THE EUROPEAN HARVEST.

The accounts just received from Europe may be considered decisive in regard to the prospects of the grain harvest in England and rance. The weather had not been as favorable as could be desired, in the last few days; nevertheless, the harvest was progressing finely in England, and was very nearly eted in many parts. In Suffolk, the com yield of wheat was represented to be encouraging, both in quantity and quality. The crop of barley was up to an average, and cats proved heavy and good. The Essex Herald speaks with less confidence, but the general tone of the agricultural press is hopeful.

In Ireland, on account of heavy rains, the crop prospects were not so good. A Dublin letter dated on the 19th says the potato blight is making progress, and on the whole the crops are regarded as in a critical state.

In France the whest crop has failed to meet expectations. The Paris correspondent of the London Times says, now that the harvest is nearly gathered, its deficiency is universally admitted. While the crops are good in some of the northern and south-western departments, other districts have suffered from rust and the "white worm"—a long, thick, yel-lowish insect, burying itself in the ground— has committed great ravages. The potato crop was also endangered from disease, which had appeared in some places. As might be expected, a movement of grain from England has commenced. The London Times says :--"Several vessels have been loaded with wheat for France during the past week, the reports received with regard to the French harvest inducing the conclusion that our neighbors s year have to resort to large importawill this tions of grain." It thus appears that while there is not likely to be any extraordinary deficiency in England-the prospect on the whole being favorable-France will have large wants, exceeding the ability of England to supply, and open a market for considerable imports from the United States. Shippers here have been anticipating this want for the past faw weaks and law and the states of the Allen, Assistant United States District Atsupply, and open a market for considerable past few weeks, and large contracts have already been made for Havre and other por-tions of the Continent, while a number of an officer in the Southern army, and unless vessels are now rapidly loading for French ports.-Journal of Commerce.

-+++-ENFORCING THE CONFISCATION ACT- TWENTY VESSELS SEIZED .-- On Sunday week the Surveyor of the port of New York took measures involving marine property to the value of several millions, under the authority of the proclamation of the President, of the 16th ult., issued in accordance with the act of Congress providing for the confiscation of property belonging to parties living in States in insurrection against the United States. The Tribune says:

The fifteen days that by the terms of the proclamation were to elapse before it should be put in force, expired at 12 o'clock on Satur-day night. R. F. Andrews, Esq., the surveyor of the port, having previously obtained information in regard to all the ships in the harbor which were owned in whole or in part by persons residing in the seceded States, gave otice to the revenue officers in command, at the barge-office, to have in readiness fifty officers to await the orders of the surveyor at 8 o'clock on Sunday morning. Punctually at that hour the surveyor pro ceeded to the barge office with Inspector Thos. J. Brown, and employing the revenue outter G. Birdbeck, with the fifty officers referred to above, for the purpose, proceeded to take possession of all the ships in port belonging, in whole or in part, to citizens of States in insurrection, and placed on board of each revenue officers to hold the same until the necessary proceedings can be instituted for their confiscation under the act aforesaid, and consequent forfeiture to the United States. There were twenty five vessels seized in all, and of these about an equal proportion of ships, barks, brigs and schooners. Some of these vessels and cargoes are very valuable, and altogether it is estimated that several millions of dollars will probably accrue to the government—an amount at least that will prove a fair offset to Jeff. Carolinas. The regiments from South Caro-lina, Georgia and Alabama, hurrying to the Potomac, have been stopped on the way, and sent to Newbern, under the impression that n immediate attack is contemplated upon the headquarters of the rebel pirates. The North Carolinians are greatly obagrined at the cap-ture of their fortress, and the consequent lockade of their "hornets' nest" in Paulico Sound, and the Albemarle, and the canal to Portsmouth. They have just begun to realize how severely they have been hurt, and they are continually taunted by the Georgians and be treated with respect until Fort Hatteras shall have been retaken. Whatever number of men they may con-centrate at Newborn, they have not in all the waters of Paulico Sound sufficient craft to enable them to make any impression upon Fort Hatteras. They will probably discover their new fortification to be a sort of a boomerang, that inflicts most injury upon themselves. The North Carolinians are pro-verbial for ignorance, but one of the company muster rolls captured at Fort Hatteras present an extent of ignorance inconceivable in ar enlightened country. The muster roll of the Tar River Rangers contains the names of sixty four men, only five of whom were able to write their own names; the rest all made their marks. FLORA TEMPLE CONFISCATED .- The racing mare Flora Temple-well known for her speed and the many matches she has madewas seized in New York on Thursday, by something extraordinary occurs she will be sold for the benefit of the Government.

The race between Flora Temple and Ethan Allen was not interfered with by the Marshals, but as soon after as possible, the two gentle-men proceeded to the stable of Flora, and making themselves and their errand known to making themselves and their errand known to the party having charge of her, took possession of her, and placing a lock and key on the door of the stable where she is kept, they deputized a man to look after her and see that nothing was done to injure her or to take her away This done, they left her; but it is very probable that the mare will be brought to Ne York, from the Fashion Course, where the seizure was made. The person having charge of her expressed some surprise at the idea of taking her upon such grounds, but the instant that he saw the Marshals were vested with the Symboli is and Mercourial Disease. New ORLANS, 25th August, 1859. Dr. J. C. ATER: Sir, I cheerfully counsing of the effects unaverage of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla. I have cured with it is mey matching the shales and have filters truly wondering in the cure of Venerad and Mer-urial Disease. One of my patients had Symbilitic ulcers in his threat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by soc-ondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had acton away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sen-sitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered ar-cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me. I have cured many invetar-ate cases of Leucorthea by it, and some where the com-plaint was caused by ulceration of the ulcru. The ulcer-ation itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowl-edge equals it for these female derangements."

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala, writes, "A dan-gerous coarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Ban-saparilla. Our physician thought nothing but artirpa-tion could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. There are also $10 notes, made redeem. able as above. On the left is a likeness of President Lincoln ; in the centre of the Amercan eagle and on the right a full length figure representing the arts. These notes have been put into circulation. In the centre of the $20 notes there is a full length figure of justice. --They are also redeemable at the places above indicated They are all a little larger than the ordinary bank notes, and being redeemable on demand will be highly prized as a circulating medium, and therefore holders should not submit to any shave. - Washington Republican Aug. 26.

the Democratic party of Maine, at this perilous hour, when the united voice of the Democracy is demanded for the safety of the country, that true and always patriotic old Democratic journal, the Portland Argus, speaks as follows : "Our own beloved State is, to all appears ances, fast drifting into the awful gulf of violent strife and anarchy, if it is not already the new brink. The passions of men are violent strife and anarchy, if it is not an end on Tuesday night last, three more not aroused—outrages are committed upon persons and property and an embittered state of feeling threatens to become more and more in. Many people are watching their property at flamed, until it shall result in blood and night, and heavy rewards are offered for the carnage. We are possibly in the midst of symptoms such as preceded the horrors of the French Revolution. The disruption of the party at this time is far from being calculated dam (Conn.,) Journal speaks of the finding of to allay apprehensions. It can but magnify

At the commencement of the battle of Bull Run, Lieut. Hasbrouck, of the West Point battery, was riding a little sorrel horse which was shot three times, and from loss of blood became too weak for further service .-He was stripped of bridle and saddle, and turned loose, as his owner supposed, to die.--In the heat of the contest nothing more was thought of the little sorrel, nor was he seen again until the remnant of the battery was far towards Washington on the retreat. It paused at Centreville, and while resting there Lieutenant Hasbrouck was delighted to be joined by his faithful horse, which by a strong instinct had obeyed the bugle call to retreat and had found his true position with the battery, which most of the human mass engaged the field cannot boast of doing. He came safely into Washington, is now recovered of wounds, and ready for another fight.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A MINISTER .- The Lafay.

ette (Ia.,) Courier contains the following : "Rev. Mr. Harris, a Methodist minister, was struck by lightning and instantly killed near the State line recently. He had preached in the neighborhood on Sunday, and during the storm, in company with his wife, had taken shelter in the house of one of the brethren at the edge of the wood. There were five or six persons in the room. The deceased was walking backward and forward in front of the open door, when the lightning descen-ded, and he fell dead at the feet of his wife.-Not a groan, not even a single sigh, escaped him. His features were as placid as if he was in a quiet slumber, and there was not a mark upon his person to indicate where the lightning took effect. His boot was ripped failure of Davis, the money broker, which has our city, has created consternation in all circles of business. His liabilities are heavy; it believed they amount to about $200,000 in The denomination of the "Demand Bills" are city and county together, and the amounts are divided with nearly all who had money to loan. The "assets" we are told, will not cover two of the larger losses. The sums which were intrusted to Davis were from $25 up to thousands, and the sufferers comprise poor and rich alike. The affair is almost incredible. How this man Davis has managed to handle hundreds of dollars here with hardly any shadow of security for its custody and use, is more than we can account for. This has been done, we are told, without suspicion of his honesty, and while he has had the confidence of all classes of people with whom he transacted business. His capital has been, mainly, confidence. Davis, it is said, has gone to Canada, and is now, doubtless beyond the pursuit.-Dayton (Ohio) Empire, reach of Aug. 30th.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE. The secessionists of Missouri have committed a most horrible outrage on the Hannibal and St. Jo-seph Railroad. They had burned several of the bridges of the road, and on a train with nearly one hundred passengers coming up to the Little Platt River, the bridge gave way and precipitated the whole train down an embankment, with horrible slaughter. Eighteen were known to be killed, and many others were not expected to recover.
