

Geo. Sanderson, Editor. A. Sanderson, Associate. LANCASTER, PA., MAY 21, 1861.

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

FALSE AND EXAGGERATED STATEMENTS

There is a very general complaint amongst our gallant Pennsylvania troops at the shameful manner of their treatment, both in regard to provisions and clothing.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

MORE POPULATION

There is a very general complaint amongst our gallant Pennsylvania troops at the shameful manner of their treatment, both in regard to provisions and clothing.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT

THE CITY SCHOOL BOARD. The City School Board met on Monday evening last and organized by electing the following officers for the year.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

THE DEMOCRATIC POSITION

The unanimity of the people of the North for the government, and against those who would destroy the Union, is a fact of which we are daily reminded.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

OUR ARMY COMRADES

Occasionally an old friend, long in and gone wandering, will be seen in our ranks, and we shall be glad to see him.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.

PROGRESS OF COL. ANDERSON

LANCASTER, May 15.—Col. Anderson has just passed here, on his way westward. He was greeted by an immense crowd of citizens.

OUR FLAG

Now that the flag is flying in the wild winds from North 6th street, Philadelphia. He is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the same.

AN APRENTICE WANTED. An apprentice wanted immediately at this office to learn the printing business.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Since our last issue the troops of the General Government have taken possession of Baltimore.

Some are disposed to blame the Administration for the delay in commencing offensive operations. We are not of that number.

ARREST OF HOSS WINANS. As the members of the Maryland Legislature, which adjourned on Tuesday, were returning to Baltimore in an extra evening train.

FOOTMARCH AT READING. JACOB KNAB, Esq., Editor of the Reading Journal has received the appointment of Postmaster for that city.

MARYLAND TROOPS. Governor Hicks has issued a proclamation calling out four regiments of volunteers.

THE OLD AND THE NEW. When Virginia was in her glory's time, her Washington, her Jefferson, her Madison, and other heroic sons, labored for the American Union.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW. The American Review of the Quarterly Review for the month of May, 1861, is now published.

THE EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE. The following is a list of books published by the Intelligencer during the past week.