religion; they have deliberately made up their minds that our Government is a good one, and that it is our solemn duty to do all in our power to perpetuate and transmit it unimpaired to coming generations.

Our own voluntary engagements, the welfare of the people, the prosperity of the country, the interests of civil and religious liberty throughout the world, and all coming time, and the glory of God, all require this. This class of persons are cool, deliberate, and firm, but kind; they do not make many violent and denunciatory speeches, nor write many inflammatory articles for the press.— But they are either in the army themselves, or their sons are there, and their property, time, and influence are at the disposal of the time, and influence are at the disposal of the Government. They are greatly grieved at the present state of affairs, and bear their country, their whole country, on their hearts to the mercy seat daily and hourly. The burden of their prayers is, that God would perpetuate our glorious Union, and grant us a speedy and honorable peace. These are the true friends of the country; they are those or friends of the country; they are those on whom she relies with the most implicit confidence in this the hour of her peril.

The second class are very zealous, noisy, lustering and tumultuous. On all occasions blustering and tumultuous. they are ready to make bitter and denunciatory speeches, write inflammatory articles for press, or preach warlike sermons. They denounce the President, the Cabinet, and all who do not agree with them, as tardy in their movements, vascillating and timid in their policy; they seek to establish their patriotism by denying the loyalty of others. Pretty much all they do for their country is done with the found in the army themselves, nor any of those who are nearly allfed to them; and so far from devoting their time and property to the service of the Government, they are eagerly watching every opportunity for promoting their own aggrandizement, and fill their pock ets by plundering the nation. Instances of this kind of patriotism might easily be mentioned, but this is not necessary .- Presbyteri-

THE MOB SPIRIT.

The Mob spirit, which is so much encouraged by the Republicans in some localities, and so much talked of every where, is one of the most baneful that ever pervaded any country. He who is mobbed to day will tomorrow, or at any future period when he has the power, very likely mob those who injured It is a system of revenge, which when once fairly commenced will render every man's property and life insecure. If resorted to now to redress political grievances, when "hard times" come in their ultra form, will the naked and hungry respect the law that was violated with impunity by the wealthy or others owning property? There is no proothers owning property? tection for property where there is no respect for law, and the men who originate and most encourage the mob spirit now would have little to complain if it were practiced upon themselves hereafter.

It grates harshly upon the nerves of any man to hear threats made that his property shall be destroyed by mobs, and he who threatens it invites every body to throw the law aside and introduce anarchy, turbulence and violence of every grade.

We insist that it is the duty of all good citizens, of every decent man, to respect the law, to enforce it against all offenders, and to sustain and protect it in all its vigor and power. There is no safety in any other course to either life or property and we call upon every honest man to look this subject squarely in the face. Outlawry is not a pleasant state of society to any one, and when once fully introduced cannot so easily be checked .- Clinton Democrat.

THE ECONOMY OF HEALTH .- This busy nation of Americans have 12,000,000 working people, whose services may be estimated at $2 a day, and their annual loss by sickness at an average of ten days each in the year. This gives a total loss of $240,000,000 a sum three times as large as the whole cost of the General Government, including the Army, Navy, Post

A large proportion of this costly suffering might be averted by attention to diet, cleanliness, and above all, by the proper use of the right remedy in season. When a 25 cent box of Ayer's Pills will avert an attack of illness which it would take several days to recover from, or a dollar bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, will expel a lurking disorder that would bring the sufferer to his back for weeks or months, does it take any figures to show the good economy of the investment? When Fever and Ague is rankling in your veins, and shaking your life out of you, it is worth the dollar it costs for his Ague Cure to have the villainous disorder expelled, which it does surely and When you have taken a cold is it rudent to wait until it has settled on the lungs, when days or weeks or months must be spent in trying to cure it, even if it can be cured at all, or is it cheaper to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, costing a few shillings, and remove the trouble before it is serious? It takes no wisdom to decide.

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS. The Administration journals are dissatisfied with the Administration policy in the matter of prisoners, and demand an "exchange:"

the Administration policy in the matter of prisoners, and demand an "exchange:"

"It is absurd (says the N. Y. World) to manage a great war in the narrow, technical spirit which governs the proceedings of a nist prius court.

"General McClellan released on parole prisoners enough in Western Virginia to have exchanged back all those taken by the robels at Manassas. True, the conditions of exchange must have been arranged between the two Governments, which would have implied a recognition—of what? Not of the Jeff. Davis cabal as a Government de jure, not of any part of its claim to exercise jurisdiction over the territory of the seceded States, but simply of the fact that the cabal, calling itself a Government, has a large army in the field making war upon us.

"It is true, too, that by recognizing them as prisoners of war we bring into question our subsequent right to hang them as traitors. But as the Government never had a thought of hanging them, what difference does it make? We childishly release them all on a trumpery oath, which they will regard as a piece of ridiculous mummery, and are pretty ocrtain to violate, rather than retain them as prisoners of war and hold them subject to exchange. That is toe say, (for this is what it really amounts to,) rather than cast any doubt on our abstract right to hang them as traitors, we set them all at liberty without an equivalent. We virtually punish our own captive sudders with protracted imprisonment and separation from their friends, because we have scruples about treating otherwise than as traitors the captive rebels whom we actually restore to the sweets of unpurchased liberty. We can discern little practical wisdom in those scruples which reward our connections and punish our friends. We let the traitors go scot free when they are in our hands, lest we should compromise our claim to hang them by making their enlargement the price of restoring loyal men to liberty. If we mean to hang them, why not do it while they are in our hands, lest we should compromise our c

CONDITION OF THE NAVY.—Six months ago our vessels were scattered all over the world, and there were but one hundred and ninetyseven available seamen on board our receiving

To-day there are at least two hundred pennants afloat, and eighteen thousand seamen to defend them. We owe this improved condition of the navy in great part to the exertions of the members of the Bureau of Detail and Dis-cipline at Washington, selected by the present Secretary for their talent and experience. We allude to Commodore Paulding, Commodore Davis and Commander Woodhull, men of tried worth and experience, who have brought order out of chaos, and proved themselves equal to every emergency.

We understand that the Connecticut will sail in a few days from the Navy yard, on a cruise along the coast, visiting every station, and carrying supplies of all kinds for the fleet, and to co operate in the active movements which may be shortly expected to be made against the ports of the enemy. If we have any fault to find with the vessel, it is that she needs two heavier guns than she now carries which we hope will be immediately provided. Her commander is one of the most daring and skilful young officers in the service, and, like Decatur, only asks for opportunity.-N. Y.

A NEWSPAPER SUSPENDED.

TRENTON, N. J. Aug. 24. The True Democrat, the Democratic organ of the State, suspended publication this morning, and gives as a reason that the Government has virtually interdicted the publication of every paper that does not support the Admin-istration. The paper is one of the oldest and most prosperous in the State.

Pennsylvania Volunteers.—Pennsylvania's contribution to the war within six months is shown to be 71,830 men. (cot 18 19 40) Kings county, New York:

THE LATE GENERAL LYON .- A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, a Republican paper and the organ of the Blairs, who accompanied Gen. L. to the field of battle, writes: "For two or three days before the battle General Lyon changed much in appearance. Since it became apparent that he must abandon the southwest or have his forces cut to pieces, he had lost much of his former energy and decision." The same writer says:

"To one of his staff he remarked, the evening before the battle, 'I am a man believing in presentiments, and ever since this night surprise was planned I have had a feeling I cannot get rid of that it would result disastrously. Through the refusal of the government properly to reinforce me. I am obliged to abandon the country. If I leave it without engaging the enemy the public will call me a coward. If I engage him I may be defeated and my command cut to pieces. I am too weak to hold Springfield, and yet the people demand that I bring about a battle with the very enemy I cannot keep a town against.— How can this result otherwise than against us? On the way to the field I frequently rode near him. He seemed like one bewildered, and often when addressed, failed to give any recognition, and seemed solicitous for the his men, but utterly regardless of his own safety. While he was standing where bullets flew thickest, just after his favorite horse was shot from under him, some of his officers inter-posed and begged that he would retire from the spot and seek one less exposed. Scarcely raising his eyes from the enemy, he said:—
"It is well enough that I stand here. I am satisfied."

In a few minutes afterwards he remarked to Major Sturgis :--"I fear the day is lost; if Col. Seigel had been successful, he would have joined us before this; I think I will lead this charge." At this time he was bleeding profusely from two wounds, one in his head and the other in his leg. Without stopping to put on his hat, which was held out to him by Major Sturgis, he threw himself forward into the thickest of the fight, and in two minutes afterwards he lay dead on the field, killed by a rifle ball through the breast just above the heart.

AN AFFECTING INCIDENT OF THE LATE BAT-TLE—Singular Meeting of Brothers after Seven Years' Absence—Both Wounded.—A corresondent of the Richmond Dispatch, writing from "Camp, near Manassas, July 27," relates the following affecting incident, of the meeting, after a separation of seven years, between b brothers:
'I, together with several other gentlemen from Montgomery, a day or two ago, witnessed one of the most singular, at the same time, most affecting incidents, which will probably occur during this war, if it should last for twenty years. We were straggling over the battle field, examining the ground upon which we had such a bloody conflict two days before. We came unexpectedly into the Centreville road, and seeing a house on the left with the usual signs betokening a hospital, one of our party being a physician expressed a wish to go down and see the wounded. Upon inquiry we learned that the stable below contained thirteen wounded Yankees; we forthwith pro-ceeded to the stable, and upon entering we found a Washington Artillery man seated by the side of a wounded soldier, evidently administering to him with great care and attention. I introduced myself to him, and asked if he aided in working the battery which fought with the First Virginia brigade He told me he did not—he had fought in a battery lower down, and then remarked 'that it was very hard to fight as he had fought, and turn and find his own brother fighting against him, at the same time pointing to the wounded soldier, from whose side he had just

"I asked if it was possible that was his brother? 'Yes sir; he is my brother Henry.
The same mother bore us, the same mother nursed us. We met the first time for seven years. I belong to the Washington Artillery, from New Orleans—he to the First Minnesota Infantry. By the merest chance I learned he was here, wounded, and sought him out to nurse and attend him. Thus they met-one from the far North, and the other from the extreme South—on a bloody field in Virginia, in a miserable stable, far away from their Offices, Legislators, Foreign Ministers and all.

The amount weighs over six hundred tons in Offices, Legislators, Foreign tribiters and the intantry man by a muchos ban the amount weighs over six hundred tons in right shoulder, the artillery man by the wheel of a caisson over his left hand. Thus they met after an absence of seven years. Their names are Frederick Hubbard, Washington Artillery, and Henry Hubbard, First Minesota Infantry. We met a surgeon of one of the Alabama regiments, and related the case to him, and requested, for the sake of the artil-leryman, that his brother might be cared for. He immediately examined and dressed his wounds, and sent off in haste for an ambulance to take the wounded 'Yankee' to his own regimental hospital."

THE BLOCKADING FLEET.

The N. Y. World gives a complete list of the National vessels doing duty as a blockading fleet off the Southern harbors, together with the names of the vessels recently bought by the Government to add to the efficiency of the service, and then says:-"It will be seen that we now have but forty six vessels of all kinds on active duty, a fact which accounts for the complaints re specting the inefficiency of the blockade so far. To those will be added, by the 1st of September, forty-four vessels now getting ready in the Government dockyard, and by the middle of October it is hoped the twentythree small and eight first-class gunboats will be in readiness for active duty. By that time even if no more vessels are bought, we shall have one hundred and twenty-one vessels, mounting twelve hundred and thirty-six guns, keeping watch and ward over the whole Southern coast. As Government has not ceased buying ships, it is not unlikely that forty more vessels may be bought for the same purpose. With this large fleet, and with the proposed sinking of old vessels laden with tone at the mouths of the smaller Southern inlets, the blockade will be rendered as effective as the most scrupulous stickler for international law can desire."

Онго.-Н. J. Jewett, the candidate of the Democratic party of Ohio for Governor, has written a letter accepting the nomination, in which he states that under no circumstances would be consent to a dissolution of the Union or listen to terms of separation: and with the leaders of the rebellion he would make no compromises and offer no terms except unconditional submission by them to the Union, the Constitution and the laws. Mr. Jewett advocates a National Convention, and is in favor of extending an invitation to the rebellious States to join such a body.

Large Corn.—Mr. Emmanuel Wade, whose country seat is located on the Washington turnpike, a short distance from the suburbs of the city, has raised a field of corn which, for size, surpasses anything of the kind yet exhibited. From a single stalk, over twenty feet in height, seven ears were plucked which measure twenty-three inches in length and ten in diameter, and the rows are compact and unusually tender .- Baltimore Clipper.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The late High Sheriff of Allegheny county has given us the following:

"I was afflicted with Deblitty of the Digestive Organs amounting to a severe attack of Dyspepsia, which had reduced my flesh considerably. My wife was also afflicted under same circumstances, and with same disease. Having used your medicine called Berhave's Holland Bitters, we both obtained relief, and are happy to afford you this public evidence of its value."

B Domestic Cabinet Mender.—It is one of the wonders of the age that such vast sums are expended in getting up apparently trifling articles; and another marvel that these are of so much utility. All Good Looking People are generally possessed of good health, and a disordered condition of the system soon betrays itself in the pallid and careworn countenance of the unhappy invalid.

Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acadian Balsam, is justly celebrated as the most successful remedy of this or any other age, in curing consumption, nervous disorders, complaints of the liver, heart, etc., and it not only imparts a new life and activity to every organ, but it also rejuventes the system, making the elderly look once more young and fair, and young more blooming than ever before. The invigorating properties of the Acacian Balsam are such, that while it stimulates every organ of the physical being to increased activity, it places seach in possession of a renewed vital force sufficient to eject disease and eradicate every morbid taint which may be lurking in the system. It also increases the secretions, produces new and healthy fiesh and blood, and consequently makes whole and hearty the entire being. It is a tonic alterative and dispherence a stimulant without the faintest reaction. It does not simply remedy a local evil, but purifies and ejects every vestige of disease from the body. The Acacian Balsam is sold at $2 per large bottle. It may be obtained of KAUFMAN & CO.,

Sole Agents, who have also a small number of specimen bottles, price 22 cents, that all may have the opportunity of trial.

the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs in the new which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, preducing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the matural action of the system, and with it the buoyants feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also ture in many of the deep-scated and dangerous distampers. The same purgative effect expols them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the writnes of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Da. Aver.: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is

DR. Aver. Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of nicerous screen upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grierously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her akin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

From Dr. E. W. Ourturright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any esthabrile we-possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease. Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. Aven: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with lisease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion. Bilious Disorders - Liver Complaints.

Physician of the Marins Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bitious dysentery and diarrheau. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood. From Rev. J. V. Himes, Fustor of Advent Church, Boston. Dr. Ates: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

Prom Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as Finkey, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe continues to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious companing than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people. Dysentery. Description and the people.

HONORED Sin: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatim. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease graw worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persovering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.
