the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: Gammania: As this period fixed for the ediparamine intrin-legislature is rapidly approximation. I tell constrain ed by a sense of dary to call your attention to the condition of the military organization of the Siste-it is searcely necessary to any more than that the militia system of the Siste, during a long period distinguished by the paratifie of pescelat industry axolanively, has become wholly instituted to remove its deficit, and to render it useful and available to the public service.

In this connection I recommend the establishment of a Military Bureau at the capital; and that the militia laws of the Commonwealth be so modified and amended as to impart to the military organisa-tion of the State, the vitality and energy essential to its practical value and usefalness. to its practical value and usefulness. Precautions, such as I have suggested, are wise and proper at all times, in a Government like ours; but special and momentous considerations, arising from the condition of public affairs outside of the limits, yet of incalculable consequence to the people, and demanding the gravest attention of the legisla-ture of Pennsylvania, invest the subject to which your action is invited by this communication. your action is invited by this communication, with extraordinary interest and importance. We can be insensible to the fact that serious jeald be insensible to the fact that serious jealousies and divisions distract the public mind, and that, in por-tions of this Union, the peace of the country, if not the safety of the Government itself, is endangered. Military organizations of a formidable character, and which seem not to be demanded by any existing public exigency, have been formed in certain of the States. On whatever pretexts these extraordinary military preparations may have been made, no pur-pose that may confusion the anform ies and military preparations may have been made, no pur-pose that may contemplate resistance to the enforce-ment of the laws will meet sympathy or encourage-ment from the people of this Commonwealth.— Pennsylvania yields to no State in her respect for, and her willingness to protect, by all needful guar-antees, the constitutional rights, and constitutional independence, of her sister States, nor in fidelity to that constitutional Union whose uncrampled benefits have been showered alike upon hersiolf and them. The most exalted public policy and the clearest obligations of true patriotism, therefore, admonish us, in the existing deplorable and dangerous crisis of affairs, that our militia system should receivea.

from the Legislature that prompt attention which public exigencies, either of the State or the Nation, public exige ay appear to demand, and which may seem, in your wisdom, best adapted to preserve and secure to the people of Pennsylvania and the Union the blessing seople of Pennsylvania and the Union the blessing of peace and the integrity and stability of our anrivalled constitutional government. The government of this great State was establish-ed by its illustrious founder "in deeds of peace;" our people have been trained and disciplined in those arts which lead to the promotion of their own moral and physical development and progress, and with he highest regard for the rights of ethers, have always cultivated fraternal relations with the nebple vays cultivated fraternal relations with the people all the States devoted to the Constitution and the on, and always recognizing the spirit of conces-and compromise that underlies the foundation sion and compromise that underlies the foundation of the government, Pennsylvania offers no counsel and takes no action in the nature of a menace; her desire is for peace, and her object, the preservation of the personal and political rights of citizens, of the true sovereignty of States, and the supremacy of law and order.

Animated by these sentiments, and indulging an earnest hope of the speedy restoration of those harmonious and friendly relations between the various members of this Confederacy which have prought our beloved country to a condition of un equalled power and prosperity, I commit the grave ibject of this communication to your deliberation A. G. CURTIN.

HOW DOES IT LOOK NOW? Last fall, when the Republicans were burrying along our streets, night after night. jostling and running over each other in their eagerness to join the torchlight procession. other boisterously as brave and intrepid "Wide Awakes," displaying their broad capes, fanciful lanterns and flags, decorated with witty devices and funny motoes, we warned them, again and again, of the sad and disastrous consequences which with Johnson is the point around which revolves the prin must follow their possible success in electing a cipal interest of the work, and the new picture of his sectional President. We told them over and character presented by her will awaken the attention of

of the State to place this conservative old Commonweal upon a war footing excites great enthusiann among t among the coublicant and other disuntanists here. Anything the Republicans and coust assummances nors, any surg -looks like a disposition to enforce the odious doctrins their party as laid down in the Chicage platform, is eived with exultation; and the idea of carrying war ini a united and unhappy country, simply because such a way in that "irrows all sustain their hase int conflict" inangurated by nigge-loving hyperities, is to them a grain of combir to which they had looked forward hopelessly for many a day. So Nero fiddled when Rome hopelessly for many a day. So New fiddled when Rome was burning. Our Republican papers are rejecting over a very comfort-ing two cent victory which the party has gained in Patter-son and Elisabeth, find very large forma (we suppose) in New Jersey; not to first which (we suppose) and New Jersey; not to first which the suppose again) is to comfess ourself unphasen. A sense grath of comfort, on the faith of which they tails of running another Pres-dential candidate in 1965. So you are your victories in A remeater and other towns in the faith the Democratic Lancaster, and other towns, in the State, the Democrat triumphs in Ohio, Illinois, Massachusetis, Rhode Island and every other State where the Republican majorities o

November fast have been repudiated by subsequent ballot ings, are all of no account. What a blow, to think that Lincoln might be elected over sgain i by the volce of New Jenney 11 The Spott Legion will celebrate the fourteenth annu versary of the battle of Gerro Gordo, this day week, by an excursion to Pottsvilla. It is intended to form a Wyskoop Legion at that town, in honor of the commander of the Pennsylvanians in the Maxicun War. The Scott Legion of Philadelphis was the first organization of soldiers in this country who had served in that war. When they visited New York they organized the Scott Guard, of that city also composed of returned Mexican volunteers. Since that time various similar corps have been organized throughout he Union.

Our Public Squares are beginning to put on their ver dure. Yesterday Franklin and Washington squares were opened for the season. The others will be opened to-day r to-morrow, with the exception of Fairmount Park, which is open all the time, for the simple reason that it cannot be closed. The completion of the improvements in this esutiful spot is anxiously desired by the public, but the work progresses slowly from the insufficiency of the apprepriations. One good thing money don't make the gra grow, or the trees bloom, or the birds sing. Another outrage by our Republican legislature is the passage of the bill for the erection of a permanent bridge over the Schuvikill at South street. This is even too much for some of our Republican papers, and the North Ameri can scores it handsomely. The beautiful editon of Dickens' works, which we announced in our last as having been commenced by Messrs W. A. Townsend & Co., New York, is sugumented this week by the publication of "Oliver Twist," in two volume uniform with the "Pickwick Papers" in four. Beyond al comparison this is, as far as published, and will be to the and we are sure, the most beautiful, neat, and desirable of the thousand and one editions of the great author constantly multiplying in the press. Its size, its exquisite ap pearance, its dainty tinted paper, and the excellence of it steel engravings, which are in Darley's and Gilbert's happi est humors, to say nothing of the low price, 75 cents per vol ume, at which it is published, combine to give it an extra ordinary claim upon book-lovers. The two novels now published are Dickens' last, and the reader should at least look after them, if he afterwards concludes to buy n more-that is if he can come to such a conclusion. Mr. Mc.

Henry, of 4th and Walnut streets, here, is agent for the State, as he is also of Darley's Illustrated Cooper, from the same press.

Of this latter magnificent work, or set of works, we are approaching the concluding volume. Twenty-se volumes, each containing a novel complete, have already been published, the last of which comprises The Crater. Tale of the Pacific. In all these issues there has been no diminution of the standard of elegance and beauty adopt ed at the outset, and the whole series, from beginning to end, is the most sumptuous and attractive ever issued from any press. No other editon of the great novelist will be needed in the next fifty years.

A neat little volume, exactly to our liking, is "The Sable-Cloud, a Southern Tale with Northern Comments," by the Rev. Nehemiah Adams, just published by Messi Ticknor & Fields. Better than all other books on the sub ject this interesting story gives us a true picture of the 'institution," and we prize it the more as coming from a northern man. For present troubles the antidote is un-fortunately too late, but it may stop the permicious influence of future Uncle Tom's Cabins. The book is eloquently ritten, is truthful, and exceedingly interesting. The same publishers issue, in a very handsome duodeci mo, a charming work which takes us back to a most inte esting period in all literary history. In "The Autibiography Letters and Literary Remains of Mrs. Piozzi, (Thrai we are brought into contact, as by a living witness, with Madam D'Arblay, Dr. Burney, Pepys, and a host of registered glories of that brilliant era. The lady's intimacy

For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of the agent N. B.-Si and 5 postage stamps enclosed to any anthor-lasd agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, over again to beware. We begged of them, by every consideration of patriotism and of forms a necessary sequel to that work. Probably the heat story that Willie Colling has not with by return mail. KAUFFMAN & CO., Agents for Lancaster. en is "The Crossed Path," which Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, here, have just published in one of their roverbially neat, large duodecimos. After The Woman in White, and the Dead Secret, it may easily be imagined that the public taste would be hardly satisfied with an inferior work from that pen, so that the statement of the publishers that six editions have already been sold, may be accepted as a proof of the great attractions of the work. We need not enumerate the stirring points of Mr. Collins' plots. Few writers combine more pathos, with dramati skill and power. The same publishers issue "Father Tom and the Pope in a little 25 cent volume. This is a droll piece of classi humor. Originally published in Blackwood's Magazine if was read by thousands of the past generation, and is now being as eagerly devoured by thousands of this. If you would have a hearty and "learned" laugh, read Fath Н.

humanity, to desist from a course which would inevitably prove ruinous to the best interests of the country. We referred them to the prophetic warnings of the wise men in all ages of the Republic, from Washington down. said then, and we repeat it again, it is utterly impossible and forever out of the question to live in peace, in a Republic where all have a common interest in the government, without affording the fairest and the fullest opportunity for all to vote for their governors and their rulers. The Republicans did not believe us. The Wide Awakes would not even listen to our warning. The lanterns and capes and flags multiplied in our streets and in our public squares. Cannons were fired, banners floated in the breezes of the night, trumpets were blown and drums were Tom. beaten, until the young men and maidens, old men and matrons, fairly ran mad with the idea of being able to elect a President without the aid of the South. Well, the deed is done. The Wide Awakes have triumphed. To their care is committed the government of these

United States, what there is left of them. Gentlemen of the Republican party, gentle-men of the Wide Awake clubs, how do you like it? How does it look now? To those of you who have been successful in procuring offices at Washington, no doubt the prospect is pleasant; but we beg to inquire respectfully those who have been unfortunate in their applications, how the matter stands with them ? And then, there are thousands who never expected place or office, thousands who live by the sweat of the brow-shoemakers, carcenters, hatters, weavers, spinners, painters, angravers, in short, all sorts of mechanics and prers, those who have to earn by their toil. bread for themselves and for their children .--How does it look to you, gentlemen? No longer ago than the very last autumn, you had plenty of employment, at very good wages. You could readily meet your rent, your grocer's bill, your doctor's bill, and those of your tailor and butcher. Now, you find these necessary expenses very hard for you. You can scarcely sleep at night in peace for anxiety about them.

How does it all look to you? The Repub-licans told you, told all of us, repeatedly, everywhere, that if Mr. Lincoln were only once elected all would be calm and quiet and eaceful; that labor would be in demand, and the people would be happy again. But so far from realizing any advantages from the elec-tion of Mr. Lincoln, things are growing worse. The Wide Awakes, if you ask them to day, cannot but admit that we are not improving in the least, but are, in fact, upon the retrograde. Who, then, has gained anything by the election of a sectional President? Rather let us ask, who has not lost? Seven of the States of this Union have left us. Nearly all follows; the advantage which the vast carrying trade of the South has been to us is now gone. The Southern market is all but lost to us. Our people are compelled to be idle, all but those try would have been at this moment in as the war of the Revolution. There is no cause of the seceded States, nor to recapture th election, which has brought upon us our present misfortunes .- Boston Courier.

People Starving .- The news from India is frightful in the extreme, "famine is devastating to the fact that the famine is created by drought, says :

"It is a drought in a land where the sun bakes up the soil almost to the hardness of Confederated States, tending to produce a pottery, and where the earth, without rain in collision of forces, pending the efforts for an the accustomed season, is an impenetrable crust. Where irrigation works exist the unwise, and injurious to the interests of both, scanty waters will suffice to produce scanty and they would regard any such action on but where there are no such works there is no vegetation to be found. Mr. Ednonstone, the Lieutenant Governor of the Northwestern Provinces, had himself seen that in a march of twenty miles there was not a green blade in any direction. Families were fleeing away from the death which threatened them. Emaciated multitudes were drooping and dying by the way. And all this, we are told, is but the beginning of the terrible calamity which threatens to involve a population record by one of the speakers at the Mansion House at seven millions and a half. One of these stated that two millions and a half are actually storing? and a half are actually starving."
