THE PARSON SYREES AT BLUE-BELLIED YANKEES.

But we must sleep at the South with pistols under our pillows. Yes, that is the spirit, and these are the purposes of that class of Abolitionists, of which this gentleman has assumed to be the leader. * *

If none but blue-bellied Yankees and unmitigated Northern Abolitionists come down upon us, we shall sleep with nothing more terrific under our pillows than spike gimbles! If, however, at any time, an army of Abolitionists from the North shall conclude to make a descent on the South, and this gentleman accompanies the army, I will thank you to let me know which regiment he is in. And when "Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war."

The South, the Parson showed, was even richer than the North; that there were more free mulattes than the North; that there were more free mulattos than blacks in the North, while in the South there is but one mulatto to twelve blacks; that the South is but one mulatto to twelve blacks; that the South is more virtuous than the North; that crime and pauperism in the North greatly exceeded in proportion that of the South; that the morals and character of the negroes themselves are on a far higher grade in the slave States than in the free States, although surrounded, in the latter, by the relining, elevating influences of Black Republican society!

THE NORTH AN UNMITIGATED GENERATION OF HYPOCRIPES. CRITES.
In 1771, there was a slave depot established in lew York, in what is known as Wall street, and slaves captured on the Western coast of Africa were landed there by New England vessels, to supply the Southern market. About the same time another the Southern mirket. About the same time another slave depot was opened in the God-fearing and liberty-living city of Boston, near to where the "Franklin House" now stands! They kept but few of their captives among themselves, because it was not profitable to use negro labor in the cold and sterile regions of New England. And when they enacted laws in the New England States, abolishing slavery, they hurried their negroes round South. In enacted laws in the New England States, and suring slavery, they hurried their negroes round South, in sail vessels, and, sold them into bondage to Maryland, Virginia and the Carolinas, before their laws could go into operation! What an unmitigated could go into operation! What an unmitigated generation of hypocrites! They stole and sold into generation of hypocrites! They stole and sold into perpetual bondage a race of human beings it was not profitable to keep, and for whom they now, like so many graceless pirates, rotuse all warranty. And what lew American ships are in the trade now, at the peril of piracy, are Now England ships.

THE PIETY (?) OF THE ABOLITIONISTS.

I am personally acquainted with some of the Abolitionists of the North, connected with the Methodist Church; and although I suppose they are about as pious and reliable as Abolitionists of other denominations, I have but little confidence in their pious sympathies for Southern negroes. Their clergypious sympathies for Southern negroes. Their clergy-men will enter their fine churches on the Sabbath, preach and pray against the sin of slavery, shed their tears over the wrongs of the "servile progeny of Ham" in the South; and, on the next day, in a or ham. In the South, and, on the next day, in a purely business transaction, in a dry goods store, or a candy shop, in closing up a book account, they would cheat a Southern slave out of the powter that ornaments the head of his walking stick! But then, they have this redeeming quality, they would do it religiously, and in the sacred name of the Lord.

BROWNIOW'S CHININ OF CALBURY THE GREAT religiously, and in the sacred name of the Lord. BROWNLOW'S OPINION OF CALHOUN, THE GREAT

What next? A distinguished statesman and patriot, now no more, delivered a speech in the United States Senate, on the 4th of March, 1850, and it States Senate, on the 4th of March, 1850, and it was his dying speech, for he never spake thereafter. He was posted on the slavery question, in all its bearings; and for a quarter of a century, while in the public councils of the country, he watched the movements of parties with sleepless vigilance.—Speaking of the effect of the Abolition agitation upon the religious cords which assisted in holding the Union together, this dving statesman said: movements of parties with sleepless vigilance.— Speaking of the effect of the Abolition agitation upon the religious cords which assisted in holding the Union together, this dying statesman said: "The first of these cords which snapped under its explosive force (Abolitionism) was that of the pow-erful Methodist Episcopal Church. The numerous and strong ties which held it together are all broken, and its unity cone."

These were among the last words of that great and towering intellect, and tried patriot, John C. Calhoun, who literally died in Southern harness, battling for the rights of the South, under the Conbattling for the rights of the South, under the Constitution. A man of unblemished private character, a consistent member of the church, and a firm believe in the truths of the Bible, I hope, may, I believe, he has, found a calm and welcome retreat from the cares and anxieties of political strife, in the paradise of our God, where the harsh epithets and rude insults of unprincipled freedom-shriekers and falsehearted Abolitionists will never fall upon his ear! for that class of men, after death, never travel in the direction of God's habitation!

ABOLITIONISTS WILL NOT GO TO HEAVEN.

As churches at the South, we cannot affiliate with men who fight under the dark and piratical flag of Abolitionism, and whose infernal altars smoke with the vile incense of Northern fanaticism! I have no confidence in either the politician or the divine at the North, constantly engaged in the villainous agitation of the slavery question. There are true, reliable, conservative, pious and patriotic men in the North, and there are similar men in the South, who came from the North, but they are not among the graceless agitators. And if I find any of those agitators in Heaven—where I expect to go after death—I shalt conclude they have entered that world of joy by practicing a gross fraud upon the ABOLITIONISTS WILL NOT GO TO HEAVEN. world of joy by practicing a gross fraud upon the work or joy by practicing a gross trand upon the door-keeper.

SLAVERY THE CORNER STONE.

I endorse, without reserve, that much-abused sentiment of an eminent Southern statesman, now no more, Governor McDuffie, that "slavery is the corner stone of our republicing edifice;" while I repudiate, as ridiculously abused, that much lauded, but nowhere accredited dogma of Thomas Jefferson's, that "all men are born equal." God never intended to make the negro the equal of the white man, either morally, mentally or physically.

THE PARSON PRAISES PRESTON S. BROOKS.

Work on, brother Pryne, in the good cause—there is a good time coming, and I hope you may be there to see it! The gentleman's denunciation of the late Mr. Brooks, of South Carolina, and his application of the term ruffian to him, were in very bad taste, since that gifted and brave man is in his grave, and has been for a length of time. Preston S. Brooks was an honorable, generous and high-minded gentleman; and he who says otherwise is the slanderer of the dead, and the perpetrator of a falsehood unworthy of a professor of the Christian religion!

BROWNLOW PROPOSES TO TURN MISSIONARY.

The cities and towns, and many of the interior settlements, in the New England and northwestern States of this Confederacy, in my honest judgment, open a wider and more inviting field, at this time, for honest, faithful, evangelical missionary labors than Hindostan, Siam, Ceylon, China or Western Africa; for the reason, too, that the natives of these benighted lands, who have been denied the light of the blessed Gospel, cannot be held to as rigid an accountability, in the next life, as those who see the the blessed Gospel, cannot be held to as rigid an ac-countability, in the next life, as those who see the light, like the Free Soil population of the North, and still love and do the deeds of darkness! I and still love and do the deeds of darkness! I seriously contemplate getting up a missionary organization to be styled: "The Missionary Society of the South, for the Conversion of the Freedom Shriekers, Spiritualists, Free Lovers, Fourierites and Infidel Reformers of the North."

Christian masters and slaves of the glorious South cannot remain guiltless, in a coming day, if they fold their arms and look idly on at the heart-sickening speciacle now presented by—not their brethers

ing spectacle now presented by—not their brethren
—but their fellow creatures of the North, and do nothing to turn them from their abominations! In addition to their wicked and rebellious course upon the slavery question, they have forsaken, to a very great extent, the true God and the Christian religion and gone after Spiritualism, Abolitionism, Fanny Wrightism, Rourierism, Maymonism, Fanny great extent, the true tood and the Christian religion and gone after Spiritualism, Abolitionism, Fanny Wrightism, Fourierism, Mormonism, Free Loveism, and the hundred and one isms so spontaneously produced by the soil of New England! True, the path of a Southern missionary in the midst of the isms, cruelties and crimes of the North, enforcing morality and honesty, would not be strewed with flowers.

THE PARSON AGAIN WARNS THE ABOLITIONISTS. In conclusion, I am no alarmist; I am no spiritual dreamer; I am no prophet nor am I the son of a prophet; but allow me to say, there exists among the villainous agitators of the slavery question at the North, a determination to doom to utter extinction but the rights and institutions. both the rights and institutions of the South. It is quite impossible that the signs of the times can be misconstrued. A dissolution of the Union is what a large portion of the Northern Abolitionists are aiming at. No longer ago than the 4th of August, 1858, the "Liberty Party," as they style themselves, held a Convention at Syracuse, and nominated Gerrit Emith for Governor. My friend, Rev. Abram Pryne, figured largely in that meeting. He was the Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, and, of course, wrote, as well as reported, what was adopted. I quote one of his resolutions, adopted with great colat by the Convention:

"Resolved, That American slavery is a crime against God and man, of such matchless magnitude that no forms of law can change its infernal character—no limitations or restrictions of its territory or ter—no limitations or restrictions of its territory or its power can reconcile us to its continued existence; but we raise our voices in the name of God and hu-manity to demand its eradication from every foot of the soil of our country."

manity to demand its eradication from every foot of the soil of our country."

I can tell the gentlemen, and all who are of like resolution, that if their great grand-children live to see "American." Slavery eradicated from the States South, where it now is, by the sanction of law and the provisions of our Constitution, as well with the approbation of God Himself, they will live until their heads are as grey as a Norwegian rat. We came honestly by our slaves at the South—we are teaching them as the law of God directs—and before we will have them seized and carried off by Abolitionists, we will pour out our blood as freely as we would water. The South is able to take care of herself, and she intends to do it, at all' hazards, and to the last extremity. to the last extremity. * * * * *

* And when your blue-bellied Yankees come South, with "Sharp's rines and Holy Bibles," to seize upon our slaves, let me say to you that they will not find themselves in Kansas.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.-The New York Leader, in commenting upon the Address of

" Let no one have any anxiety about the future of the Democratic party. It will exist just as surely as will the Union and the Constitution; for its mission to defend and preserve both, must continue as long as they. maintained; and as auspiciously and as triumphantly, if we make less parade of party hibboleths at the present time. The upheav ings of the crisis, through which we are now assing, brings many changes and new duties. Between the Sectionalism of the South, ranged in armed bands for our national destruction and the fanaticism of the North, seeking the same result by the incendiary torch, there is a great Conservative power ready to resist and vercome both of those traitorous factions.

This Conservative power consists mainly of the Democracy of the North and the Union men of the South. The Democracy of the South-we speak more especially leaders—having given themselves to treason, can no more enter into future organizations, than can the cotton they have burned in their madness and folly, be woven into a texture The Republicans of the North, not having had, as a general thing, the wisdom and patriotism to relieve themselves from com plicity with Sunner and Grines, Lovejoy and Stevens, and their co-traitors, will inevitably share their fate."

THE TAX BILL.

An Exciting Discussion in the Senate The Internal tax bill again came up as the pecial order, on Friday.

Mr. Anthony, of Rhode Island, moved to Mr. ANTHONY, of Rhode Island, moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday evening by which a tax of $2 per head was put upon slaves; or, upon each person as slave. The service or islaw of a person as slave. The Mr. Cowan, of Pennsylvania, urged that taxation must go hand in hand with representation, and all knew how the slaves were epresented under the Constitution. That was the fundamental principle of the Amerian revolution, and to depart from it now was to assail the Constitution and disregard the air bargain of the fathers of different sections for the benefit of a united country. Mr. C. spoke at length and declared he thought that any man who wanted to get rid of the bargain ought to say at once he was no Union man. He urged that the measure would bear on loyal men unjustly in the slave States, and as to the $2 per head, he did not believe that was the object. The purpose, he was sorry to believe, was something else; and yet the men who would impose this tax would free the slaves of rebels and thus destroy this source of taxation. These opinions he should freely express: should reproach the Senate. be dictatorial as some say-be dogmatic.-that was the word if need he.

Mr. WADE, of Ohio, (in his seat)-all but Mr. Cowan, after a pause-when the honorable Senator has settled a little account with his colleague in the other House, it may be for me to notice that kind of remark. Until then he will excuse me.

Mr. Cowan continued, asserting the freedom of debate, and said that when he said he intended to be dogmatic, he meant that he intended to express his own opinion firmly.

Mr. Wade responded warmly, denouncing the lecturing of the Senate and the reproach ing members with doing unconstitutional things. He regarded it as presumption, especially in a person from the backwoods of Pennsylvania. He had never heard of the gentleman as a great constitution expounder. When they were to be lectured he desired that it should come from one who had authority for such a course. He spoke of Mr. C. having opposed confiscation, the tax on cotton, &coterming him the "watch dog of slavery," which he had a right to be. He went on to advocate the tax as especially proper as striking the disloyal, as all slaveholders are, and on a property held legally, but in violation of a great higher law.

Mr. Cowan remarked that he might be a very humble individual, and might be inexri enced and unknown: but he was here as the representative of Pennsylvania, representing three millions of people, and was not going to apologize for his people, for his inexperience or his youth. He never understood that age and long service here would sanctify folly or give character to billingsgate. If the Senator who made an unwarrantable attack upon him can reconcile that conduct to his own conscience and sense of propriety, he was content to leave it there. He was here from his State to assist in preserving the Constitution and restoring the Union, and if he defended the South in that duty and resisted projects which he considered wrong, he had nothing to

After further debate, the vote was taken on the reconsideration of the vote taxing slaves which was carried-yeas 22, nays 18 The question then recurred on the adoption of the amendment proposing to tax persons claiming the labor or services of slaves two dollars each for every person so claimed. Howe moved to amend so as to except those under 10 years and over 65 years.

The amendment for imposing the was then rejected—yeas 17, nays 23—as follows: YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Chandler, Clark, Fessenden, Foote, Grimes, Harlan, Howard, Howe, King, Morrill, Simmons, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson and Wilmot—17.

Mr. Fessenden then addressed the Senate

Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.

THE TWO SIDES OF THE NORTH CAROLINA QUESTION. The peace policy of the Administration, as shown in the action of Governor Stanly at this place, is going on splendidly. The abolitionists are finding considerably more difficulty in making their living under Governor Stanly than under General Burnside. Since the arrival of this discreet, conservative and firm-minded man, we have had four successive acts of bold policy, which if he does nothing more, will more than repay the Government for sending him here, These acts may be enumerated thus:

First-Closing the school for the negroes. These schools were the cause of the most intense annoyance to the large number of faithfully loyal men of Newbern. Never before the arrival of that crazy abolitionist, dubbed with the title of "Doctor" Colyer, was there such a thing heard of as a negro learning to read.— The impudence of a wooly headed urchin running up to a white boy and saying "Aha, I am learning to read, too," which is now heard constantly, was never thought of. More than one of our old citizens have been heard to declare that if it was not for the military "that fellow that taught them would have his neck stretched." Your correspondent has alluded to it before, but altogether too mildly. all this was brought to a close on Wednesday by Governor Stanly very quietly hinting to Colyer that there was a law of North Carolina that made such a teacher as he liable to six months in the State prison, and telling him that it would be a necessity laid upon him as Governor to apply that law to friend Colyer, if complaint should chance to be made against him. The result was, "Brother" C. closed his schools, amid many wailings, lamen tations, sobbings, rubbings of noses, &c., to say nothing of extra smells and perfumes, that evening.

Second—The next good rap the Governor gave this class of abolitionists was to make them return the stolen negroes they were harboring in their houses and trying to run North. Nicholas Bray, a man of mild and gentlemanly deportment, applied to Governor Stanly for redress, he having lost two darkey women, one a very lively-looking brunette, of the fourteen Democratic members of Congress rapturous sixteen, for whom a man famous for his fraternization ideas had offered the nice fat sum of $1500. The Governor at once helped Bray, and told him to take his property wherever he could find it. He did so at once, carrying one home in his barouche, although she feigned sickness, and giving Colyer's resting place a good overhauling for the

That night, however, a party of volunteer soldiers from one of the Massachusetts regiments-free love rights men-and true to their principles, went to this poor man's house, broke open his door, frightened his senitive wife because she had heroically assisted her husband in the capture of his property, stole once more his slave girl, set fire to his house and then decamped.

The next day the Governor sent word to all the Captains in port that if they took away a single negro North their ships, on their return to Newbern, would be confiscated. The same afternoon H. H. Helper, who has been a constant hanger on to the army ever since its arrival here, and getting his living out of the fat crib of the United States Government, pretending to be on secret service burning bridges, &c., wrote an impudent letter to the Governor, presuming to criticise his conduct for the beforementioned acts. For this he was very quietly requested to report himself in New York as soon as possible, Dan GEN. McClellan.—The correspondent of moments. And yet, since Mariborough won the battle of Blenheim, that most decisive struggle of the last century, there has not been a campaign carried on under such difficulties; or so clogged by political intrigues and official jealousies, as this advance on Richmond.

was never brighter or more hopeful. A few more such good moves on the part of the Administration as the appointment of Governor Stanly, and we shall have a happy return to peace. The old States, seeing the great mispace. The old States, seeing the great mispace of their ways, and all would be well.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Pob. 4, 1856. DR. AFER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her akin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ARA MORGRIDGE. As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Curturight, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of discase. Headache, SickHeadache, Foul Stomach.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Bro. Aven: I cannot answer you what complaints
I have circed with your Fills better than to say all that we erer treat with a purpative medicine. I place great depardence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Fills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Dr. J. C. Aven. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headachs any body can have by a dose or two of your Fills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect,

Cirk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders - Liver Complaints. From Dr. Theodors — Liver Computations

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Size: I have used your Fills in my general and hoseled practice over since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bitious disease so obstitute that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhoa, Relax, Worms. Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in eateem as one of the best aperionts I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bitious dynentery and diarrheea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children. Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pustor of Advent Church, Boston.
Dr. Ayen: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.
From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreel, Conada.

Too much cannot be said of your Fills for the cure of cottoners. If Others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe cosfiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleans the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend on the two restricts of the commend of the present of the property of the present of the property of the present of the property of the present of other to my patients HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excriciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rhennatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grow worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzle, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

TARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTERPERATION OF 1862 MCOORMICK'S WORLD-RENOWING REAPER AND MOWER. Simplicity, strength, durability, with case of working, are its cardinal points. It cuts wider, cannot be choked or clogged, is light draught, has no perceptible side pressure, does not chafe the horses necks, is easy to rake from, turns equare convers, and as a Reaper, as a Mower, and as both, is warranted superfor to any now in use. We present, therefore, for the coming season a machine one foot wider than those of most makers, with a light draught for two horses, in reaping and mowing—lighter than is required for much narrower machines; also, one with the strength and capacity for four horses, where such are desired. The machine of 1805 cm bodies marked improvements.

All machines warranted to work well in grass and grain, to be well made and durable, and in addition we say that to be well made and durable, and in addition we say that farmers, who may desire it, are at liberty to work our machine through the harvest with any other, and keep and pay for the one preferred. We deem it unnecessary to give any references, as the machine will recommend theelt—Apply personally or by letter to.
