[From the Buropean Times, Oct. 27.] THE COMING CONFLICT IN EUROPE

THE COMING CONFILIOT IN EUROPE.

The great Powers of Europe are evidently preparing for a general conflict. Russia, at Warsaw, has arranged the terms with Austria and Prussia, and the smaller German potentates will join the new crusade. It will be France and the Italians against the despots of Northern and Central Europe. Everything indicates the approaching convulsion. Austria, having most atstake, is foremost in her arrangements to strike first. She is converging her troops on the Po and the Mincio, ready to make a death on Turin the moment the toosin is sounded. France is arming to the test, and prepared to march half's million of men to the support of Italian nationality, as represented by King Victor Emanuel. It is the principle by the people. In this stake, progress on the one hand and retrogression on the other, will be brought to the test. But the issue can hardly be doubtful. Austria, paralyzed and bankrupt, is destined, before peace is restored, to see her empire dismembered, and her conflicting nationalities severed from her sway. Russia, poor and embarrassed, with her chain of serf. dom tied round her neck, has the will but not the power to fight successfully for the divine right of kings. Prussia, vacillating and fettered by her despotic alliances, will present the same pitiable spectacle which she did in 1854—her feelings one way, her interest another. France, which represents the most military people in Europe, will have the aid of more than twenty millions of Italians, and the population on each side of the Alps, moved by one impulse, struggling in a common cause, will repeat, on a larger scale, the series of triumphs witnessed recently on the fields of Solferino and Magenta. In such a struggle, where the rights of maukind are invaded by half a score of rulers, who profess to govern without responsibility, the issue cannot be doubtful, and, what is hardly less important, cannot be seriously protracted. War has been brought to a point which renders time an important element of success, and makes amount of force at your command concentrated on a given point. This was the theory by which Napoleon the First achieved his victories, and he has bequeathed it as a legacy to his nephew. That he proved an apt pupil, let the results of the last Italian campaign testify. apt pupil, let the results of the last Italian campaign testify.

When this tremendous struggle is shaking Europe to its centre, will England be passive? The effort will be difficult, but the force of circumstances will force us to remain quiet. We may not admire the French Emperor, but still less can we like the motives which actuate the despotic rulers. With these men the parvenu Monarch is an object of dislike and hatred, and the enmity is prompted by his contemptuous treatment of king craft. Owing his throne to popular sufrage, he has as little respect for hereditary right as a professed republican. The family of reigning sovereigns regard him as beyond their pale, and he administers to their hatred by calling nations into existence by the popular voice. their pale, and he administers to their hatred by calling nations into existence by the popular voice. The regeneration of Italy is his act, and he has swept away, like so many cobwebs, the princes of the peninsula who represented the "divine right to govern wrong." However displeasing this may be to the European courts, it is acceptable to the English people, who although we hear of pleasant interviews at Coblentz between Lord John Russell and the Prussian Premier, the Foreign Minister of England knows his countrymen too well to suppose that they would go to war to restore the Italians to the vassalage which France has shivered to pieces. We shall of East 1 age which France has shivered to pieces. We shall age which France has shivered to pieces. We shall assume once more the same neutral attitude which we took when Austria invaded Piedmont a year or two buck, and France came to her assistance—that is, we shall look on and see the game played out fairly, giving our sympathy to freedom, and withholding all but moral support to the most patriotic of the combatants.

Austria, like a man who is going into a bank-ruptcy court to be released of his liabilities, and desires to make the process pleasant by coming to ruptey court to be released of his liabilities, and desires to make the process pleasant by coming to terms under the rose with the most angry of his creditors, is promising a constitution to the Hungarians and ameliorations and gain to other portions of her angry people. She is anxious before entering on the perilous experiment of bearding France and Piedmont, to make the best terms she can with her disaffected at home. It is a stale device, and the character of the Hapsburgs for sincerity and fair dealing is not such as to give much chance of success to the experiment. The people will be pretty sure to help themselves when they have the opportunity, and a long arrear of unliquidated debt will doubtless be settled in a summary way. Rights withheld and liberties violated make a people anxious for the opportunity of teaching wisdom to infatuated rulers, and the course of events will shortly afford the subjects of Francis Joseph the means of showing that the interests of crowned heads and the people at large have arrived at a stage of divergence. France and Sardinia way he westered by the inneeding start. the interests of crowned beads and the people at large have arrived at a stage of divergence. France and Sardinia may be weakened by the impending struggle, but for Austria there is nothing but ruin. The nobles in Russia may also assert their supremacy over the Czur and strip him of some of his attributes, and Prussia will survive to feel the mistake she has committed in substituting dynastic considerations for the principles of liberty and rational government.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION -A Washington correspondent telegraphs the following to the Philadelphia Press:

Among the many propositions for bringing peace to the country is one that will no doubt be greatly discussed. It originated with the Hon, Robert J. oct 16 ly 40] Williamsburgh, Kings county, New York. AFF A Great Medicine for Fernales.—
Hundreds of stimulants have been invented and sold, purporting to be specific in the various diseases and derangement to whigh the delicate farm of voman render her subject. The result of all these attinuiants has been to impart momentary activity to the six-rous system, and falso vigor to the installer; but this redlef has been succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before; and the repeated attempts of invalids to build themselves up by these false translates, have finally ended in destroying what little vital organization was left. But in using "Berhave's Holland Bitters" you will find no such disastrous results. It is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Escriave. Under its influence, every perve and muscle receives new strangth and vigor, appetite and sleep return, and finally, perfect health. See advantament in another column. (nov-18 in 44)

Fig. The highest point of physical heafth, and mental comfort, can be obtained if we only seek for it. No matter how broken down one may be with either Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Diseases of the Heart, Coughs, Colds. Nervous Affilictions, or what is termed General Deblity, a remedy of apleasant and certain character can always be commanded. Let nobody say that any of these maladies, in their most appelling stages, cannot be cured, for, they can. Thousands in the United States can feelingly testify to this truth, and offer themselves, and their experiences, as evidences. With the spread of intelligence to all quarters of the globe (thanks to steam and the magnetic telegraph) comes a corresponding acknowledgment of truths which were hitherto concealed beneath, the rubbish of traditionary ignorance. People no longer believe that they must be doctored in the old style to get well. They now feel assured that no case of physical suffering (of course excepting such cases as are the result of accidents and direct injuries), is hopeless. Nothing has done more towards establishing this beneficent fact than the scientific praparation by Dr. O. Philips Brown, No. 21 Grand street, Jersey city, N. J., called The Acatan Raisam. "It is a great medicina," writes one of the prominent members of the Medical Academy: "I have witnessed its benefits in many cases, and am truly thankful that so grateful a panacca has been discovered." It strengthens and invigorates with the first doses. It pervades overy part of the system, driving out impurities, giving strength for weakness, cheerfulness for despondency, flesh for emaciation, ruddiness for paleness, activity for languor. It is, indeed, an "Elixir of Life," and as such it should be prized by the people at large. A large bottle of Acadan Balsam can bobtained as above by all who wish to give this remedy a trial, letter from President Smith, of Wesleyan University ... MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb. 28, 1859. SETH W. FOWLE & CO: —Geatlemen: —I first made use of the Oxygenated Bitters some sevan or eight years since. Having suffered for twenty years from a form of dyspepsia, which was attended with a nervous headache, on, an average of not less than one day in a week, I was induced, by the unpretending recommendation of Dr. Green, "to try one bottle, and if no benefit was received to discontinue the use."

The use of one bottle warranted a further trial, to the extent of some three or four, with a careful observance of the accompanying directions. The result was, an almost entire relief from the usual dyspeptic symptoms and their depressing, painful consequences. I believe and their depressing, painful consequences. STODDARD, N. H., Sept. 30, 1859. Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Gents : - I was, for many years, a great sufferer from Dyspepsia or Waterbrash, and tried almost everything within my reach, but to no benefit, until I was induced by the recommendation of my physician, Dr. Hazelton, to make use of the Oxygenated Bitters. The first bottle produced but a slight alteration in the disease, and had it not been for the urgent request of my physician, I should then have discontinued their use, thinking them to be of no avail; but his confidence inspired me to persevere, and after using to the extent of half a dozen bottles, I had entirely regained my health. I hope all.

Dyspeptic persons will be induced to give them a fair-trial, being confident that the remedy is the most potent, for the various forms of Dyspepsia, that has been produced. Yours, ....STEARNS FOSTER.

2tetw 1y 13 Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pars Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases, Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

Scropula and Scropulous Complaints, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIO AP-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timeblood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous, sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something. must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been mis-burning late years the public have been many led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla but often a quartity appropries. rilla, but often no curative properties whatever.

Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and line become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which resisupon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend. by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
