Despatch from Gen. Shields-The Fight near Winchester-Our Loss, 150 Killed and 300 Wounded-Rebel Loss, 500 Killed and 1,000 Wounded.

WASHINGTON, March 26, The following despatch from General Shields to Souston cs, dated Winchester, to day, was read in the Senate this arnoon :

Rice, dated Winchester, to day, was read in the henavo une "On the morning of the 23d, my command. 7,000 to 8,000 strong, was stacked near this place by Jackson, with eleven regiments of infantry, this Irish buttalion, about 1600 cavairy, and 35 pleces of artillery. After a sever ght, the eneary were put in complete rout, leaving behind two pieces of cannon, four calesons, and a large number of small arms, beddes about three hundred prisoners. Our loss is one hundred and fifty killed, and three hundred wounded. The eneary's loss is five hundred killed and one thousand wounded." WINCHEVER, March 26, P. M.

WINCHESSTER, March 26, P. M. We expect to obtain a list of the killed and wounded on oth sides to night. Capt. A. H. Brown, of the Fourth Ohio, has been appointed deputy provest marshal. A committee of citizens, in conjunction with the Mayor and provest marshal, have buried all the rebel dead which have been brought to town. Eighty-dre were buried on the built-field, and 125 on the readide, between here and the battle-Beld, and 125 on the roadsnoe, between and birshourg. Two hundred and thirty-five prisoners have been sent to Baltimore. Others are on their way here. A newsmaper from Strasburg states that General John-son was to have Joheed Jackwon at Strasburg, but subs-quently sent bim. word that he could not Join him till Monday night. Their combined forces would have amounted to from 25 000 to 30,000. The robels were en-deworing to keep General Bauks from moving to another point, but Jackwon. being falsely informed that our troops had nearly all left Winchester, hazarded his fatal advance alona.

Could Gen. Patterson have taken Win-chester ?---Johnston's March to Bull

I have had frequent conversations with residents relative to the three months campaigo, and all unite in expressing the opioion that had General Patterson advanced upon Winchester when he left Bunker Hill, he would have been disatronsly routed. Johnston had made every arrange-ment to give him a warm reception. He had between thirty and forty thousand men, including a large force of carairy, a number of light and heavy batteries, and the fortifications were well mounted. Had General Patterson moved directly upon the town upon his arrival at Martina-burg, his chances for success would have been more flatter-ing, as the fortifications were unfinished, and Johnston's force was by no means as large as it was a few days hater. The sudden departure of Johnston for Bull Run, in July last, is still referred to by Saccession sympathiers here as the greatest military morement of the age. The anthori-ties at hickhond had refused to permit the robel General to leave Winchester, but when her reselved information of the fight of the 19th he threw out a large force of cavalry, as if preliminary to a movement upon Patterson, and while apparently throatening, was rapidly marching his army to dimansate in two divisions—one via Strasburg, and the other by the way of Pledmont. The result of the ma-neouve was made known on the Sunday following.—Win chatter Correspondence of Philaddiphia Inguiryr. have had frequent conversations with residents relative

The Battle Near Winchester--Total Rout of the Rebels.

The Battle Near Winchester--Total Hout of the Rebels. Winchester, March 25. On Saturday the rebels advanced upon Winchester, under Generals Jackson, Longarteet and Smith, and drove in our pickets with their cavairy. They approached within three miles of the town, and, bringing up a battery of artillery, they commenced playing on our troops. Gen. Shields ordered Robinson's Ohio Battery to return the fire, and, while he was directing the operation, the splinter of a rebel shell struck him on the left arm, and disabled it instantly. One man and horse killed, belong-ing to the battery, were the only casualities besides this, on our side, that day. The rebel ioss is supposed to be twelve men. A few of our pickets were captured. At night, both armies drew up in front of each other, and awaited moraing to renew the context. The rebel force was seven thousand infantry, twenty-eight pieces of artillery, and twelve hundred cavalry. On Sunday morning, at tan o'clock, the rebels received reinforcoments, under Gen. Garnett, amounting to five thousand more. The Union forces did not exreed ten thousand more. The Union forces did not streed ten thousand more, and, with the exception of about five hun-dred, were of General Shield's Division exclusively. At half past ten the enemy made a faint on our left, com-manded by Acting Brigadier General Sullivan, opening a heavy fire of artillery, while the real attack was directed against our right, with the object of finkking it. General Kimble commanded on the right, where the heaviest fight-ing was done. There the enemy were strongly posted in woods and behind as tone wall, and the robel artillery was

 "A brief examination disclosed how hasty and precipitate had been the fight of the enemy. Their dead were found unburied, their suppers untonched, standing on the tables, candles burning in the tents, and every other evidence of a disgracting panic. Private buggare of officers, and knapaacks of men were left behind. Neither provisions nor ammunition ware carried off. Some attempt was made to carry ammunition, as boxes without number were found on the bank of the river, where the steamers had been landed.
 "It is almost impossible to give any exact account of the immense quantifies of property and supplies left in our hands. All their artillery, field batteries and siege guns, amounting to thirty-three pieces; magazines fall of ince ammonition of the best character; several thousand they noise, cartridges, tents for an army of ten thousand men, horses, mules, wagons, entranching tools, &c., are among the spoils. TAXATION, STATE AND GENERAL. The Legislature having determined to ad-journ sine die on the 11th of April, the project revising the revenue laws of the State will be adjourned until the next regular session, unless indeed circumstances should intervene requiring the Governor to call an extra session, which is not now regarded as within the range of reasonable probability. At the extra session of Congress, in July last, a direct tax was apportioned among the several States, in proportion to their population. Pennsylvania has provided for the pay-ment of her quota by authorizing the Governor to set off any portion or all of the money advanced by the State to the Federal Govern ment on account of military expenditures .-This course obviates the necessity of a direct tax for this year. Our readers are aware that the Legislature at the extra session authorized a special loan of three millions of dollars, to be used in organizing, equipping, subsisting and transporting troops, all of which was in the nature of an advance by the State to the Federal Government. Instead of the Government paying back this money directly to the State, it is put to our credit on account of direct taxes. By this course we avoid the ex-

next September, provided the Abolitionists can refrain from discussing emancipation, confis-cation and like questions long enough to affird time for the consideration of practical matters, The bill pending in the National House of Representatives is an indirect tax measure, embracing a great variety of subjects, but nothing of that direct nature capable of being apportioned among the States and collected by the State authorities. The General Government will appoint its own agents for the collection of stamp, excise, income and other taxes which will be imposed and received without reference to the States. So the Legislature can really do nothing to assist the Federal Government in raising the revenue from these

Mr. Duan offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of organizing a large force of miners, with the necessary machinery, to proceed to the gold mines of the West and work the same for the benefit of the government, as a means of defraying the ex-penses of the war. Mr. Wickliffe introduced a bill to provide funds in part to pay the interest and principal on the public debt; the bill was referred to the appropriate committee. Besolu-tions were introduced and referred, tendering the thanks of Congress to Lieut. Morris, of the Cumber-land, and Gen. In the Senate to-day Mr. Summer from the Com-mittee on Foreign Relations, reported back the bill in relation to administering the oath of allegiance to American citizens in foreign countries. It is a remarkable fact, that every mocrat, in view of the evident restoration

Earl Russell that "it was not from fear that the slaves would be liberated that secession took place. The very party in power has proposed to guarantee slavery to the States, f the South would but remain in the Union." Then why dissolve the Union? This is the question the Southern people, misled by these lemagogues, are beginning to ask ! When it is learned that these Confederate representatives have offered to transfer Florida and a part of Louisiana, as hostages to France or England for their anti-slavery reform, it will still more open the eyes of the South.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT. PHILADELPHIA, March 29. The Pyrotechnic factory of Professor Jackson, 10th and Reed street, was totally demolished by an ex-plosion this morning. Five or six employees, in-eluding as on of Prof. Jackson, were blown to frag-ments; one head being found two squares off. Ten or twelve others were shockingly burned, and were removed to hospitals. They were mostly boys and girls.

[SECOND DESPATDE.] [SECOND DESPATDE.] PHILADELPHIA, March 29. Jackson had a large government contract for fill-ing cartridges. The number of wounded is much larger than supposed. Three men, three boys, and fitteen girls, were removed to the hospital, and twenty-two others, including a daughter of Jackson, were removed to houses in the vioinity of the calam-ity, where their injuries were attended to. Among the latter were Samuel Curtin and his three sisters —all badly injured. There were fifty girls, and twenty-four boys and men employed in the factory.

Bilious Disorders-Liver Complaints.

Billous Disorders - Liver completence. From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York C.19. Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their pur-pose as an aperiont, but I find their benchichi effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my prac-tice proved more effectual for the cure of bitoms com-plaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerly rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is wor-thy, the confidence of the profession and the people.

quantity they are an admirable remedy for deraugements of that organ. Indeed, I have solden found a case of billoud direate so obtained that it did not rendilly yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Trigateina of the Mavine Mospillal.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

Bysentery, Diarrineea, Reina, Worms. From Dr. J. G. Green, of Unicago. Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alternitive effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for billous dysentery and diarrheea. Their sugar-coating makes them rey neceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

By Appendix, Antiputity of Advent Church, Boton. Dr. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I and called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best roundy I have over known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J.V. HIMES.

If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join ne in prochan-ing it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although had enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe co-fuences to originate in the liver, but your Fills affect that organ and cure the disease.

indirect sources. Next year an entire revision of the revenue aws of the State will become necessary, in order to pay direct United States taxes and to meet the extraordinary expenditures incurred by the State. These will amount to more than he public now anticipate. The military claims provided for under the bill recently passed by the Legislature will amount, it is said, to not less than two millions of dollars. By a joint resolution passed during the present week, the State has agreed to guarantee one million of dollars to induce the Government to construct one or more iron-clad gunboats for the defence of Philadelphia and the Delaware river. For most of these expenditures the State will eventually be reimbursed by the Federal Gov ernment, but if we go on pursuing the policy of setting off these advances against direct taxation. it is easy to see that we are getting deeper and deeper in debt. When the time arrives for the meeting of the next Legislature we may be able to see precisely where we stand, and provide intelligifor taxation to meet all the liabilities of bly

AMERICAN BREADSTUFFS AND STOCKS IN EUROPE .- The news by the steamer Africa, is represented in the New York commercial papers as extremely favorable for American produce and American securities. The French lemand for breadstuffs was improving, and in London American securities were firmer.-Though the intelligence of Fort Donelson and the fall of Nashville were not known at the time the Africa sailed, the public of Great Britain and France seemed to be forming a juster apprehension of the nature and prospecis of the contest, and realizing that the war would be over before midsummer. All the financial circulars report an increased inquiry for American securities, and the private letters state the same thing. One letter from a leading London house to a house in Wall street, after alluding to the ease of money and anxiety of the speculators on the London Stock Exchange to find something new to operate in, goes on to say that one mere victory on the part of the North will undoubtedly lead to an active speculative demand for American securities.

The Republican State Convention of Rhode Island had not the courage to oppose Gov. SPRAGUE, nor the manliness to support him. They know they cannot defeat his re-election, and they therefore concluded not to nominate a candidate against him ; but they refused by a vote of 60 to 35, to support him ! This is the extent of Republican patriotism and no-partyism in Rhode Island; they refuse, by a vote of nearly two to one, to endorse the man who is admitted to have done more to sustain the Government and put down the rebellion than any other man in New England !-N. Mr. Pomeroy offered an amendment to the bill requiring the commissioners to make an equitable soltiement between the master and slave. In the House Mr. Dawes, in behalf of the Govern-ment Contract Committee, defended the committee from the charges made against them by Mr. Alexan-der Cumpure in a parablet them by Mr. Alexander Cummings in a pamphlet issued by him. The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tax bill. Among other amendments adopted was a pro-viso that the tax on goods, wares, and merchandise viso that the tax on goods, wares, and morchandise manufactured pursuant to contract under the act, shall be paid by the purchasers before delivery of the articles. Several sections of the bill were then acted upon, when the committee rose. Mr. Rice, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported joint resolu-tions appropriating fifty thousand dollars to enable the Secretary of the Navy to test the plans and ma-terials for rendering ships and floating batteries in vulnerable.

THURSDAY, March 27. TRUESDAY, March 27. In the Senate to-day Mr. Hale offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Naval Affairs to inquire into the alleged laxity on the part of the officers of the blockading squadron on the coast, especially at Charleston, and whether there was any foundation in the statement of the British consul at that port, that armed troop ships of the Confederate States have been allowed to go in and out of the nort of Charleston, and method and out of the port of Charleston, and no attempts were made to stop them. The joint resolution, giv-ing pecuniary aid to the states in case they should emancipate their slaves, was taken up, and Mr. Henderson made a speech in favor of it. Mr. Pearce from the Committee on Finance, reported a bill to allow arms ordered by the states to aid in the sup pression of the rebellion, to come in free of duty.— The naval appropriation bill was then taken up. Mr. Hale offored an amendment making an appropriation of $783,294 for the completion of the Stevens battery. This called forth considerable discussion, but no ac-tion was taken upon it. Mr. Sherman offered a fur-ther amendment, to the effect that in the sums ex-pended for the completion of the vessel, it shall be stipulated that the payments by the United States of the sums expended by Mr. Stevens shall be contin-gent on the succes of his vessel as an iron-clad war steamer, the same to be determined by the President. The senate then went into executive session.

The Senate then went into accultive assign. In the House the consideration of the tax bill was resumed, and considerable debate thereon ensued.— Mr. Cox offered an amendment, which was adopted, taxing antiracite coal filteen cents a ton, and bita-minous an eighth of a cent a bushel. Mr. Morrill offered a proviso to the amendment, which was agreed to, providing that no duties on coal shall be collected until the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty. Mr. Kellogg offered an amendment to the bill laying a tax of three cents per pound on cotton held by either persons or corporations. After con-siderable debate the amendment was rejected, by yeas 53 nays 55. An amendment was adopted ex-empting from duty red oil or olais acid, used in the manufacture of coalles and soap, and parafine, whale, and fish oils. In the Senate to-day, Mr. King, from the Com-mittee of Finance, reported a bill, which was passed, to prevent the allowance of pensions to the widows and children of revolutionary soldiers, unless their claims were established. Mr. Wright introduced a bill for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. Mr. Grimes moved to take up the reso-lution declaring that no more brigadier-generals shall be appointed unless for gallantry in action. The motion excited considerable debate, but was finally disagreed to. The bill remitting the duties on arms ordered by states prior to January 1, 1862, was passed. The naval appropriation bill was taken up, the question being on the amendment for the completion of the Stevens battery. Mr. Fessenden offered a proviso, which was adopted, that no part of the approprisiton be paid until the battery shall be completed according to the satisfaction of the Secre-tary of the Nary, as full and adequate for the pur-pose of its construction. A further amendment was adopted, that the said money is not to be expended unless the Secretary of the Navy is of the opinion that it will secure to the public service an efficient steam battery. Mr. Hale offered an amendment to the bill, which was adopted, appropriating $13,000 000 to enable the Secretary of the Navy to construct an iron-clad vessel of war. Also an amendment, which was adopted, appropriating $250,000 for cast-
