DECISION OF THE GOVERNMENT REGARDING "CONTRABANDS." INSTRUCTIONS TO GENERAL BUTLER.

WASHINGTON, August 11 .- The following letter has just been dispatched to Gen. Butler by the Secre-WASHINGTON, August 8, 1861.

WASHINGTON, August 8, 1861.

General: The important question of the proper disposition to be made of fugitives from service in States in insurrection against the Federal Government, to which you have again directed my attention in your letter of July 30th, has received my most ttentive consideration.
It is the desire of the President that all existing rights in all the States be fully respected and maintained. The war now prosecuted on the part of the Federal Government is a war for the Union and for Federal Government is a war for the Union and for the preservation of all the constitutional rights of States and the citizens of the States in the Union. Hence no question can arise as to fugitives from service within the States and Territories in which the authority of the Union is fully acknowledged.

The ordinary forms of judicial proceedings, which must be respected by military and civil authorities alike, will suffice for the enforcement of legal claims. But in States wholly or partially under insurrectionary control, where the laws off the United States are so fur opposed and resisted that they cannot be effectuso far opposed and resisted that they cannot be effectually enforced, it is obvious that the rights dependen ally enforced, it is obvious that the rights dependent on the execution of these laws must temporarily fail, and it is equally obvious that the rights dependent on the laws of the States within which military operations are conducted must be necessarily subordinate to military exigencies created by the insurrection, if not wholly forfeited by the treasonable conduct of the parties owning them.

To this general rule, the right to service can form no exception, and the act of Congress, approved August 6th, 1861, declares that if persons held to service shall be employed in hostility to the United States, the rights to their services shall be forfeited, and such persons shall be discharged therefrom. It follows, of necessity, that no claim can be recognized by the military authorities of the Union to the services of such persons when fugitives.

by the military authorities of the Union to the services of such persons when fugitives.

A more difficult question is presented in respect to persons escaping from the service of loyal masters. It is quite apparent that the laws of the State under which only the services of such fugitives can be claimed must needs be wholly or almost wholly susponded as to remedies by the insurrection and military measures necessitated by it, and it is equally apparent that the substitution of military for judicial measures for the enforcement of such claims must be attended by great inconvenience, embarrassments, and injuries. Under these circumstances, it seems quite clear that the substantial rights of loyal quite clear that the substantial rights of loya masters will be best protected by receiving such fugi-tives, as well as fugitives from disloyal masters into the service of the United States, and employing them govern your future action in respect to fugitives from service by the principles herein stated, and will report from time to time, and at least twice in each oth, your action in the premises to this Depart-You will however, neither authorize nor nermit You will, however, neither authorize nor permit any interference by the troops under your command with the servants of peaceful citizens in the house or field; nor will you in any way encourage such servants to leave the lawful service of their masters; nor will you, except in cases where the public safety may seem to require it, prevent the voluntary return of any fugitive to the service from which he may have examed.

lave escaped. I am, General, very respectfully your obedient SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.
To Major General B. F. Butler, commanding the Department of Va., Fortress Monroe.

HOW THE WAR OPERATES.

The State of Iowa has had her agents in New York and other cities endeavoring to borrow one million of dollars at 7 per cent; but without success. The Governor has now made an appeal to the people of the State. offering the loan at 92 cents on the dollar, but as yet there is little or no prospect of its being taken. Why? Because the war, cutting off trade with the South, is ruining the farmers of the West, as the following items of news clearly indicate:

An Iowa paper quotes potatoes at 2c., wheat 30c., and corn 8c. per bushel; butter, 7c. per pound; eggs, 2c. per dozen; cheese, 6c. per pound; markets dull at that.

In Northern Illinois last year's potatoes sound and nice, are given away. One farme in Whiteside county has thrown five hundred bushels of fine potatoes out to the weather, as no one would take them for the cost of trans portation. The St. Louis Republican, speaking of the depressing effects of the war, says: "In this market potatoes cannot be given away at 6c. per bushel; new corn will go down to 10c., it can be sold at all; oats will be worth noth ing; hay will be a drug, and wheat will not in all probability, command over 35 cents.' With the West thus prostrated, and the trade and custom of the South withdrawn. what must soon be the fate of the North The condition of things is sad enough already, but the prospect is, that, with the continuance of the war, it must go from bad to worse, with prices going down, labor without em- must be opened and the Northwest saved. ployment, asylums and almshouses filled to overflowing, debt and taxation rapidly increasing, and nobody thriving except the Cur-, TIN and LINCOLN officials who are filling their pockets by plundering the soldiers and the

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 12. The event of to-day has been the arrival of a flag of truce from Norfolk with 22 released prisoners of war. They comprise the follows ing persons:—Surgeon Edward F. Taylor, of the 1st New Jersey volunteers; J. A. Stewart, 1st Minnesota; Eugene Penquet, 71st New York; Foster Swift, 8th New York; S. C. Thunkens, 4th Maine; B. F. Buckstare, 5th Maine; W. H. Allen, 2d Maine; James M. Lewis, 2d Wisconsin; Gustavus Winston, 8th New York; Charles Degraw, 8th New York Dr. Norval, 79th New York.

These surgeons remained at Subley Church and the stone building, after the battle, attending to the wounded and were taken prisoners. They remained, some at Bull Run and others at Mannassas Junction, attending upon the wounded for two weeks after the battle, and then were sent to Richmond. Finally they were released on parole, and sent within our lines via Norfolk. They have been courteously and kindly treated by the military authorities of the Confederate States, and give a most unqualified denial to all the stories the killing or ill treatment of the wounded. Mrs. Custis, of New York, who went out a day or so after the battle and was taken prisoner, is also released.

The following men of different regiments were released and sent home, for kind treat-ment on the field of battle to Col. Gardner, of Georgia, and the wounded soldiers:—Isaiah
W. Richardson, 1st Rhode Island; Sergeant
Watson A. Mallory, of the 38th New York;
James Collins, 69th New York; James Collinger, 2d Rhode Island; James H. Eldridge, 2d with 45,000 pounds sterling in Bank of England notes in his possession, being the proceeds of a loan for the Confederate States. Serrill

WHAT ARE WE FIGHTING FOR I Most persons will readily answer this ques-tion—for the preservation of the Union— Congress answered it when it passed Mr. CRITTENDEN'S resolution declaring that this war is not waged for any purpose of conquest war is not waged for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the Southern States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution; and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are meanwhiled. as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

This resolution was passed by the House with but two votes in the negative. It is therefore an authorized exposition of the objects of the war, which are not subjugation the abolition of elavery, but to maintain the Constitution and the Union.

The special organ of the Secretary of War, (the Harrisburg Telegraph, of the 10th inst.,) however, refuses to stand upon this national platform, but insists that there shall be no peace "as long as slavery exists on this con-tinent"—that "there cannot and there never will be peace again in what once formed the United States, as long as slavery exists in the South " What is this but the rankest abolition treason against the purposes of the American people, as declared by an almost anything it says, for accountability ordinarily attaches only to rational beings, but the fol-lowing, published after the Bull Run disaster, may serve to show how far its ideas of the war differ from those of Congress:

"A NATION'S WAR CRY has been changed om restoration to that of REVENGE! When the American people first rushed to the rescue to obedience to the summons of the Government, it was for the purpose of restoring the Inion and recovering the public property that add been stolen by the rebels. Three months go our war cry was for restoration, now it is or revenge."

—And considerable more in the same diabolical strain, which it is not necessary to DEATHS. from restoration to that of REVENCE! When the American people first rushed to the rescue in obedience to the summons of the Government, it was for the purpose of restoring the Union and recovering the public property that had been stolen by the rebels. Three months ago our war cry was for restoration, now it is for revenge."

bolical strain, which it is not necessary to anote. The organ of the Secretary of War thus explicitly abandons the idea of prosecuting the war for the Constitution and the Union, and insists that it shall be henceforward carried on for the noble purposes of abolishing slavery and Revence for the Bull Run defeat—a calamity due entirely to the blundering imbecility of our own rulers.

In this connection we beg leave most respectfully to suggest that the Secretary's organ add one other plank to its platform.— Instead of Abolition and Revence, let it be Abolition, Revenge and Plunder. This would make it complete.—Patriot & Union. This

THE PROGRAMME OF REVENCE. The Secretary's home organ having repudia ed the National platform embraced in the resoutions adopted by the House of Representatives, that this war is for the Constitution and the Union, and not for the abolition of slavery, and having mounted a platform of its own construction composed of equal parts of ABO-LITION and REVENGE, undertakes to answer the question-What are we struggling for? One of the first answers to this interrogatory

s-" We are battling to maintain this Govern-"ment as it was bequeathed to us by our "fathers." A very proper answer. We can endorse it cordially. We are battling to maintain a Union composed of free and slave States under a Constitution which guarantees to each State the exclusive right to determine its own domestic institutions. That is the whole story. We are neither fighting for slavery or against slavery-to extend it or to destroy it; but to to compel rebellious citizens to obey the laws of the Government under which they live.

But towards the close of the same article the organ comes out in its true colors in favor of Abolition and negro insurrections, when it declares—

"We must strike where the cause of the evil

the service of the United States, and employing them under such organizations, and in such occupations, as circumstances may suggest or require. Of course a record should be kept showing the name and description of the fugitive, the name and the character (as loyal or disloyal) of the master, and such facts as may be necessary to a correct understanding of the circumstances of each case. After tranquility sh. Il have been restored upon the return of peace, Congress will doubtless properly provide for all the persons thus received into the service of the Union, and for a just compensation to the loyal masters. In this way only, it would seem, can the duty and safety of the Government and the just rights of all be fully reconciled and harmonized.

You will therefore consider yourself instructed to govern your future action in respect to fugitives from ocial and political destruction? Now we pronounce the above treason to the Constitution, treason to the Union, treason to the cause for which the army is fighting, and treason to humanity. It is nothing less than the blackest Garrisonian Abolitionism. We do not envy the heart of that man who can deliberately propose the desolation of a portion of this Union by a bloody and remorseless slave insurrection, which would fall most severely upon innocent women and children : por do we believe that any considerable number of people at the North are prepared to countenance such an infamous proposition. Let the author of this villainous sentiment talk of his love for the Constitution and the Union, but who will believe him? Who does not see that Revence and not Patriotism is the parent of this diabolism ?-Harrisburg Patriot.

PROTEST AGAINST THE WAR. - The Iowa

State Journal (Republican) says: "The blows dealt by the administration to punish disloyalty are most fearful in their recoil. The loyal Northwest is being ruined by the measures taken to harrass and disturb the country of the Southern Mississippi.— Whether the administration knows it or not is a question somebody else must answer. Wheat this city, of a good merchantable quality, will not bring twenty cents per bushel; corn has been sold and delivered one hundred miles east of us for seven cents per bushel, and still down, down, is the fearful tendency. It always appeared to us that the better policy was to drain the South of specie and concentrate it here. The loyal Northwest and the disloyal South feel alike the effects of the blow. The last, stimulated to greater endeavors, sows broader acres, and lives while we languish.— We can tell the 'blood invoking' advocates of this war that the 'plain men' of Mr. Lincoln's proclamation are becoming aroused .-They see ruin staring them in the face. They see every avenue which has hitherto brough wealth choked up-more, they see evidences of the animus of this war, and all of them Republicans as well as Democrats, are begin ning to think. From every hilltop of Iowa the cry will soon come, 'Peace, take off restrict tions, unlock the channels of trade, give us peace and life.' We know it; we state nothing from hearsay or conjecture: it is the monotone of the people which will become stronger with the need. The Mississippi

AN OHIO M. C. IN THE ELIGHT. Mr. Riddle, a Republican member of Congress from Ohio. writes a letter to the Cleve land Leader concerning his experience at the battle of Bull Run, from which we make the following extract.

"Well, the further they (the soldiers) ran, the more frightened they grew, and although we moved on as rapidly as we could, the fugitives passed us by scores.

"The heat was awful, although now about 6; the men were exhausted; their mouths gasped, their lips cracked and blackened with the powder of the cartridges they had bitten off in the battle; their eyes starting in frenzy -no mortal ever saw such a mass of ghastly wretches. "As we passed the poor, demented, exhaus ted wretches, who could not climb into the high, close baggage wagons, they made fran-tic efforts to get on to and into our carriage. They grasped it everywhere, and got on to it, and into it, and over it, and implored us every way to take them on. We had to be rough with them. At first they loaded us down almost to a stand still, and we had to push them off and throw them out. Finally Brown and I, with a pistol each, kept them out, al though one poor devil got in in spite of us, we lugged the coward two miles. finally opened the door and he was tumbled

All Good Looking People are generally possessed of good health, and a disordered condition of the winds me soon the star of the unhappy invalid and careworn countenance of the unhappy invalid Dr. O. Pholes. Brown's Acaica: Balsam, is justly celebrated as the most successful remedy of this or any other age, in caring consumption, parrous disorders, complaints of the liver, heart, etc., and it not only imparts a new life, and activity to every organ, but it, also rejuvenate the system, making the olderly look, once more young and fair, and young more blooming than sever before. The invigorating properties of the Acacian, Balsam are such, that while it simulates every organ of the physical being to increased dictivity, it places each in possession of a renewed vital force sufficient to eject disease sind, eradicate every morald taint which may be lurking in the system. It also increases the secretions, produces now and healthy fiesh and blood; andconsequently makes whole and hearty the entire being. It is a tonic alterative and disphoretic, a stimulant without the faintest reaction. It does not simply remedy a local evil, but purifies and ejects every veetige of disease from the body. The Acacian Balsam is sold at $25 pact large bottlar. It may be subtained of: American people, as declared by an amboo unanimous vote of Congress?

MARRIAGES.

On Saturday last, in this city, George E., son of John Hamilton, in the 18th year-of his age. The deceased had been in comparatively feeble health for a year previous to his death. Hopes had been entertained of his recovery, but these suddenly vanished. He that was known as a kind friend, affectionate husband, father, son and brother is gone the way of all flesh's destiny. The veil of earth that now shrouds his body from our view will soon cover us; then lef his death be a motive and means, as designed by Providence, to fit us for life's lawful duties, death's solemn moments, and Heaven's pure and unsulted joys. And especially may this sore bereavement to the flesh be sanctified to the spiritual profit of surviving relatives; and the meak and gracious Saviour, who has "borne our griefs and carried our sorrows," and who said "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted," take special care of his orphaned children and bereaved partner, and lead them in the way of life and salvation.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwardina Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1858.

From Dr. E. W. Cartioright, New Orleans. Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent unlities surpass any cathartic we possess: They are alld, but very certain and effectual in their action on the lowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily reatment of disease.

DEAR BRO. ATER: I cannot answer you what complaints I bear the with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purpathe medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartte in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

DR. J. C. Ayer. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst heudache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect,

Sin: I have used your Pills in my goieral and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and declad, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bitious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Physician of the Marins Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms. Pysentery, Diarrheca, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Gren, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrheca. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Yaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston. I find one or two large doese of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural excretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

Honore Sur. I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on exeruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rhetmatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. fills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering a the use of them, I am now entirely well.

As Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreafful consequences that frequently follow its incantious.usc. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever. Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

A AYER'S

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

From Dr. Theodors Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver vary marked indeed. Thay have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can montion. I sincerally rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himer, Pustor of Advent Church, Boston.
Dr. Aver: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES. MARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dzar Sin: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

Such as Indigestion, Addity of the Etomach, Colleky Pains, Hearthurn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a desided sure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, preparad on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the domand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its ruly seemderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose scaccinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, nonessed of singular remedial properties.

Sold by Druggiats generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.
