HORRIBLE MURDER -The Springfield, Massachusetts, Republican, of the 11th inst., has the following account of the murder of a mother and her two children at Otis, Hamp shire county:

One of the most brutal and revolting mur ders that has ever been recorded in this part of the State, has come to light in Oris. The circumstances, so far as known, are these: About noon on Sunday, the wife of George Jones, twenty-two years of age and her two children, a girl two, and a boy four years old, left home to gather berries. Not returning by evening a search was instituted which was continued through Sunday night without suc-On Monday the dead bodies of the mother and her children were discovered hidden by leaves in the woods. The person of the mother had been grossly outraged, and her brains knocked out, evidently from a blow with a club. The heads of the children were also broken in, and their bodies concealed near each other. As yet there is no clue to the mystery, although suspicion is fastened, somewhat, upon a party of negroes.

Good FOR MAINE, - The Maine election resulted far more auspiciously than we had any reason to expect or than the first returns indi Our friends there have done nobly and have abundant cause for satisfaction and encouragement. They have reduced the popular maj city against them nearly two thirds; have elected a member of Congress in the first district, Hon. L D M SWEAT, of Portland, and have greatly reduced the Republican majority in both branches of the Legislature -S's majority is nearly 200, where the Re publicates had a large majority last year. Their majority in the State last year was 16. 575; now it will not be over 6 000, probably. Another such a victory would place the Republicans in a hopeless minority, where they are sure to go next year.

DUTY ON BOOTS AND SHOES -The following extract of a letter from Hon George S Bouts well. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, explains some points in the Tax act, as to the duty levied upon hoote and thoes, which have occasioned some difficulty:

This fiendish remark was received with loud shouts of applause by the crowd around him. What could be better calculated to discourage enlistments than such a speech, yet we do not hear that he has been arrested for that offence. HARRISSURG, Sept. 17.

A despatch just received at hesdquarters from Hagerstown, says we have achieved a giorious victory after a great battle.

Gen. Longstreet was not killed, but wounded and taken prisoner.
Gen, Hooker, of the Federal army, was wounded in the foot.
No particulars of the battle have yet been received, but it is understood that the carnage on both sides was awful.

Battle of Wednesday.

The battle of Wednesday exceeded, in extent and severity, any battle herstofore fought on this continent.

The hattie of Wednesday exceeded, in extent and severity, any battle heretofore fought on this continent.

At dawn of day Hooker and Sumner, commanding respectively the right and centre, commenced the battle, and atter a terrible contest of two hours drove the rebels about a mile. They, nowever, railied, and regained most of the ground, but at a great sacrifice of title. At this time Hooker was about in the ankle, and ten. Euchardson was severely wounded.

The command then devolved to then. Sumner, who immediately ordered an advance, and not only retook the less ground, but drove the rebels a quarter of a mile beyond. In this action tien. Mansfield was shot through the lungs and soon after died.

Burnside and Porter drove the enemy from the line of the Anti tam creek, on the main road to Sharpsburg, and, having built a bridge, (the old one having oeen burnt by the rebels,) occupied the opposite bank. The loss here was considerable.
