

LANCASTER, PA., SEPTEMBER 25, 1860.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT: STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON, of Georgia.

FOR PRESIDENT: JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: GEN. JOSEPH LANE, of Oregon.

FOR GOVERNOR: HENRY D. FOSTER, of Westmoreland.

ELECTORS.

1. William C. Patterson, 14. J. Beckwith, 15. George W. Jackson, 16. J. B. Brown, 17. J. B. Brown, 18. J. B. Brown, 19. J. B. Brown, 20. J. B. Brown, 21. J. B. Brown, 22. J. B. Brown, 23. J. B. Brown, 24. J. B. Brown, 25. J. B. Brown, 26. J. B. Brown, 27. J. B. Brown, 28. J. B. Brown, 29. J. B. Brown, 30. J. B. Brown, 31. J. B. Brown, 32. J. B. Brown, 33. J. B. Brown, 34. J. B. Brown, 35. J. B. Brown, 36. J. B. Brown, 37. J. B. Brown, 38. J. B. Brown, 39. J. B. Brown, 40. J. B. Brown, 41. J. B. Brown, 42. J. B. Brown, 43. J. B. Brown, 44. J. B. Brown, 45. J. B. Brown, 46. J. B. Brown, 47. J. B. Brown, 48. J. B. Brown, 49. J. B. Brown, 50. J. B. Brown, 51. J. B. Brown, 52. J. B. Brown, 53. J. B. Brown, 54. J. B. Brown, 55. J. B. Brown, 56. J. B. Brown, 57. J. B. Brown, 58. J. B. Brown, 59. J. B. Brown, 60. J. B. Brown, 61. J. B. Brown, 62. J. B. Brown, 63. J. B. Brown, 64. J. B. Brown, 65. J. B. Brown, 66. J. B. Brown, 67. J. B. Brown, 68. J. B. Brown, 69. J. B. Brown, 70. J. B. Brown, 71. J. B. Brown, 72. J. B. Brown, 73. J. B. Brown, 74. J. B. Brown, 75. J. B. Brown, 76. J. B. Brown, 77. J. B. Brown, 78. J. B. Brown, 79. J. B. Brown, 80. J. B. Brown, 81. J. B. Brown, 82. J. B. Brown, 83. J. B. Brown, 84. J. B. Brown, 85. J. B. Brown, 86. J. B. Brown, 87. J. B. Brown, 88. J. B. Brown, 89. J. B. Brown, 90. J. B. Brown, 91. J. B. Brown, 92. J. B. Brown, 93. J. B. Brown, 94. J. B. Brown, 95. J. B. Brown, 96. J. B. Brown, 97. J. B. Brown, 98. J. B. Brown, 99. J. B. Brown, 100. J. B. Brown.

RESOLUTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That the Democratic ticket be headed with the name of Stephen A. Douglas and John C. Breckinridge as Elector and Vice President, and in the event of the success of either of the Democratic candidates...

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We are literally overrun with communications, and find it impossible to give them all a place in our columns, much as we would desire to accommodate our friends...

THE REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

The great Republican Mass Meeting, for which such magnificent preparations had been made, and to which all eyes were directed by flaming posters and advertisements for weeks previous, all over the Commonwealth, came off, according to programme, on Wednesday last; but that it approached anything near to public expectation, is altogether a different matter.

GENERAL FOSTER'S SPEECH.

The great speech delivered by Gen. Henry D. Foster, in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on the evening of the 17th inst., to an immense meeting of the people, will be found at length on our first page, and should be read by every voter in Lancaster county. It is a statesman-like production— terse, clear and forcible— creditable alike to the head and heart of its distinguished author, and effectually puts to flight all the shallow charges brought against him of infidelity to the interests of our noble Commonwealth.

MR. BRECKINRIDGE'S SPEECH.

The Washington Constitution of the 15th inst., publishes a revised copy of the great speech of Hon. John C. Breckinridge, delivered at Lexington, Ky., on the 5th. It occupies eleven of the broad columns of that paper, and is unquestionably one of the most eloquent, strongly reasoned, and masterly productions of this or any other Presidential campaign. It is a complete and thorough refutation of all the charges preferred against him since his nomination for the Presidency, and an unanswerable vindication of the platform on which he stands.

HON. HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON.

This distinguished and talented gentleman had a very large audience to hear him on the evening of the 17th inst. Fulton Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and his speech was characterized by force and ability— strongly conservative throughout—and was received with repeated demonstrations of applause. It was emphatically a Union speech, courteous and dignified, and did great credit to the head and heart of its author.

LANCASTER CO. FAIR.

This annual exhibition of the wealth and resources of Lancaster county, commences to-day, at the Fair Ground north of the College, under the most favorable auspices, and should be the weather prove favorable it will doubtless be the County Fair of the season. The entries of agricultural and mechanical productions are very numerous, and the exhibition of horses, stock, and poultry, will be peculiarly attractive— so also the machinery, the Ladies' handwork, specimens of the fine arts, the floral department, and indeed every other department, including the Ploughing Match, most perfect of speed. The arrangements are most complete— much superior to any previous year—and the Managers have spared neither trouble nor expense to make the Fair a credit to the great county.

GEN. FOSTER'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. FOSTER speaks at Easton to-day; at Reading, to-morrow; and at Pottsville, on Friday. Other appointments will be made and announced in due time. By order of the Democratic State Committee.

FOWLER'S LECTURE.

We direct attention to the notice of the lecture of Mr. FOWLER, to be given in Fulton Hall, on Thursday evening next. This gentleman, it will be recollected, delivered the eloquent address at the College Commencement in this City, a few weeks ago. We hope he may have an overflowing house on the occasion.

THE EXAMINER STILL CONTINUES TO BE SORELY DISTRESSED.

The Examiner still continues to be sorely distressed about the Independent ticket, and stigmatizes the candidates upon it, as well as many of its prominent supporters in the Republican party, as "sore heads," "disorganizers," and by other equally choice and courteous epithets. The same evidently phobic and phobic language, in their "own" language, as Fulton Hall, in the evening, upon speaking of respectable gentlemen like Messrs. DILLER, HROSKOPF, LEVY, WALTON, CLARKSON, SCHWARTZ, and the rest of the candidates upon the Independent ticket. If they are such men as he represents them— persons of no account politically or otherwise in the county— why waste so much ink and paper in attempting to bring them into ridicule in the community? Why, Don Quixote-like, work himself up into a passion and cut and slash all round at imaginary enemies?

The truth of the matter is, Mr. HERRMAN and his colleagues on the Slaughter House ticket are badly frightened— hence the desperation which they manifest in this contest. They feel that the Convention which nominated them outraged public opinion in most of their selections, and that hundreds, yes thousands of the best men in their party have determined to stand the trickery and treachery of their trading and unprincipled politicians (who, for years, have managed over their suits themselves and fill their own pockets) no longer. This is what troubles our neighbor so greatly, and it is the fear of an inglorious defeat on the second Tuesday of October, by these independent voters of his own party, that excites the bitterness and malignity which are so strikingly displayed in the columns of the Examiner for the last two or three weeks.

EXPLAINING IT AWAY!

The Examiner, Union, and Express of this City, have undertaken the herculean task of explaining away the offensive remarks of CARL STURZ respecting the Declaration of Independence and our Revolutionary forefathers, by saying that the language was used hypothetically, and in reply to an allegation of Judge DOUGLASS that white men only were meant in the Declaration where it speaks of all men being created equal, and also in reply to another assertion of the same distinguished statesman to the effect that this Government was created for white men and not for the negro race. But does this interpretation relieve STURZ of the odium that attaches to his remarks? Admitting that Mr. DOUGLASS did make the remarks attributed to him, the question is are they not right? Is it not the true doctrine, believed and acted upon by a large majority of the American people? We mean of the white race. And if Mr. DOUGLASS' position be the true one, and what reasonable man doubts it— does it not follow that CARL STURZ is indirectly guilty of a vile slander upon the statesmen and patriots who declared our Independence and established the Government under which we live? In other words, STURZ says that if Mr. DOUGLASS is right in his declarations, then are his own slanderous remarks true, and the men of our Revolutionary epoch just such characters as he (STURZ) represented them to be in his Springfield speech. The attempt of our contemporaries, above alluded to, to cover up and smother over the enormities of this foul-mouthed Republican orator, is a miserable failure, and they may labor until to-morrow without being able to satisfy the people that he is anything else than what we have represented him to be.

MR. CURTIN SHOWS THE WHITE WEATHER.

Men of true courage, says the Harrisburg Patriot, are rarely compelled to fight. Bluster generally get out of their way. The eloquent, brilliant, gifted and gallant Col. CURTIN refuses to meet Gen. FOSTER face to face on the stump. The friend and champion of Col. CURTIN, Alex. K. McCLURE, has negotiated a back out for the gallant Colonel. The whole history of this transaction was contained in the correspondence which we published yesterday. Col. CURTIN intimated on the stump, that he had challenged Gen. FOSTER, to meet him for public discussion, and that the latter had not accepted the challenge. Gen. FOSTER wrote to Mr. WALSH, Chairman of the State Committee, offering to meet Col. CURTIN at such times and places as their respective friends might indicate. Mr. WALSH transmitted Gen. FOSTER'S message to Mr. McCLURE, who agreed to accept the challenge. Mr. McCLURE, in reply, provided Gen. FOSTER would meet him at the Republican meetings already appointed. That is, Mr. CURTIN wanted to take Gen. FOSTER where it suited him, without going where it suited Gen. FOSTER. Mr. CURTIN was willing to engage in a joint discussion if he could be permitted to name all the places at which such discussions should take place, and Gen. FOSTER was not allowed to name any. How very modest in the gallant CURTIN! Of course such terms were inadmissible. Mr. McCLURE declined to negotiate upon equal terms, and so the correspondence dropped.

THE CAPTURE OF WALKER— CONFIRMATORY ACCOUNTS.

By the steamer Empire City, at New York, we have confirmatory accounts from Honduras of the capture of Gen. Walker, together with some seventy of his followers, on the river Rio Negro. The telegraphic dispatches mention the name of a "Colonel Kudler," who is to be shot, along with Walker. Our accounts, in other particulars, bear out the telegraphic version. Immediately on the capture of the rebel army, by the forces of the British steamer Leander, they were turned over to the commander of the Honduras forces, Gen. Alvarez, with the understanding that Walker and his Colonel would be dealt with as the rebel army and baggage were turned over to the commander of the Honduras forces. The whole party were then, under command of the Honduras General, marched back to Truxillo, where they were confined as prisoners until the necessary arrangements had been previously taken from them.

MR. WALKER HAS SINCE BEEN SHOT.

It has been all along a matter of wonder with many what the aim and purpose of these semi-military organizations are, which have been gotten up and maintained at large expense by the Black Republican leaders. Senator WADE, of Ohio, has recently "let the cat out of the bag" in an address to the Wide Awakes of Detroit. Hear him:

"I have confidence in the Wide Awakes, and believe they will guard the polls and uphold the Government." So, the Wide Awakes are to surround and guard the polls, are they? And we suppose they are further to prevent the Democrats from exercising the right of suffrage as guaranteed by the Constitution, and in this way to affect to uphold the Government! If this be the object of these Black Republican organizations, and we have the high authority quoted above for the explanation, the sooner the people know it the better. We once had a "luchshot and ball" demonstration in Pennsylvania, to put down the people and usurp the government, but the project did not work with the inventors; and perhaps the same fate may be in store for the leaders of the Wide Awakes in 1860. We shall see.

VERY APPROPRIATE.

The New York Herald's report of the levee of Governor JOHNSON, the Democratic candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. DOUGLASS, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in New York, has the following:

"The question of fusion was at one time broached to Mr. JOHNSON, who replied that it was a matter that belonged to the Legislature in this State to arrange; he knew but little about their local difficulties; would therefore leave all the talking upon this subject to those who had the control of the subject." That was a very appropriate and sensible answer— precisely what he should have said. So says the Albany Atlas & Argus, the leading Douglas paper in the Empire State. In applauding the answer of Mr. JOHNSON, it administers a severe rebuke to those who attempt to interfere with the local organizations in New York and Pennsylvania, in which States "fusion" is all important to save the country from Black Republican rule.

COL. STAMBAUGH.

Our old friend, Col. STAMBAUGH, Surveyor General in Utah, has sent us a copy of the Deseret News of August 29th, from which we learn that he and his corps had just returned to Salt Lake City, from a professional tour of several weeks in the southern portion of the Territory. The section surveyed by them is described as very poor— a "sandy desert region, where, excepting in a few favorable spots, there is nothing belonging to the vegetable kingdom, but sage and greasewood." The weather was represented as extremely hot in the day time, (95 degrees in the shade), and more tolerable at night. One of the party informs the editor of the News that he does not think the land, upon an average, throughout the Territory, will ever pay the cost of surveying.

POLITICAL PREDICTIONS.

In 1856 the Republicans were even more certain of FREMONT'S election than they now are of LINCOLN'S. Mr. Burlingame, the Boston Courier reminds him, asserted that he had been thoroughly through Pennsylvania, and that State would give FREMONT seventy thousand majority. A slight mistake of 234,964 votes, adding BOONHART and FILLMORE'S vote together— and 152,801, without counting in Fillmore's!

THE COTTON CROP.

It is ascertained that the crop of cotton of the South, for the year ending August 31, is 4,650,000 bales— being 800,000 bales over the crop of the year, and 2,536,000 bales over the crop of the year before last. It is the largest crop ever grown. Estimating it at $50 per bale, its value would be $232,500,000! Not less than $75,000,000 will be paid to the farmers of the Northwest for Corn, Flour and Provisions.

HON. WILLIAM L. YANNEY.

gushed Southern orator, is in Washington.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE IS TERRIBLY FRIGHTENED.

The New York Tribune is terribly frightened about Pennsylvania, and implores and beseeches its readers to elect a Republican Governor. Foster to be elected Governor. Its appeals are as pathetic as those of a criminal about to be led forth to execution. It reiterates an old story about the election of 1856 having been carried by the aid of the Philadelphia papers, but conveniently forgets that Tom Ford, of Ohio, who has since been rewarded by the Congressional printing, was sent to the penitentiary for the same reason. The money, which he used in procuring votes for Fillmore, was to come out of Fremont.

The Tribune says that it cannot allude to the Bell men without saying like a maniac— "Democratic stool pigeons" and other choice epithets; and confounds them with the "straight out Americans" of 1856, without taking the trouble to recollect that the leaders of this party in Philadelphia are now among the most active Republicans. The Tribune says that Andrew G. CURTIN was nominated in full convention by the "People's party," and that a small segment of that party led the nomination. What atrocious infidelity! How very treacherous in the conservative members of the "People's party" not to follow Andrew G. CURTIN, who has since been rewarded by Lincoln because he supports Lincoln! The truth is that CURTIN was nominated, not as a Republican candidate, and that his selection was rather regarded as a triumph over the "People's party"— but as soon as he began to feel rather easy in his shoes, he became fey of the Americans, forgot the many American speeches he had made, became oblivious of the fact that he was a Republican, and a Know Nothing logic to war against "foreign influence," and finally turned up at Chicago in company with Giddings and Carl Schurz. Andrew G. CURTIN abandoned his old associates, and not they left him. He will not initiate his treachery and play false to their convictions by following him into the bosom of the irrepressible conflict Republicans, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance of a "coalition" of the Lincoln men of Pennsylvania. The men of Pennsylvania are using their utmost exertions, and from present appearances they will not come within 20,000 of electing CURTIN, notwithstanding their "Wide Awakes" nonsense and other paraphernalia of humbug, used with such brilliant effect in exciting the imagination of old ladies and amusing very young children. Men who vote from party spirit are not to be trusted. The Tribune tells us that the "unprincipled coalition" which it apprehends will elect Foster, is to be beaten, but is of opinion that it will require the assistance