 Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. — Dear Sirs.
 Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation, — Wister's Balsam of Wild Carry, — it alfords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago option my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopse of her recovery were entertained. It then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contentia of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have a lavage been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurice.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

Scroiulta, or King's Lvu, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. What-ever be its origin, it is hereditary in the con-stitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who asys, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofilous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the

are still rendered fatal by this tant in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from ot fection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is con-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences.

Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affec-tions which arise from it, such as BRUPTIVE

PRINCE ALBERT'S LETTER TO THE QUEEN.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

"Dearest mother, I've crossed the Atlantic, And, to keep you from having the blues, I will pen you a royal epistle, Which I'll gem with some items of news. "I was hailed by Canadians loyal, And the many received me as one; And the many received me as one; Well I know that their hearts are my mother's, By the welcome they gave to her son.

With the fairest of matrons and unidens I have danced from the dusk till the dawn : d I made a misstep in my dancing; am free to acknowledge the corn!

"I was lost to myself in mypartner, And, alas! to the floor I went down! s my head was not cracked by my falling, It may wear, in the future, a crown. 'I've improved in the size of my muscles!

I am well, and as spry as a frog I ve a bark that's a powerful tonic-'Tis the bark of a beautiful dog : " Of a dog that to me was presented By my friends of Newfoundland

By my friends of Newfoundland, so dear; He has pledged me his friendship by barking, And has tonic'd my heart, through my ear. "I have seen the majestic Niagara, And was pleased (at my joke do not wince) Rather more with the fail of the water, Than I was with the fail of the Prince!

"I have visited Washington City, And I dined with the President there!

I was pleased with the greeting he gave me; With his home, with his niece, and his fare "As Buchanan so kindly received me, I must grieve o'er his very ill luck-Oh! he can't be a dear with the people, On account of his being a ' Buck P

"I shall act on the counsel you gave me; To my mind your advice I recall— I'll return, and your arms shall embrace me In a suit from the famed Towrs HALL. "I shall write you accounts of my journey, Till, rejolcing, I meet you again In my home on that Isle of the Ocean, Which is blest by Victoria's reign. "I enclose you my love in this letter, From the depths of affection profound; But the children will have to excuse me; For I can't send enough to go round.

"I will close my epistle, dear mother, With a clause which my bosom unveils-I am yours in affection-your Albert, The Prince of your heart and of Wales!"

Our stock of Fall and Winter Ciothing is now full and complete, adapted to every market, and unequalled for variety, style and make. The attention of buyers a Wholesale and Betail, is invited, at Tower Hall, 618 Marke street, Philadelphia. BENNETT & CO.
