THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.—FIRST SESSION.

Monday, January 27.

A number of petitions were presented to the Sentate to day, including the following: For a national armory at Springfield, Ohio, and for the continuation of the coast survey. Mr. Wade offered a joint resolation in order to develope, concentrate, and bring into effect the mechanical resources of the United States for the suppression of the rebellion and future defense of the country, the superintendent of the consus is authorised to perform such things under the direction of the Secretary of War, and to collect such was statistics as, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, may be right and proper. The resolution was amended and then passed. Mr. Hale offered a resolution, which was laid over, that the Secretary of the Navy inform the Senate what was the cost of the Pennsylvanis, and how many cruises she had made; also where the ship Alabama was built, what was her cost, whether she could be altered into a steamer, &c.—Mr. Wade called up the resolution making an addition to the joint rules of both houses, as follows: Thut when any member of the House or Senate shall rise in his seat and shall say that the arcentiva de-That when any member of the House or Senate shall rise in his seat and shall say that the executive department of the government desires immediate action on any matter pertaining to the suppression of the present rebellion, the House or Senate, as the case may be, shall go into secret session and proceed to the consideration of the measure proposed, and the debate thereon shall be limited to five minutes for each speaker, and the vote thereon shall be taken before the adjournment of the secret session. Any breach, of the secret session. Any breach, of the secreey, unless the injunction is removed, shall be punishable by expulsion if by a member, and if by any officer of the House or Senate, by such punishment as the body in which it occurs shall impose. After some debate the subject was that when any member of the House or Senate shall shall impose. After some debate the subject was postponed until to-day. The case of Mr. Bright was then taken up, and Mr. Latham made an able speech against his expulsion, after which the Senate ad-Mr. Watts, delegate from New Mexico, introduced a bill in the House in aid of the construction of a military road west of the Missouri river, vis Forts Leavenworth and Biley, to Deuver city, which was referred. Mr. Colfax introduced a bill to render more uniform the postage on printed matter, provi ding for three rates in the place of the three hundred now existing. The House then went into Committee on the Whole on the West Point Academy bill, and specches on the state of the country were made by Messrs. Menzies, Riddle, and Sheffield. After this the bill was passed.

TUESDAY, January 28.

Mr. Harris presented to the Senate to-day a peti-tion from a large number of New York merchants, in favor of restoring the warehousing system, by which imported goods may be kept in store, three years. Alr. Saulsbury presented a petition of citizens of Illinois, asking Congress not to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, and asking for the expul-sion of members who sympatics with such an act sion of members who sympathize with such an act. The petition also prays that the title of general, conferred by law, may be taken away from John C. Fremont, and that his frauds in the Western Depart-Fremont, and that his frauds in the Western Department may be exposed. Mr. Foster offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Secretary of the Treasury inform the Senate what, if any, further legislation is necessary to enable the Executive Department to take charge of the cotton and other lands of South Carolina now in possession of the government, and to place the same under cultivation; also, if any further legislation is necessary to provide for the "blacks" in those localities, and to furnish them with proper employment. Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to provide for the revision and consoliduced a bill to provide for the revision and consoli-dation of the statutes of the United States. Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to define the pay and provide for emoluments of certain officers of the army. The bill to authorize the President to take possession

The bill to authorize the President to take possession of certain railroad and telegraph lines was then taken up, and, after being amended so as to confine its operation to states or districts in insurrection, was passed by a vote of 23 to 12.

The House took up the special order for to-day, viz: Mr. Spaulding's bill to authorize the issue of United States notes, and for the redemption or funding thereof, and for the funding of the floating debt of the United States. Mr. Spaulding explained the features of the bill, after which the further consideration of it was postponed until Wednesday. sideration of it was postponed until Wednesday. Mr. Roscoe Conkling introduced a bill to establish a uniform system of backruptcy throughout the United States, which was referred to the special committee on that subject. The judicial, legislative and exec-utive appropriation bill was then taken up, but no utive appropriation bill was then taken up, but no conclusion was arrived at.

WEDNESDAY, January 29.

Mr. Henderson, the newly appointed Senator from Missouri, took his seat in the Senate to-day, after subscribing to the usual oath. On motion of Mr. Authony, the resolution providing for the distribution of certain documents belonging to the seceded members among the present members of the Senate, was taken up and adopted. Mr. Howe offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the President for the number of cavairy mustered into the service, distinguishing these mounted by the state, and also stating how many are necessary for the efficiency of the service. The joint resolution on the secret sessions of either Houses, after being amended, was adopted. The amendments provide that during the present rebellion, if any member of the Senate or House of Representatives shall arise in his place and state that the President desires immediate action on state that the President desires immediate action on state that the President desires immediate action on any matter pertaining to the suppression of the rebellion, the galleries shall be cleared and the member state the action desired, and his reasons for such, and the House shall then determine without debate whether to proceed to the consideration of the subject. If decided in the affirmative, the debate shall be confined to the subject matter and limited to five minutes for each speaker, and a vote taken before the adjournment, unless two-thirds shall otherwise the adjournment, unless two-thirds shall otherwise lecide, provided this rule does not interfere with the per who reveals the proceedings of the secret ses shall be expelled. The oas of Mr. Bright was taken put and Mr. Saulsbury made a long speech against his expulsion. Mr. Davis replied, reiterating the views expressed by him last week, which gave rise to an animated debate between him and Mr. Bright.—We do not wish to be considered inquisitive, but then we would ask how much a certain Abolition firm in this city expects to make judicial appropriation bill, among the provisions of which was the following: That nothing in this act shall prevent hereafter a reduction of salaries, and that mileage now due by law shall be paid as soon as certified by the presiding officer of each House, but there shall be no construction for mileage beyond that there shall be no construction for mileage beyond that there shall be no construction for mileage beyond the there is a make two pair per day, which gives her the construction for mileage beyond the there is a make two pair per day, which gives her the construction for mileage beyond the taken in atteking they are not make two pair per day, which gives her the construction for mileage beyond the taken in a few man works smart she can make two pair per day, which gives her the construction for mileage beyond the mass that the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog—not the man gled his dog together after he (the dog tog the a start post of glew, with which the man gled his dog togeth Without acting on the question the Senate adjourned.

The House passed the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill, among the provisions of which was the following: That nothing in this act shall prevent hereafter a reduction of salaries, and that mileage now due by law shall be paid as soon as certified by the presiding officer of each House, but there shall be no construction for mileage beyond what is allowed by existing law, viz., "Mileage for each regular session only." Mr. Lovejoy, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported a bill, which was passed, appropriating three thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, for the purchase of miland cotton seed. be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, for the purchase of upland cotton seed, for general distribution through the Patent office.—
The bill authorizing the President, in certain cases, to take possession of certain railroads and telegraph lines, was, after a brief debate passed. The House also passed the bill providing in all cases, that when a volunteer regiment has been or shall be raised to the minimum standard, the colonel and other field officers who shall have been commissioned as such, shall be cutitled to receive the pay and allowances established by law for their respective grades, from setablished by law for their respective grades, from the time they were severally authorized in writing by the President, Secretary of War, or governor of their state, to raise such regiment; provided, how-ever, that in no case shall such pay date back more than three months prior to such regiment being raised to the minimum standard. The House then resumed to the minimum standard. The House then resumed the consideration of the Treasury note bill, and Mr. Pendleton made a speech in reference to it, subsequent to which the army bill was taken up. Mr Gurley made a speech severely criticising the conduct of the war thusfar. The House passed the resolution providing for secret sessions on the war question, and then adjourned.

THURSDAY, January 30. Petitions were presented to the Senate to-day, for a general bankrupt law and the advancement of General Sigel. Mr. Rice offered a joint resolution, which was adopted, that the Secretary of War be authorized to procure from officers and soldiers, now prisoners in the so-called Confederate States, allotment pay for families. The Secretary of War to issue drafts on New-York or Boston to families. Mr. Grimes offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Secretary of War furnish a statement, in tabular form, of all vessels purchased or chartered for the the Secretary of War furnish a statement, in tabular form, of all vessels purchased or chartered for the War Department since April last, when vessels were built, what tonnage, price, etc. Mr. Hale offered a resolution that the Secretary of the Navy inform the Senate when the ship Franklin was changed for use as a steamer, and whether the department intend to complete her for use the present year, or any definite time. The resolution to print five thousand copies of the eulogies on Senators Baker and Bingham was rejected by a vote of 13 to 27. Mr. Wilson offered a resolution that the Committee on Military Affairs inquire into the management of the government hospitals at Alexandria, Va., and report such measures as may be necessary to correct any abuses, which was amended by striking out the words, "Alexandria, Va.," and then adopted. Mr. Harris presented a memorial from a large number of mer-brief reply, after which the Senate adjourned until Monday.

Monday.

In the House, on motion of Mr. Fessenden, an editorial in the Chicago Tribune, stating that one third of the cartridges furnished to the Burnside expedition contained no powder, &, was referred to the government contract committee. On motion of Mr. Wickliffe, the Committee on Military Affairs were instructed to inquire into the expediency of placing contracts for army and navy supplies, including arms, under the rule and government of military law, or the rules and articles for the government of the navy, with power to punish for fraud and infidity. On motion of Mr. Blake, it was resolved that the Seoretary of War inform the House how many regimental bands are employed in the army, and whether their services can be dispensed with without injury to the service. On motion of Mr. Alley, the Committee on Commerce was instructed to inquire not the expediency of the passing of a law prohibiting the exportation of oak timber. Mr. Van Wyck

THIETY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.-FIRST SESSION. from the select committee to investigate government from the select committee to investigate government contracts, offered resolutions that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to furnish the House with a copy of the contract made by him or his department for handling, opening, assorting, and general delivery of foreign goods in the city of New York, usually called the labor contract, or general orders contract, and whether the said labor is now done by the original parties to said contract, or whether said contract has been resigned; if so to whom, and at what consideration; also, that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to furnish to the House a statement of the salary; fees, and perquisites received by the collector, surveyor, and naval officer of the port of New York, each respectively from the time he entered on the duties of his office, together with the salary, fees, and perquisites received by the predecessor of each during the four years preceding the term when the present incumbent entered upon the duties of his office. The House then went into committee on the naval appropriation bill, and speeches were made by Messra. Kelly and Dunlap. A statement of the latter that five regiments of Illinois troops stacked their arms when they learned that the object of the war was emancipation, gave rise to some debate, in which Mess. Menzies, Conkling, Kellogg, Wadsworth, and Fouke participated. Mr. Frank presented resolutions from the New York legislature relative to taxes and their collection, which was referred. Mr. Porter, from the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report, accompanies which was referred. Mr. Porter, from the Committee on Judicisry, presented a report, accompanied by a resolution, that the several railroad companies which have received from states grants of public lands, made by acts of Congress for the purpose of aiding in the construction of the roads of such companies respectively, are required to transport the property and troops of the United States over their road free of toll, and all other charges whatsever. A brief debate ensued, but no vote was taken, and the House adjourned until Monday.

An act to provide for the appointment of fence viewers was also passed.

TUESDAY, January 28.

In the State Senate a number of private bills were passed, and both branches met in joint convention to elect a State printer, but on opening the bids the lowest bidder presented securities which were pronounced insufficient. The two next lowest did not appear, so the convention adjourned till February 11. In the House a resolution was adopted authorizing the appointment of a committee of five to investigate the frauds on the volunteers.

WEDNE DAY, January 29.

In the State Senate, J. F. Cochran was elected Sergeant-at-Arms, in place of Harman Yerkes, deceased. Several private bills were passed. A message was received from the Governor announcing the appointment of Messrs. J. Barclay, John L. Atlee, and D. W. Gross as Trustees of the State Lunatic Asylum. In the House, the resolution to appoint a committee to investigate the means used to pass certain bills through the Legislature last winter was adopted.

THURSDAY, January 30.

The Speaker read a report from the Auditor-General of the Commonwealth, stating that the Eric Canal Company had never, paid any taxes. Mr. Smith, of Philadelphia, presented an act incorporating the Norristown and Trenton Railroad Company. Mr. Stine moved that when the Senate adjourns to-morrow, it be until Monday next. Passed Mr. Lowry offered a resolution that the Senators from Pennsylvania be requested to vote for the expulsion of Jesse D. Bright, of Indians, fin the United States Senate. The question was discussed beyond the usual hour of adjournment.

In the House Mr. Armstrong offered a resolution authorizing the Finance Committee of the Senate, and the Committee of Ways and Means in the House, to proceed with the Board of Revenue Commissioners to Washington, to confer with the Finance Committee of Congress on the subject of taxation. Agreed to—yeas 67, nays 23. Mr. Kaine offered a resolution, directing the Committee of Ways and Means to report a bill repealing that part of the revenue act of 1861, levying a tax of half a mill on the dollar. Passed. Mr. Kaine also offered a resolution requesting the State Treasurer to report to the House what counties owe taxes to the State. Passed. Mr. Cowan moved to consider the resolution re alive to the expulsion of Jesse D. Bright from the United States Senate. Not agreed to.

HOME QUESTIONS.—The Boston Herald is after the shoddy patriots, who line their own pockets very deeply, while they vaunt their own "patriotism," urge the abolitionizing of the war, form secret "leagues," and spy systems—and prate of their sorrow for the "poor" tems—the difference of the guesting the Finance Committee of the Senate of the Finance Committee of Congress on the subject of taxation. PRODUCTIONS OF CALIFORNIA.—California is a wonderfully productive State. Cattle have got to be so numerous as to be almost worth—less, and every kind of fruit and farm produce is abundant and cheap. During the autumn full grown fat cattle have been sold for $3 to $5 per cwt.; horses from $10 to $50; hogs at all prices; sheep from 75 cents to $1.50.—Contracts for good fat beef, with the necks and the second of the show prices. Good clean barley, in 100 pound sacks, is selling at $150 per 100 pounds, and still, such are the facilities for raising stock in that climate, money can be made at the above prices. Good to be shown that a short supply planted. They sall at $2 cents, two specimen bottles, price $25 ing been but a short supply planted. They

Some The gallantry of our Foreign born citizens in the war has been the theme of many laudations. We notice various papers and persons praising Siegel, Corcoran, Shields, Schoepff, and their brave followers, who, a couple years ago, would not have been willing to let either of them have a voice in the affairs of our country. The facts shows another of the glaring errors of the opposition, and the readiness they possess for changing their views to suit circumstances. The Democratic party stood by the rights of the foreigner when many of those who now profess to be their warmest friends were their bitterest enemies, and the wisdom of our position at that time is shown in the remarkable zeal with which our adopted citizens have enlisted in the cause of DEATHS.

Mr. Harris presented a memorial from a large number of merchants of New York, asking that the laws in regard to import duties be confined to goods actually on shipboard. Mr. Johnson from the special committee on the President's Message relating to the construction of a military railroad from Kentucky to Tennessee, reported a bill for that purpose. The case of Mr. Bright was then taken up, and Messrs. Howe and Wilmot spoke in favor of his expulsion, after which the Senate adjourned.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill to pay the expenses incurred by the States in enrolling, subsisting, clothing, arming and transporting the troops, &c. Mr. Holman mentioned a flagrant case of fraud which had been noticed in the Chicago Times, and was followed by Mr. Richardson on the same subject. After further remarks by Messrs. Kellogg and Dunn, the bill was tabled by a vote of eighty-three to forty-two. The army appropriation will was tabe to kay up, and Mr. Cox replied to the construction of the terrible throat disease

A LIVE ANECDOTE.

A Pennsylvanian, now in the army, relates a traditionary anecdote of the late Secretary of War, which is probably as true as the posthumous stories of the juvenile days of great men generally are. It was the custom afore t me in Pennsylvania for mothers to place an apple, a silver dollar, and a bible, before their ildren as soon as they were able to toddle about, and with a mother's interest and sa-tistaction, watch them make their choice. It was considered indicative of their more matured predilections. In accordance with thi custom the mother of the infantile Simon, as soon as he was able to stand on his pins, produced the articles and set them before the child, hoping in her heart he would select the Bible. But not so Simon. The future Secre tary of War took a somewhat deliberate view and, with less reverence than King Alfred, mounted a top the Holy Writ, pocketed the dollar, and commenced munching the apple! It is needless to add that he has been at that business ever since. - Exchange.

GOV. DAWSON OF UTAH IN TROUBLE.-The telegraph announced a few days since that Governor John W. Dawson, of Utah, who left Salt Lake City, on the 21st of December, for the east was pursued, and when about twelve miles on his journey was whipped and robbed Seven of the men guilty of the outrage had been arrested, and three of them, while at-tempting to escape from the officers, were killed. The Salt Lake News of January 1st reveals the cause of the assault. The Goveror grossly insulted a respectable woman, and fled to escape the vengeance of her friends .-Gov. Dawson was formerly editor of the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Times, and had been in the Territory but about two weeks.—Boston Trav-

CONFESSION OR A MURDERER. Z Since the murder of Miss Bavor, near Mohrsville, Berks county, Pa., a few years ago, an impen etrable mystery has hung over the case. It has been dissipated however, by the confession of John Ezra Lovering, who was executed in Mifflintown, Juniata county, Pa., on the 2d instant, for the murder of Henry Auker, on the 6th of March last. In it Lovering gives the particulars of his early life; of his enlistment in the Navy, cruise on board the Plymouth and his final desertion; of his forgery on Christopher Tyson and subsequent detection; and confesses that he murdered Adeline Bayor, of Berks county, and a man in Tuscarora Valley, Pennsylvania.

JOHN BULL'S SINCERITY .- The English "philanthropiste" are deserting "Uncle Tom." The London Athenœum declares its conviction that the system of Slavery at the South is more beneficial to the negro than freedom at the North, and, therefore, by no means so wrong as it has been thought. The Saturday Review ridicules the anti-slavery sentiment of Great Britpin in one column while it denounces popular government as mob law in the next. The Review argues that the negro ought not to be freed, be-cause, "left to the free indulgence of his natural inclinations, he will not labor at all.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes; "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrobious dinitiests. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucarchea by It, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cared. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangenents."

Edward S. Marrow, of Nawbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous convian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extipation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Da. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Veneral and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphillite ulcers in his threat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla: the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by neccury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a faw weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly romarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours,

G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

for some years from no other cause than derangement of as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of threat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth.
Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs.
As all know the dreafful fability of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the curse which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
