ICHABOE. This is the old fashloned Feathery Guano, imported direct. Olden Time, which we shall present exclusively to the $3 subscribers to the Magazine for 1860, whether old or new. The subject represents the pastimes of our ancestors, and is eminently of a genial, domestic character. The plate, engraved in England at an expense of 2000 dollars, is entirely new, measures twenty-five by nineteen and a hair inches in 1-ize, contains thirty-nine figures, and is beyond comparison the finest work of the kind ever offered as a premium in this country.

'The engraving of Frith's picture of Merry-Making in the Olden Time, represents the humors of an English, holi day in the country in those good old times when the men wore cocked-huts and knee-breeches, and the women stays and hoops—a costume not essentially differing from the corset and crinoline of the present day. Almost in the content of the picture and a little to the back-ground is a country dance to the picture and a little to the back-ground is a country dance to the green, with a hard-featured fiddler perched on a high seat, and another musician in a tie-wig standing by him, playing with all their might. On the right-two-bouncing girls are gally pulling toward the dance a gray-haired man, who seems validy to remoustrate that his 'dancing days are over,' while a waggish little child pushes him forward from behind, greatly to the amusement of his spouse, who is still stiting at the 'est-table, from which he has been dragged. On the left, under a magnificent spreading oak, sit the 'equire and his wife, whom a countryman with his hat off is respectfully inviting to take part in the dance. To the left of the 'squire is a young couple on the grass, to whom a gipsy with an infant on her shoulder is telling their fortune. Over the shoulders of the whole is a landscape of gentle slopes and copses. The picture has the expression of gayety throughten the burin of Holl, not having-yet been published in England.'

COMMENDATIONS:
From Hon. Lewis D. CAMPELL, M. C., Ohlo.
My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Jor Morris, late Minister to Italy.
The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, couldined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. James Page.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr.
Robert Newell, of the City of Philadelphis, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We have carefully examined this engraving, offered for sale in this community by Messra. Austin & Webrily, and do not hesitate to pronounce it one of the finest works of American Art we have ever seen. The design is beautiful, the style of execution is superior, and the illustrations are excellent. Its appearance will at once secure for it the admiration of a reflaced community, and recommend it to the Christian public. It is highly ornamental, and is calculated to exert a refining influence in a family, and an elevating and purifying effect upon the morals and religion of society, and it should meet, as we understand it deserves, with a rapid and extensive sale.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napler township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justitice Gorley, that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwitetanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely caten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents. We also refer to the case of Knary Bleskney, of Elderton, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form. To the case of George Melsel, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his surfice nose of, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.
