troops, and Col. Dougherty of the Bird's Point troops.
They were encountered by the rebels 7000 strong, and fought every inch of their way to the enemy's camp, making sad havoe in the enemy's ranks.—Col. Buford was the first to plant the Stars and Stripes in the enemy's camp. Col. Dougherty's regiment captured the rebel battery of twelve pieces, two of which were brought away. Col. Foulke's men suffered greatly, as they were in front of the batteries before they were taken.

After taking possession of the rebel camp, it was discovered that the rebels were crossing over from Kentucky, for the purpose of attacking us in the rear. The order was given to return to the boats, when our men were attacked by the reinforcements of several thousand rebels from Columbus.

Another severe engagement took place, in which our troops suffered seriously. The losses, as far as ascertained up to a late hour last night, were as follows: Thirtieth Illinois regiment, Col. Foulke—160 missing, and Major McClerken wounded and taken prisoner.

The 21st Illinois Regiment has 140 missing.

Colonel Buford's regiment returned too late for us to obtain any particulars of its loss. Col. Dougherty of the Twenty-second Illinois regiment, is reported to have been taken prisoner. Col. Lamon, of the Thirty-first Illinois, is reported to be dangerously wounded. Taylor's battery lost one gun. We have 250 prisoners, a number of whom are wounded. The rebels had 300 killed. The ground was completely strewn with their dead bodies. The rebel Colonel, Wright, of the Thirteenth Tennessee Regiment, was killed Gen. Cheatham commanded the robels, Gen Polk being at Columbus. It is stated that General Johnson, of the rebels, was wounded.

The gunboats readered efficient service in covering our retreat, mowing down the robels with grape.—Some of our own men were killed by the fire. A flag of trues left Cairo, this morning, for Columbus, with from forty to fifty wounded rebels.

The Battle at Belmont, Mo.

The Battle at Belmont, Mo.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

The War Department has received an official telegram concerning the battle at Belmont, Missouri, which generally confirms the newspaper statements. It says that Capt. Bieloski, of Gen. McClernand's staff, was killed, and among other particulars, says:
"We fought all the way into the enemy's camp, immediately under the guns of Columbus, spiked two guns and brought away two, together with 200 prisoners."
The Federal loss is stated at 300, that of the enemy being much heavier.

Later and Important. h heavier. — — Later and Important.

A special despatch to the Times, from Cairo, says it is impossible to obtain anything like an accurate report of the killed, wounded and missing in the engagement at Belmont on the 7th.

It is estimated that twenty-five of the Twenty-second Illinois are missing. second Illinois are missing.

The total missing are reported at three hundred and fifty.
Of the Seventh lowa Col. Lauman was wounded,

Of the Seventh lows Col. Lauman was wounded, but not dangerously.

Lieutenant Colonel Wendell killed; the Major and Adjutant are missing, and the reported killed in Logan's regiment is 35, and 47 wounded.

All but 44 of Col. Fouke's regiment answered at the roll call, yesterday afternoon.

The loss in Buford's regiment has not been ascertained, but it is supposed not to be heavy.

One hundred and twenty prisoners were taken.

All accounts concur in placing the rebel loss much heavier than our own.

neavier than our own.
Belmont has been abandoned by the rebels. They have 150 prisoners, and acknowledge 350 killed, but would not permit the Federal officers who went to Columbus with the flag of truce, yesterday, to visit the place to which they conveyed their dead. Farewell Interview between Gens. Scott and McClellan.

When Gen. Scott, was about leaving Washington, Gen. McClellan at the head of his staff proceeded to an inner room, occupied by Gen. Scott, and removing his hat from his head, bowed before the veteran what when he had just supposed. whom he had just succeeded.

chief whom he had just succeeded.

Gen. Scott sitting, from inability to rise, extended his hand to his successor and they talked for some minutes with hands clasped. In this position Gen. Scott, drawing McClellan nearer to him said:

"General, do not allow yourself to be embarrassed by men who do not comprehend this great question. Carry out your own ideas, act upon your own judgment and you will conquer, and the Government will be vindicated. God bless you."

The young chieftan's only reply was:

"I thank you General, and will not forget your counsel. May you be restored to health, and live to see your prophecy fulfilled. God be with you. Farewell."

Lieutenant General Scott.

Lieutenant General Scott. New York, Nov. 8. Gen. Scott received the Chamber of Commerce and Union Defence Committee to-day. He spoke highly of the President and Gens. McClellan and Halleck.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.

Archbishop Hughes left New York for Europe on Wednesday, and Mr. Thurlow Weed was to have left by the steamer of to-day. It is understood that they will be followed in a few days by Bishop McIlwaine, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Ohio, and the Hon. Edward Everett, of Massachusetts. The simultaneous visit of these gentlemen to Europe seems to be made with the approval of the Government, as they all had recently been here in consultation with the President and Cabinet.

Age and Deblity.—As old age comes creeping on, it brings with it many attendant infirmities. Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In cases where old age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedles have been tried, all have failed, until Bornhave's Holland Bitters were known and used. In every case where they have been employed, they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have been a great agent for this alone, and are used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to repair physical injuries.
