AMY WENTWORTH.

Her fingers shame the ivory keys They dance so light along; The bloom upon her parted lips Is sweeter than the song.

O perfumed suitor, spare thy smiles ! Her thoughts are not of thee: She better loves the salted wind, The voices of the sea.

Her heart is like an outbound ship That at its anchor swings; The murmur of the stranded shell Is in the song she sings.

She sings, and, smiling, hears her praise But dreams the while of one Who watches from his sea-blown deck The icebergs in the sun.

She questions all the winds that blow And every fog-wreath dim, And bidst the sea-birds flying north Bear messages to him.

She speeds them with the thanks of men He periled life to save, And grateful prayers like holy oil To smoothe for him the wave.

Brown Viking of the fishing smack ! Fair toast of all the down ! The skippers jerkin ill beseems The lady's silken gown !

But ne'er shall Amy Wentworth wear For him the blush of shame, Who dares to set his manly gifts Against her ancient nam

The stream is brightest at its spring, And blood is not like wine; Nor honored less than he who heirs Is he who founds a line.

Full lightly shall the prize be won, ove be Fortune's spur And never maiden stoops to him Who lifts himself to her.

Her home is brave in Jaffrey street With stately stairways worn By feet of old Colonial knights And ladies gentle-born.

Still green about its ample porch English ivy twine Trained back to show in English oak The herald's carven signs

And on her, from the wainscot old, Ancestral faces frown,— And this has worn the soldier's sword, And that the judge's gown.

But, strong of will and proud as they, She walks the gallery-floor As if she trod her sailor's deck By stormy Labrador !

The sweet brier blooms on Kittery-side, And green are Elliot's howers; Hor garden is the pebbled beach, The mosses are her flowers.

She looks across the harbor-bar To see the white guils fly, His greeting from the Northern sea Is in their clanging cry.

She hums a song, and dreams that he, As in its romance old, Shall homeward ride with silken sails And masts of beaten gold !

Oh, rank is good, and gold is fair, And high and low mate ill; But love has never known a law

Three years were now passed since the day of the first kiss, when the young man was allowed to give a second kiss to the daughter of the governor.

He became, after, one of the greatest among the works of science; and from this happy union sprang a family well known in Sweden even at the present time, and whose wealth and high position in society are regarded as trifles in comparison with its wealth, goodness and love.

Success in Life.

That practical ' Brick ' of the Lacrosse (Wisconsin) Democrat, who 'does up' practical philosophy in his lectures Valter, 'bits the nail on the head in the following logical directions how to succeed in life:
