LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

The Adriatic brings us the news relating to Garibaldi and the King of Naples, which previous advices had led us to expect. The King, followed by the Papal Nuncio and a great part of the Ambassadors, had fled to Gaeta, and Garibaldi had entered Naples, formed a Provisional Government, and proclaimed Victor Emanuel as King of Italy. And all without firing a single shot, having been received with open arms by the people whom he came to liberate, and whose joy at his coming was intense. Thus the line of Bourbon ceases to reign over any part of the Neapolitan Kingdom.

Russia is reported to have made advances towards a complete reconciliation with Austria, in order to unite her influence with that power to prevent the further progress of Garibaldi.

The Emperor of Austria had determined to grant important reforms in Hungary, with a view of conciliating the people.

The harvest was progressing in Great Britain, the weather being very favorable. It was said the wheat crop would be a full average and of fine quality, and that the barley and rye crops would be satisfactory. Breadstuffs were dull. Cotton was firm at slightly reduced rates.

TIME WORKS WONDERS—AND POLITICS MAKE STRANGE BED FELLOWS!—A few years ago the Opposition passed a prohibitory liquor law, known as the "jug law," and in the desperate hope of making political capital out of it, sang loud and long pæans of praise in behalf of the beauties of temperance. Now, behold how times change the face of things. Last week, at their meeting in Lancaster, they actually had a working distillery, drawn on wheels, in their procession, for the gratification of Old Abe, who once worked at a still-house up a hollow! The very distillery which a few years ago, was anathematized as the great bohan upas of the country, was actually drawn about the streets of Lancaster as an emblem to make political capital!

A few years ago Thaddeus Stevens denounced Free Masons as so many cut-throats, robbers and pirates, leagued together for all manner of evil; and yet, men with large Masonic marks dangling from their watch chains, were seated by his side when he presided at this same Lancaster meeting.

A few years ago the Opposition started a secret order, having for its object the rule of America by Americans, ostracising and cutting off all foreigners. They were leagued together by oaths to ostracise the German and Irish citizens, and to extend the term of naturalization from five to twenty one years. One of the men who took this oath was Andrew G. Curtin, and yet he appears at Lancaster, arm in arm with a foreigner but nine years in this country—both as teachers of the same creed. It is thus evident that Opposition principles are only for a day, while Democratic measures are for all time.—Harrisburg Patriot.

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICS.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—The Bell and Everett Executive Committee met here to day when most satisfactory accounts were received from all parts of the State. An electoral ticket was formed and resolutions were adopted, setting forth that it is deemed inexpedient at this time to nominate a candidate for Governor, and appointing a committee to so change or modify the electoral ticket as to secure harmonious action from all national men; also recommending the holding of a mass convention of all persons opposed to the Republicans at as early a day after the October election as practicable.

☞ Passing Notice.—The Housekeeper's Friend.—Spalding's Prepared Glue.—This admirable addition to our standard household economies will be hailed by all good housewives as a boon long wished for, but hitherto unattained. Spalding's Prepared Glue is perfectly adapted for those timely repairs to household wares, furniture, crockery and for fancy work, that is almost daily demanded by the experience of every housekeeper. It is chemically held in solution; will with-tand the action of steam and time readily in full strength, and is put up in a snug convenient bottle, with a brush, all for twenty-five cents. On being applied, the chemicals readily evaporate and the glue becomes firm quickly, and adheres with the tenacity of the best cabinet-maker's glue. For wood, leather, or other articles where glue is ever used, it is just the thing. We have tried it, and speak by the card, and the country it will be invaluable, and nobody in the city will think of doing without it. If Mr. Spalding desires to become a candidate for the Presidency, and his friends stick like his glue, he will be sure of an election.

☞ Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial.—It must be obvious to every attentive person that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from the bowels, and in this connection we know of a medicine which can be relied upon with perfect confidence in all infantile complaints, whatever their nature may be. We speak of Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. It contains no opiate of any kind—no paregoric, and relieves the sufferings of infants as if by magic. Mothers! by all means try this—even if all other remidies have failed. See the advertisement in another column of Messrs. CHARLES & DUPONT, Druggists, New York, who are the sole proprietors, and also sole agents for the world-renowned "Dr. BRONSON'S BLOOD FOOD," which is a preparation for the relief of all complaints arising from deficiencies of the blood, from whatever cause such deficiencies may proceed. It is without exception the most strengthening cordial any invalid could take, as it is immediately absorbed by the blood without having to go through the process of digestion; and as blood is the life of the human body, by nourishing and producing it, it soon restores to perfect health those even who have been suffering for years. We consider the above two Preparations decidedly the best of their kind offered to the public. —Chronicle. Quebec, C. E.

LIGHTE & BRADBURYS' PATENT INSULATED FULL IRON FRAME NEW SCALE GRAND AND SQUARE PIANO-FORTES.

The Insulated Iron Frame preserves the original tone of the instrument in all its purity, securing it for all time against that most disgreeable tinny quality of tone invariably found in all other Iron Frame Piano-Fortes. It greatly strengthens the case and thus keeps the Piano-Forte much longer in tune. It gives the instrument a much fuller, richer and sweeter tone. It adapts the Piano to all climates and to all changes of atmosphere, and in all respects it is pronounced by our "artists" the greatest improvement of the age in Piano-Forte construction; producing an instrument acknowledged to be superior to all others made in this country or Europe.

TESTIMONIALS IN REGARD TO THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR NEW SCALE PATENT INSULATED PIANO-FORTES.

"I have examined the Piano-Fortes of Lighte & Bradburys with entire satisfaction. I know not that there are any others better, either in our own country or elsewhere." —DR. LOWELL MASON.

"In clearness, richness, and volume of tone, delicacy, elasticity of touch, and fine repeating action, I have never played upon their equal."—H. A. WOLLENHAUPT.

"In volume, richness, evenness, and purity of tone, and in delicacy of touch they certainly excel, and in that beautiful singing quality so desirable yet so seldom found." —WILLIAM MASON.

"I have never played upon so rich and heavy a tone Square Piano-Forte."—ARTHUR NAPOLEON.

"I am astonished and delighted with the New Scale Iron Frame Piano-Fortes made by you. There must be a splendid future for Lighte & Bradburys' Piano-Fortes."—GEO. F. ROOT.

"I have never played upon so fine an instrument."—GEO. F. BRISTOW

"I consider them as to beauty, richness, fullness and equality of tone, as well as their agreeable, elastic touch, equal if not superior to any Pianos made in this country or Europe."—KARL WELLS.

"In power, quantity, and equality of tone, they certainly excel; while for that peculiar rich and and singing tone so invaluable as an accompaniment to the voice, I have never met their equal"—C. BASSINI.

"They have all the requirements for a superior interpretation of both classical and modern compositions."—M. STRAKOSH.

VICTORIA'S PARTING WORDS TO THE PRINCE.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

"Albert darling, you must leave me,
And the thought my bosom wrings,
For my sceptre keen must cut you
From a mother's apron strings.

"You must leave the shores of England,
In a ship that swiftly sails;
But Old Neptune will respect it,
For 'twill bear the Prince of Wales!

"If the sea your ship should threaten,
Let your princely heart be brave;
For your mother rules Britannia,
And 'Britannia rules the wave!'

"When you get among the Yankees,
Where the starry banner flies,
You must put your best foot foremost,
And keep open wide your eyes.

"On the Island of Manhattan—
In the City of New York—
You must watch the line of duty,
And must smugly 'toe the chalk.'

"Should the girls, with thumbs on noses,
Jeweled fingers twist about,
Make no answer, if they ask you,
'Does your mother know you're out?'

"To the Aldermen say nothing;
Of their plunder take no share!
Let no 'thimble riggers' trap you!
Of the Peter Funks beware!

"Do not let the cunning Barnum
Make a 'What-is-it?' of you!
Don't be placed on exhibition,
You'll regret it if you do.

"Oh! let not the Prince of Darkness,
Albert, Prince of Wales, ensnare!—
If he don't in New York do it,
You'll be safe most anywhere!

"You must see the Quaker City;
'Tis the best of cities all,
And the best place in it, Albert,
Is the famous TOWER HALL.

"We have often read with pleasure,
In the columns of the 'Times,'
Of the Tower Hall which towers
In a Bard's majestic rhymes.

"Go to Tower Hall, dear Albert—
I will not the matter mince—
You can there, alone, buy clothing
Which is worthy of a Prince!

"If you safely reach Old England,
In a suit from Tower Hall,
You'll delight the queen, your mother,
And her loyal subjects all."

Our stock of Fall and Winter Clothing is now full and complete, adapted to every market, and unequalled for variety, style and make. The attention of buyers at Wholesale and Retail, is invited, at Tower Hall, 518 Market street, Philadelphia. BENNETT & CO.
