Injorder to increase the aircedy large dreafsation of the Kamarisconze, we publish this month/a splendid line sungraving of Frith's picture of "Merry-Making in the Olden Tume," which we shall present exclusively to the $3 subscribers to the Magazine for 1860, whother old or new. The subject represents the pastimes of our ancestors, and is sungraphily of a genial, domestic character. The plate, anglayed in langland at an expense of 2000 dollars, is sufficiely new, ineasures twenty-five by nineteen and a half inches in size, contains thirty-nine figures, and is beyond comparison the finest work of the kind ever-offered as a premium in this country.

'The engraving of Frith's picture of Merry-Making in the Olden Time, represents the humors of an English holiday in the country in those good old times when the men wor cocked hats and knee breeches, and the women stays and hoops—a costume not essentially differing from the costs and crincoline of the present day. 'Almost in the cost on the green, with a hard-featured fiddler perched on a high seat, and another musician in a tiewig standing by him, playing with all their might. On the right two bouncing girls are gaily pulling toward the dance a gray-haired man, who seems valuly to remonstrate that his dancting days are over, while a waggish kittle child pushes him forward from behind, greatly to the amusement of his spouse, who is, still sitting at the testable, from which he has been dragged. On the left, under a magnificent spreading cas, sit the 'equire and his wife, whom a countryman with his hat off is respectfully inviting to take part in the dance. To the left of the 'equire is a young other on the green, to when a gipsy with an infant on her shoulder is telling their fortune. Over the shoulders of this couple, as seen a group engaged in quoi-playing, and part in the dance. To the left of the 'squire is a young outple on the graze, to whom a gipsy with an infact on her shoulder is telling their fortune. Over the shoulders of this zouple is seen a group engaged in quoit-playing, and back of the whole is a landscape of gentle slopes and copies. The picture has the expression of gayety throughout and the engraving is splendidly executed. It is fresh from the burin of Holl; not having yet been published in England.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.—Dr. KENNEDY, of Rozbury, has discovered, in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrottle down to a common pinnele. He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thruder humor.) He has now in his possession over two, hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case.—So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never soid a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this borb that appear surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite pientiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise, and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April 1853, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it. Bome of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for immors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles,—O, what a mercy if it prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Drugsy, all of them aged people, cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Slok Headache, Dyspepta, Asthma, Pover and Ague, pain in the side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever "www."
