kisses sealed the vows which gave
The heart which Charley sought;
To Tower Hall he rushed, and there
A wedding suit he bought. He told his tale, and said, "The Bard May now a song indite, And show what great results have flowed From one effective bite."

As large benevolence may cause

For, when that bump by swelling gets
To be no longer small,
The heart will yield to one who'll buy
His clothes at Towns Hall!

We call the attention of the reader to the following letter from President Smith, of Wesleyan University: MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb 28, 1859. SETH W. FOWLE & Co. - Gentlemen: - I first made use of the Oxygenated Bitters some seven or eight years since. Having suffered for twenty years from a form of dyspepsia, which was attended with a nervous headache, on an average of not less than one day in a week, I was induced, by the unpretending recommendation of Dr. Green, "to try one bottle, and if no benefit was received to discontinue the uso." The use of one bottle warranted a further trial, to the extent of some three or four, with a careful observance of the accompanying directions. The result was, an almost entire relief from the usual dyspeptic symptoms and their depressing, painful consequences. I believe these Bitters produced an entire change in the habits of my system, and upon the active energies of the digestive vice to other members of my family. Very respectfully yours AUGUSTUS W. SMITH.

Messrs, SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Gents : - I was, for many years, a great sufferer from Dyspepsia or Waterbrash, and tried almost everything within my reach, but to no benefit, until I was induced by the recommendation of my physician, Dr. Hazelton, to make use of the Oxygenated Bitters. The first buttle produced but a slight alteration in the disease, and had it not been for the urgent request of my physician, I should then have discontinued their use, thinking them to be of no avail; but his confidence inspired me to perevere, and after using to the extent of half a dozen buttles, I had entirely regained my health. I hope all Dyspeptic persons will be induced to give them a fair trial, being confident that the remedy is the most potent, for the various forms of Dyspepsia, that has been produced. Yours.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterntive elsewhere.

bored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extractof Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to care. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to

of the following complaints:—
Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of

THE BLOOD. This compound will be found a great pro-This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous seres, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions if not assisted to do. rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresitible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
