We welcome the sick soldiers, but for mercy's aske spare us from any more niggers. If Banks loves them so well why dosen't he send them to his own dear Massachusetts. Or is Massachusetts meditating an act like that passed by the legislatures (the abolition legislatures) of some other States, refusing to silow the poor negro to place foot upon their soil. O Consistency! Think of it. Steal the nigger; coax him to run away; work day and night and soil body and soul for the sake of alluring him, enticing him, shaming him, driving him away from a kind master who takes care of him, feeds him, nurses him, and loves him, get him by any means over to our hospitable shores, and then slam the door in his face and tell him to go about his business. We have known men, sworn champions for the abolition of slavery, vote for such a resolution to keep niggers from entering their own State. Could there be baser hypocrisy? Now we should like to see a law passed compelling overy abolitionist to live only with niggers, eat with them, kiss them, sleep with them, from Beocher, Greely and Lucratia Mott down, or up, whichever it is. Then we shall know how far their sincerity goes. In the meantime we again say to Mr. Generalissimo Banks don't send any more contrabands to Philadelphis We can spare you a few.

From a dusky anbject we turn to a lively one. Spring is upon us, bright, beautiful spring. Troops of swallows, with two-pronged tails, were prospecting in the mud to-day along the banks of the Schulykill, but where they find their usual insects thus early in the season is a puzzler. The lactes also skilmmed in troops up and down Chestaut, street, with such bonnets! two storiad meeting houses, built up square to the roof, with the chimneys knocked off.

Apropos of this well known series of Tales we have to say here that its latest addition has been from the pen of no less an author than the famous writer who gave us Adam Bede. The "Chronicles of Carlingford," published in a neat twenty-five cent pruphlet, is without doubt from the gifted pen of Miss Evans. It bears internal evidence of the fact, which has been confirmed positively. Let every one read it and then put the question to himself if he ever read a more beautful or engaging story.

WAR NEWS.

Gen. Grant's Report.

General Grant, in his official report of the late battle at Pittsburg Landing, a singularly meagre and unsatisfactory production, states that when our pickets were driven in by the enemy on Sanday the five divisions stationed at Pittsburg were drawn up in line of battle, and a severe engagement ensued which continued until nightfall. The enemy having forced the centre line to fall back nearly half way from the camp to the landing, at a late hour in the afternoon a desperate effort was made by them to turn our left wing and obtain possession of the 'anding, transports, &c. The gunboats effectually guarded this point. At this critical moment the advance of General Buell's column and a part of the division of General Nelson arrived. An advance was then made upon the point of attack, and the enemy was soon driven back. During Sunday bight the divisions under Generals Crittenden and McCock reached the field. An advance was ordered early on Vonday morning, and the result was the gradual repuise of the caneny at all points of the line from nine in the morning to five in the afternoon, when it became evident that they were retreating. The force under General Grant was too much fettered after the health to follow the nearest was too much fettered after the health to follow the nearest was for much the contracting and after the health to follow the contracting the force under General Grant was too much fettered after the health to follow the nearest was too much fettered after the health to follow the result was too much Gen. Grant's Report. at all points of the line from niue in the morning to five in the afternoon, when it became evident that they were retreating. The force under General Grant was too much fatigued after the battle to follow the enemy, but General Sherman did so, and it was ascertained that they retreated in good order. To the report is appended the correspondence between Generals Grant and Beauregard, in relation to burying the rebel dead left on the battle-field. General W. T. Sherman gives a report of his pursuit of the retreating enemy. An engagement occurred between the rebel cavairy and ohio Seventy-Seventh Regiment, when the latter, without cause, three down their arms and field. General Sherman finally succeeded in rallying enough infantry and cavairy to rout the enemy and 'take possesion of their camp. Everything was then destroyed except a general hospital, in which were about 250 confederates and about fifty of our troops. Not having the means of carrying them off, Colonel Dickey took a surrender, signed by the medical director and attending surgeons and a pledge to report themselves to General Sherman as prisoners of war. Unfortunately, the enemy succeeded in carrying off his guns, but left behind bim limber boxes of at least twenty. After this operation Gen. Sherman ordered his men back to camp, they being completely fagged out by their the ed days' fighting, relyation and exposure. From Fortress Monroe.

FORTERS MONROE, April 19
Thirty-nine wounded from Yorktown arrived here t Thirty-niae wounded from Yorktown arrived here today, making 90 in all wounded in the fight on the left flank on Thursday. The whole number reported is 32 killed and 90 wounded. Gen. Magruder's report of the same fight, in the Norfolk papers, gives 25 killed, including Col. MKInney, and 75 wounded.

We can hear occasional canoonading towards Yorktown, but learn that it is merely an attempt of the enemy to disturb our working parties. With the exception of the rifle pit affair, on Thursday, the rebels have gut the worst of all the skirmishing so far. The works are progressing rapidly, and when the siere dees commence it will be teen rific.

The New York Fifth is considered the best drilled in the assigned to it, being the only volunteer regiment with the

"Nero (not the poor Negro) fiddled while Rome was burning," you will recollect. So, many of our New England Senators and Representatives, after agitating abolition, for Buncombe, all the week, up to Saturday, relieve the monotony by Sunday excursions down the Potomac, with ladies, champagne and other fixins, in Government steamers and at Uncle Sam's expense. The above is not the first "gay old time" Vice President Hamlin and some of the Senators and Representatives from New England have been on, if newspapers tell the truth Gan Woon, at the same of the senators and Representatives from New England have been on, if newspapers tell the truth Gan Woon, at the same as glatation in Internation. Mr. Wright offered as substitute for the bill providing for an agricultural, statistical and commercial bureau. On motion of Mr. Fessenden, the bill was postponed and the Indian Appropriation bill was postponed and the Indian resentatives from New England have been on, if newspapers tell the truth. Gen. Wool, at Fortress Monroe, it is narrated, has forbidden these pleasure parties to land there, they have become such a nuisance. On some of the excursions Uncle Sam's big cannon shot and expensive mortar shells have been pretty freevalue. The state of the Whole on the Paoine Railroad bill, and considerable debate ensued, but without coming to a vote the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

PREE SPEECH-GOOD OUT OF EVIL The old saying that it is an ill wind that blows no one any good, is very clearly exemplified in egging and mobbing WENDELL PHILLIPS in Circinnati, for making a treasonable Abolition speech. As though touched by the wand of a magician the Republican papers everywhere were instantly converted to the doctrine of "free speech," We hope the conversion is a sound one and the converts prepared to go through life, without backsliding. We know of no two papers that have done more to destroy the freedom of speech and the press than the Gazette and Commercial of that city for a year past, and the gentlemen, whoever they may be, who brought about this sudden redemption from sin, of these two papers and hundreds of others, deserve the thanks of the people generally-not for what they did to the disunionist Phillips, but for the good they ac-complished in favor of "free speech," in bringing to our aid so many and so ably conducted papers.

We are very sorry that this conversion could not have been brought about in a more quiet way, but the greater the sinner the greater the noise 'at meetin' is very often the case. We heard a two days meeting preacher once tell a story of a pious old lady, who had a bad and stabborn son, who refused to kneel at prayer time. Getting out of all patience with her wicked, disobedient boy, just as the congregation was kneeling to pray, she hit her son under the ear with her fist and dropped him on his knees, when she cried out 'now see if you won't pray!' We thought then that this was a hard way of converting sinners, and we think so still, but if 'moral sussion' fails, something more effective, thought the old lady, must be used. The story went that the boy was ever after a good christian and a dutiful son. We hope fervently that the Gazette and Commercia will turn out the same, and never from this time forward, fail to cry out for 'free speech,' and we will sound the 'AMEN!' Some thirty years ago, we stood guard to prevent the boys from egging an abolition meeting; as we thought 'free speech' was a sacred right, to even sholitionists as much of we despised their doctrines. We lived to see these very abolitionists cry for our press and od, simply because we were exercising the right we guarded so sacredly for them, and for which they cried so lustily. We now, late as it is, are forced to the conclusion that we spent a fruitless night in putting our life in jeopardy for men, who, at the first instalment into power, belied every declaration they ever made, and proved from their numerous acts of despotic violence, that they were the most arrant hypocrites and traitors on earth. If the little incident therefore, in Cincinnati, has brought us all right again, God be praised for his great mercies, and hereafter let us all, with one mighty voice, cry out for free speech.' 'free press.' and no more bastiles for opinion's sake. A great storm purifies the stagnant atmosphere, and brings health and hilarity into the settlement.—Crisis.

EMANCIPATION BILL. The Boston Courier, speaking of the bill to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, says:

To us the bill appears only a provocation of wrath and bitterness. It is unfriendly to the professed policy of the Administration, and to the declared views of Congress. It is hos-tile to the wishes of those in the border States and elsewhere in the slave States, to whom we are constantly appealing as Union men. We ask them, and depend upon them, to aid us in restoring the Union—we know that without their aid, though we may defeat the troops of the Confederates, yet they will then yield only a forced and sullen obedience, just so long as it is convenient to do so—and, at the same moment we strike down a privilege which has always existed in the Union, and the deprivation of which we know will be deeply resented by every slave State. We do not thus take the right means to make the Union whole—nor act consistently with conciliatory feelings or sound policy. If our object is to divide it, or subjugate and hold the Southern territory by forts and garrisoned cities we might disregard everything but the forcible means of carrying our purpose out; but if such be not our object, we cannot rationally take a course which is to make enemies instead of friends.

SINGULAR CASE OF POLYGAMY.-The Killsdale (Mich.) Democrat says: "A young ms.n aged about twenty-four years, married a Miss Smith, of Coldwater, in this State, in November, 1860, and in a few months after he married a young lady in Kalamazoo. During this fall he married another young lady in Con-stantine, Sc. Joseph county, and in four months thereafter he again was wedded to a Miss Rowley, of Goshen, Ind, the daughter of a wealthy citizen, whom he induced to elope with him. The father becoming reconciled, sent for them, and a few doys ago became aware of the above facts, when he caused his villainous son-in-law to be lodged in jail. The last named young lady is represented as being very handsome and well educated, with an unblemished character. THANKSGIVING SERMONS IN NEW YORK-The New York Clergy on Lettres de Cachet and the Freedom of the Press.—The recommendation of the President to offer up thanks in the churches for the victories which have recently crowned our arms, was respected in this vicinity by all the religious sect. The occasion was improved, however, in many of the churches by the pastors protesting against the assumed disregard of civil rights manifested by the Government. The interference with the Press, and the imprisonment of citizens on suspicion, without warrant or trial, was expressly denounced by several noted clergymen. It would be well for Government t heed these significant indications of public opinion .- N. Y. World, April 14.

"THERE IS NO SUCH WORD AS PAIL." ARRANT'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF CUBEBS AND COPAIBA.

This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDICAL PROPESSION and the PUBLIC, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacious form, the well-established virtues and properties of Cubebs and Copalba. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annuals of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nauseous taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, nover found to interfers with the digestion, while, from its greater: on-centration, the dose is much reduced. It may be relied on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of both sexes to which they are applicable.

N. B.—Purchasers are advised to ask for TARRANTS COMPOUND EXTRACT OF CUBEBS AND COPAIBA, and to take nothing else—as imitations and worthless preparations, under similar names, are in the market. AYER'S Sarsaparilla FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cme of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors; Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Puntules, Blatches, Bells, Blains, and all Skin Diseases. Beilis, and all Skin Diseases.

J. C. Aver & Co. Gent: I See It my duty to exknowledge what your Savaparilla-has done from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst from it in Ulers on my hands and arms; sometimes it burst out in Ulers on my hand and covered my early and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathness beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to real in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Savaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnatiand got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fall off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the discase has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tall you, that I hold you to be one of the apostice of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of our Sarsparilla, and also a dangerous Malignami Erysipelar by large dose of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelar by it constantly.

Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes; "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellentative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Disease of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many invetarate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulcerations of the ulcrus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ale., writes, "A dangerous over on timor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Susaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but attirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains." Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ater: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarraparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Veneral and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphillite ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers headed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excurdating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy: consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Ayrer: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarasparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM. attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Expy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these farmidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space bere will not admit them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease. of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. It is unrivalled excellence for roughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
