WHY DON'T MR. BUCHANAN DO AS GEN. JACKSON DID 1

WAT DON'T MR. BUCHANAN DO AS GEN. JACKSON DID T MESSES. Entrons: The above question is carried around upon the torgues of the Republicans, as a sweeping and overwholming demonication of the pacific policy which Mr. Buchanan has been pursuing in order to avoid the precipitation of civil war upon us in this alarming crisis. They noter it as glibly, and souncist it as boildy, as though no one of them ever entertained the same black principles of hatred and ingratingle to avoid the principitation of civil war upon us that they now do toward President Buchanan. There is no menace or position similarations of disre-gard and dissportballon. Common same, forming reason and common courtesy are alits unbased in the wild and unnitural frank which has blinded them to all the wild and unnitural frank which has blinded them to all the vir-tues, as well as the position of the Exscutive of the Na-heart are disregarded, whill the most absurd, foolish and childid hombast is resorted to that could be imagined, even were we a community of Idiots. Now, why and wherefore this abuse? Idd not Mr. Buchanan in his recent massage proclaim his determina-tion to pursue a preor point. If possible until the difficul-ties now agitating the locuntry should be amicably ad-justed. He declared that there was no reason to surpert that ties now agitating the country should be amicably ad-justed. He declared that there was no reason to surpect that the property of the Federal Government at Charles-ton would be taken by force, but if such would prove to be the case the officer in command had orders to act accord-lingly. He announced his determination to cuforce the tree and unnecessary collision between the Federal forces, and the perple of South Carolina. He argued the unconstitutionality of secessian, and showed that while it might under certain contingend-s be morally justified, it was unvertheles revolutionary.— Yet he said "the Executive has no authority to decide whit shall be the relations between the Federal forcer-ment and South Carolina. But it is his duty to submit to Congress the whole question in all is bearings." He could find nothing in the Constitution which would give him, or Congress, power to her year against a cover-eion show to fund the bear of years of the word give him, or Congress, power to her year against a sover-eion show to fund the bear of years against a sover-eion show to fund not her people of South Carolina resisting any of the laws of the Federal forcer here have to fund proven mer which it was bis duty to see excented, "in such a contingency, the re-sonciality for concurences.

but in the event of the people of South Carolins resisting is any of the laws of the Federal Government, which if was i bid duty to see excented, "in such a contingency, the re-r sponsibility for consequences would rightfully rest apon the lacks of the assailants." In this polition he was sentained by most of the greatest conservative statesmen beth North and South. And also i by the framers of the Castitution, some of whom he quoted in support of this policy. He furthermore appealed ity of the constitution and the Union. This conservative policy of course did not suit the K-publicans, it was not intended that it should. They have brought this calamity it upon the country by denying the people of the South equal rights in the Confederary with themselves, and by resisting the azecution of plain constitutional laws in the Morth; and therefore sought to change the order of things by enderwring to force the Executive authority into a warlike attitude with the South for boldy asserting that they would have their constitutional laws in the would have their constitutional laws in the function of peace count of the south for boldy asserting the inclusion of plain constitutional laws in they would have their constitutional rights and garan-tees in the Union, or peace and independence out of it. Whilt their expertness in the same of nullification, was to be externed over and concealed from public senti-ment by Ruchana and his policy in contrast with Gen. Jackson and the policy he gurned in recard to South Carolina, when she contends for the right of nulli-fication, and would seeche if it was not granted The policy of Gen Jackson and Mr. Buchanan did differ in some particulars, but the circumstances in which they were placed, respectively, differend more widely than their round Corman, when the contended for the right of nullification, and would eccide if it was not granted The policy of Gen Jackeun and Mr. Buchanan did differ if none particulars but the circumstances in which they were placed, respectively, differed more widely than their course of action. South Carolina, in 1832, proposed to secole from the Feleral Union because the max not allowed to nullify a plain constitutional have of Congress, which she that to be oppressive and believed to be unconstitutional. This position was strong in every particular, and did not require much srgument to prove it so to the minds of the marker in that State. The privilege of nullification here was the leading fea-ture of their rebellion to the Genement; this came within the immediate costrol and duty of the Executive, and he acted prumptly and deddedly. But did he at-tempt to correct the minds the Action, even after their con-roution passed the secession ordinance, until he (the President) could be the whole multification messages to Congress in Jacuary, 1833. In the former we have the Bentence: 'Necession, like any other revolutionary act, imay be maralight of secession, but in his nullifica-tion prelamition of 1872, and his nullifica-tion presenter and when they can do so without greater log and indereable oppressions and having tried all con-stitutional remedies without tions to the Gröwrnment, and appeal to the last resort, need not, on the present occasion, be deuied."²⁰ These passages are found andist his strongest argument against auch a right, under any contingeory, being justi-fable or sametioned by the Constitution. He makes these positions both as strong as insquare can make them, and thereby breaks down the fakely conceived, though general, ides, that under no consideration could be for a moment admit, or even tolerate, the possibility of secession, and that without regard to through gower of his iron will be creare a secteding State or people into a Union, where all the bonds of affection aud friendship are broken, and where such oppression, as his own words describe, have been expression, as have on the bear more moral duty and the record to themselves must be their moral duty and the comprehensive range of his powers of observation, woold den. Jackeen have pursued a policy in any essential particular different to that of Wr. Buchanan, regarding all the circumstances of the position in which the latter gentleman is placed.

any essential particular different to that of Wr. Buchanan, regarding all the circumstances of the position in which the latter gentleman is placed. With the fact that he was born, raised and educated in the South, with naturally a warm feeling for the peruliar institutions of that service of the country, and the warm-est regard for its h nor and constitutional rights; and furthermore with his great, conservative, political princi-ples is it not reasonable to suppose that he would pursue the same paritic poor; toward the South so iong as the stands up for her constitutional rights, even to the ex-tremity of secretion; and use his impetions. "Br the Element" arbit the aggressors and millifers of the North, and thus instead of using corriton to the port in of our nerole who are real y oppressed, he would use the whote influence and power of his utility position for Laton, and by concrime but ity recession and concrision upon the part of the supression and submission by the offend-ed and degravid south.

life is disordered or overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But reputation, of accomplianing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparina, or any thing else. During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsapa-rilla, but often no curative properties whatev-er. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become

Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to sure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on

LINCOLN ON NEGRO CITIZENSHIP.

"Now my opinion is that the different States have the prover to make a negro a citizen under the Constitution of the United States. if they choose. The Dred Scott decision decides that they have not that power."

We find the above in a Republican paper of this cuy, (the Times.) as a quotation from one of Lincoln's speeches. We have every right, therefore, to presume it is correct, especially as it was cited, among other extracts, as a proof of his conservativeism. Let us see, for a moment, where this new and startling doctrine would lead us.

According to Mr. Lincoln, the negro voters under the State laws of Obio, Massachusetts and New York, are citizens of the United States. If so, then he will be bound, as Pres ident, to give them passports to foreign coun tries, which will place them on a par with any white man from the North or South. In this way Jefferson Davis or Senator Mason might find himself some day dining with one of his own runaway negroes, and that old tory, Lord Brougham, would probably take the occasion to remind him of the fact. But this is not all. If negroes can become citizens of the United States, then, according to the Constitution, they are entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in every State of the Union. Hence negroes could go South, could travel in every "slave" State, could go where they pleased, &c, and thus break up every police regulation which the Southern States now have for the good order of their society; and Mr. Lincoln, according to this doctrine, believing them citizens, would be authorized to use the army and navy to protect them in these rights! What a condition would not this place us in ! The idea is simply ridiculous that it is strange that any man of sense would, for one moment, indulge in such a monstrous conception. If the northern States can turn every free negro into a citizen of the United States—if this is the banquet to which the leader of the "Republican" party invites the white men of this country-if negroes are to rule Americans, then, indeed, has the spirit of American liberty and the sooner we all know it the better. -N. We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Winesand Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality.-We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Upoxieno Wourg's atten-sive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Bavre street, and Nos. 17, 16 and 21, Marketheld street. His stock of Schanps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cares; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases - Vintage of 1836 to 1850; and ten housand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Iriak Whis-key, Jamaics and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He alao had three large cellars, filed with Brandy, Wine. &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling, Mr. Wourg's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines. His buiness merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors, for medical mes hould send their orders direct to Mr Wours, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to distard the poisonous stuff from their sheires, and Liquors. Reliable Testimony.

We call the attention of the reader to the following letter from President Smith, of Wesleyan University MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Feb 28, 1859.

SETH W. FOWLE & Co. - Gentlemen : - I first made use of the Oxygenated Bitters some seven or eight years since. Having suffered for twenty years from a form of dyspensia, which was atte nervous headache, on an average of not less than one day in a week, I was induced, by the unpretending recommendation of Dr. Green, "to try one bottle, and if no benefit was received to discontinue the use."

The use of one bottle warranted a further trial, to the extent of some three or four, with a careful observance of the accompanying directions. The result was, an almost entire relief from the usual dyspeptic symptoms and their depressing, painful consequences. I believe these Bitters produced an entire change in the habits of my system, and upon the active energies of the digestive organs. I now deem myself as exempt from Dyspepsia as most persons. These Bitters have also been of service to other members of my family.

Very respectfully yours, AUGUSTUS W. SMITH.

Messrs, SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Gents : -- I was, for many years, a great sufferer from Dyspepsia or Waterbrash, and tried almost everything within my reach, but to no benefit, until I was induced by the recommendation of my physician, Dr. Hazelton, to make use of the Oxygenated Bitters. The first bottle produced but a slight alteration in the disease, and had it not been for the utgent request of my physician, I should then have discontinued their use, thinking them to be of no avail ; but his confidence inspired me to persevere, and after using to the extent of half a dozen bottles, I had entirely regained my health. I hope all Dyspeptic persons will be induced to give them a fair trial, being confident that the remedy is the most potent, for the various forms of Dyspepsia, that has been pro-
