

"THAT COUNTRY IS THE MOST PROSPEROUS WHERE LABOR DEMANDS THE GREATEST REWARD."—BUCHANAN.

THE LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER. PUBLISHED EVERY SUNDAY AT NO. 8 NORTH DUKES STREET, BY GEO. SANDERSON.

The President's Message.

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives. In the midst of unprecedented political troubles we have cause of great gratitude to God, for unusual good health and abundant harvests.

The operations of the Treasury during the period which has elapsed since your adjournment, have been successful and signal success. The patriotism of the people has placed at the disposal of the Government the large means demanded by the public exigencies.

The revenue from all sources, including loans for the financial year, ending on the 30th of June, 1861, was $66,835,900 27, and the expenditures for the same period, including payments on account of the public debt, were $81,678,844 47; leaving a balance on the Treasury on the 1st of July, of $2,257,055 80.

Estimates for the remaining three quarters of the year, and for the financial year ending on the 30th of June, 1862, amounting to a balance on the 1st of October, 1861, of $4,292,776 18. Estimates for the remaining three quarters of the year, and for the financial year ending on the 30th of June, 1862, amounting to a balance on the 1st of October, 1861, of $4,292,776 18.

The disloyal citizens of the United States, who have offered the ruin of our country in return for the aid and encouragement they have invoked abroad, have received less patronage and encouragement than they probably expected. It is not surprising to learn that the disloyal citizens of the United States, who have offered the ruin of our country in return for the aid and encouragement they have invoked abroad, have received less patronage and encouragement than they probably expected.

I respectfully refer to the report of the Secretary of the War for information regarding the numerical strength of the army, and for recommendations, having in view an increase of its efficiency, and the well-being of the various arms of the service entrusted to his care. It is gratifying to know that the patriotism of the people has proved equal to the occasion and that the number of troops tendered to the Government has exceeded all authorized me to call to the field.

The recommendation of the Secretary for an organization of the militia upon a uniform basis is a subject of vital importance to the future safety of the country, and is commended to the serious attention of Congress. The large number of militia regiments, in connection with the defection that has so considerably diminished the number of its officers, gives peculiar importance to its recommendation for increasing the corps of cadets to the greatest capacity of the Military Academy.

By my omission, I presume, Congress has failed to provide for the necessary supplies for the army, and I have been obliged to draw upon the Treasury for the purpose. It is gratifying to know that the patriotism of the people has proved equal to the occasion and that the number of troops tendered to the Government has exceeded all authorized me to call to the field.

During the long and brilliant military career of George Meade, his credit grew into an immense reputation, and he was called upon to give the Courts therein more than a nominal attendance, rising in population from 1,470,000 in 1850 to 6,151,400 in 1860. Besides the increase of population, the country has undergone a great change.

to and accepted the protection of the old flag. This leaves no armed instructors North of the Potomac, and no armed troops on the slave trade have been seized and condemned. Two mates of vessels engaged in the trade and one of the vessels in equipping a slave, have been captured and sent to the penalty of fine and imprisonment, and one captain, taken with a cargo of Africans on board his vessel, has been convicted of the highest grade of piracy, and sentenced to the punishment of death.

The territories of Colorado, Dakota and Nevada, created by the last Congress have been organized, and civil administration has been inaugurated therein, under auspices especially gratifying, when it is considered that the leaves of treason was found existing in some of these new countries when the Federal officers arrived there. The abundant maritime resources of these territories, with the security and protection afforded by an organized Government, will be a great benefit to the people of the country.
