CURTIN'S PILGRIMAGE.

CURTIN'S PILGRIMAGE. Col. Andrew G. Curtin, the Abolition can-didate for Governor, is still on his peregrinat-ing four through the State in behalf of places exoites but little enthusiasm, while the measure of his success in explaining the beauties of Black Republicanism and his own remarkable tergiversations is small indeed. Mr. Cuartn, in politics, has been "everything by turns and nothing long." He wasfirsta Whig, and then a Know Nothing, and now a full blooded Abolitionist. He bas, over and over again, denounced the Germans and Irish in unmeasured terms, but this was when it was fashionable for demagogues and corrupt politicians to steak reproachfully of better men than themselves. Mr. Curtin is a son of an Irishman—a foreigner—but this did not better him from taking the blasphen-mous Know Nothing oit: "Le Basphone work, bld her last adien, and offered her secute all foreign citizens. But, Know-Nothingism "busted up "—the weight of its own corruption was too much for it, and down it went with the hiss of an indignant people in the ears of its followers. Andrew G. Curtin got out of the wreck and from among Col. Andrew G. Curtin, the Abolition can-Curtin got out of the wreck and from among the rubbish as best he could. But, after a few months of exile, at the head of Salt River, he and his guilty coadjutors again appear upon the political stage, to attempt nce more to deceive and gull the neople Such is Col. Curtin as an advocate of Black Republicanism. Ever since our earliest recol lection of political matters, this same Mr. Curtin has been a NOTED LOBBY MEMBER at Harrisburg ; and it is well known that during the winter of '58 he was at his accustomed post, and was mainly instrumental in engineering the iniquitous bill for the fraudulent sale of our public works to the Sunbury and Oats Erie company through our Legislature.— What tax payer of this State will vote for such a man? Never else than a political demagogue--pausing at no meanness of injustice that would promote any political end, the people are too familiar with his antecedents to now become his dupes. The honest yeomanry among whom he now is, have once indignantly condemned him, and have in store for him a still more severe rebuke, no matter how he may attempt to explain his extraordinary political tergiversations.-Allentown Democrat.

THE PROSPECTS FOR FOSTER.

The prospects for the election of our gallant candidate for Governor, are getting brighter every day. A letter from Old Berks informs that that old citadel of Democracy will roll up at least 7,000 majority for him. In the Eastern part of the State we can look for stunning FOSTER majorities. This is what Curtin alluded to the other night, when he appealed to the Republicans of Erie county help save him from the "cotton interest in Philadelphia. He knows as the candidate of a sectional party he will be beaten by thousands in Philadelphia. In the West, FOSTER will reduce the Republican majorities handsomely, his personal popularity about here being very great.—Erie Observer.

BRIGHAM YOUNG A DEFAULTER.-A dispatch from Washington says the accounts of Brig-ham Young, as ex officio superintendent of Indian affairs in Utah, have just undergone a long and searching scrutiny, and that they show he is a defaulter to the government to a considerable extent. A special agent has accordingly been despatched to Utah to undertake the recovery of the money.

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Jimmy Jones, not over prudent, Had a very prudent wife, And his conduct, as a husband, Led to some domestic strife.

Once he bought a pretty parrot, And an eagle for it paid; To his home he went rejoicing O'er the bargain he had made.

O'er the bargain he had made. "Foolish man!" exclaimed his lady, "Buying birds to eat our bread! What on earth could put such nonsense In your good-for-nothing head! "I, unyself, can do the talking ! You muy hungh, 'tis so indeed! I can talk from night 'till morning, And no parrot's help I need!

"You are wanting clothes for Sunday, And the money fooled away For that squalling, bawling parrot, For a decent coat would pay."

"For a sum so very small Could I buy a coat?" The parrot Quickly answered: "Tower HALL!"

"Yes, I did," repiled the husband, "And you see the bird is cute; To the Tower Hall we'll hasten, And there buy a Sunday suit."

"But that darling, little parrot Which gave rise to such a squall,

"You have saved the price of Polly, On your suit, you plainly see! And, at least, five dollars over, Which will buy a dress for me!

Turned your steps from other To the famous Towns HALL

It was bought, and fifteen dollars On the suit he really saved, Mrs. Jones, amazed, delighted, Said, "You've heretofore been shaved !

"Where, my dear ?" replied the husband,

"Tower Hall! exclaimed the lady, "Blees my heart! What have I heard ? Mercy on us! Jimmy darling, Did you hear that cunning bird!"
