The information of the second of the block, and thus circulating through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonder-ful influence. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment bo compared with it. Impurities of the block, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. In all cases of female debility (fluor albus, chlorosis, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, com-plete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use. As a grand stomachic and general restorative it has no superior and no substitute. Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; six boxes, 52 50; one dozen boxes, $4 00. For sale by Druggists generally. and theroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains to day—without a rival in size, in sumptuouness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, includ-ing 100 complete suites of apariments for families. SIX HUNDRED PENSONS can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the travelling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luzurics, has been enchancell every year by the unwearled exertions of the Proprietors. aug 283 m 33] TREADWELL, WHITCOMB & CO.  FOR REAUTIFYING SCURP AND DANDRUFF, and all colameous affections of the Scalp.

 FOR REAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and sliky in its texture and causing it to carl readily.
 The great celebrity and increasing demand for this preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other proparation at present in use. It cleaness the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases. Causes the hair to grow luxurinally, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy, and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restors the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.
 There are hundreds of Iddies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Iuvig orator, when all other preparations thad failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of He; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with critenity resource the other whing an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it afford in dressing the bair, which, when molst with the Invigorator will without, as the price places it within the reach of all, leng ONLY TWENTY-FIVS CENTS per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists' and perfumers.
 L. MILLER would cail the attention of Parents and Gundanion for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child iscont to perchase by the quantity. Cuttow—None genuine without
