Hardstown, with every prospect of a general engagement.

Frankfork, October 9.

General Dumont surprised the rebels, at 3 o'clock this morning, by attacking the guard on the turnplke bridge with such vigor that they were unable to destroy the bridge as they intended. Six Confederates were left dead and fifteen wounded. Several wounded were carried off, but the darkness prevented a correct estimate of the number. Our loss in killed was three; no wounded or prisoners. The rebel force consisted of six hundred cavalry and two regiments of infantry.

Presynthe, October 8.

Bragg's rebel army attacked two divisions of Gen McCook's corps de armee, near this place, yesterday. The fighting was desperate. Gen. James 5. Jackson, ex-Congressman, of Kentucky, commanding a division, was killed. Gen. Terrell; of Virginia, commanding a brigade, formerly of Terrell's battery, was severely wounded. On two occasions the fighting was hand to hand. The rebels were greatly supertor in numbers, and had the best of the fight.—

Gen. McCook was then heavily reinforced; and the battle was renewed to-day. The fighting was mainly done by Gen. Rossean's division, formerly Gen. Mitchell's. Col. George Webster, acting Brigadier General, was severely wounded. The firing ceased about seven o'clock this evening.

A doubtful runger asys that at the close of the engagement the rebels had possession of part of the field.

Louisville. October 9. Later advices from Perryville report 6en. Sheridan, of Illinois, as killed, but this is doubtful. Our loss is stated at 2,000 killed and wounded. A general attack is expected immediately by our troops. The rebej loss is unascertained. The Battle at Perryville.

The Battle at Perryville.

Louisville, October 9.

The battle at Perryville commenced yesterday morning, the rebels attacking Buell's advance in great force. An artillery fight continued most of the day, with no great results.

Later in the day, Gen. Buell's troops, having-secured a good position, advanced and drove the rebels back. No definite particulars have yet been received. received.

It is reported at Gen. Boyle's headquarters that Generals Rosseau and Jackson, commanding the Federal divisions, were killed, but this is not credited. THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMA-

GENERAL ORDER ISSUED BY GEN. M'CLELLAN.

GENERAL ORDER ISSUED BY GEN. M'CLELLAN.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

CAMP NEAR SHARPSBURG, Md., Oct. 7th, 1882.

The attention of the officers and soldiers of the Army of the Potomac is called to General Orders, No. 132, War Department, Sept. 24th, 1862, publishing to the army the President's proclamation of Sept. 22d. A proclamation of Sept. 22d. A proclamation of Sept. 27d. A proclamation of Sept. 27d. A proclamation of such grave moment to the nation, officially communicated to the army, affords to the Graneral commanding an opportunity. affords to the General commanding an opportunity of defining especially to the officers and soldiers un-der his command the relation borne by all persons in the military service of the United States towards the civil authorities of the Government. The Con-stitution confides to the civil authorities, legislative, stitution confides to the civil authorities, legislative, judicial and executive, the power and duty of making, expounding and executing the U. S. laws.— Armed forces are raised and supported simply to sustain the civil authorities, and are to be held in strict subordination thereto in all respects. This fundamental rule of our political system is essential to the security of our republican institutions, and should be thoroughly understood and observed by every soldier. The principle upon which and the objects for which armies shall be employed in suppressing rebellion must be determined and declared by the civil authorities and the Chief Executive, who is charged with the administration of the national is charged with the administration of the national affairs, is the proper and only course through which the views and orders of the Government can be nade known to the armies of the nation. Discussion made known to the armies of the nation. Discussion by officers and soldiers concerning public measures determined upon and declared by the Government, when carried beyond the ordinary temperate and respectful expression of opinion, tends greatly to impair and destroy the discipline and efficiency of the troops, by substituting the spirit of political faction for that firm, steady and earnest support of the authority of the Government, which is the highest duty of the American soldier.

The remedy for political errors, if any are committed, is to be found only in the action of the peo-mitted, is to be found only in the action of the peo-ple at the polls. In thus calling the attention of this army to the true relation between the soldiers and the Government, the General commanding ple at the polls. In thus can be tween the solutions and the Government, the General commanding merely adverts to an evil against which it has been thought advisable during our whole history to guard the armies of the ropublic, and in so doing he will not be considered by any right-minded person as casting any reflection upon that loyalty and good conduct which have been so fully illustrated upon so many battle-fields.

In carrying out all measures of public policy this army with, of course, be guided by the same rules of meroy and Christianity that have ever controlled its conduct towards the defenceless.

By command of Maj. Geon. McClellan.

ARREST AND BRUTAL TREATMENT OF GEORGE

FRANCIS TRAIN. We give elsewhere in our paper a brief account of the Charles Sumner Meeting, held in Fancuil Hall, yesterday at noon. It was one of the most extraordinary gatherings that ever convened in that famous old Temple, and..can hardly add to the credit of the city or the good sense of the people. During his speech, Mr. Sumner specially challenged criticism; but no sooner was this accepted on the part of some of his hearers, than the meeting utterly refused to hear a response. Free speech, such as had been invited, was not permitted. The friends of Mr. George Francis Train, who with him had remained quietly for two mortal hours listening imner, thought it only fair that he should be heard; and this, too, after the Sum per ovation had actually come to an end. But such a seemingly fair and just proceeding was

Mr. Train, after much peril and difficulty, reached the platform, but was seized in the roughest manner by the police and others. He succeeded several times in clearing himself from these incumbrances, but was a last overpowered and taken from the hall by the pasage in rear of the platform. Even without any covering to his head, he was taken thence, to Police Station 2, followed by a large crowd.

Mr Train remained at the Station House till 6 o'clock, employing the time chiefly in writing a scorching review of Mr. Sumner's speech. While there, his friends assembled in large numbers, in Court Square, honoring him with cheers and various demonstrations of an probation. The rough usage to which he had been subjected did not appear to greatly dis-turb his equanimity, though a natural indignation was apparent in his look and manner He could hardly have expected in his native city of Boston treatment so base and brutal as this; and it can hardly fail to rebound pon the authors of it. Had Mr. Sumner's friends been as fair as their champion desired, and permitted a free and open discussion of his arguments, there would have been no trouble or disturbance whatever. Still further: after the meeting was over and adjourned, had Mr. Train heer allowed to speak, all would have been well, But nothing of this sort was permitted. stead of this, he was rudely seized and more rudely hustled off to the receptacle of felons and similar characters, his person outraged, and himself grossly insulted. And this first in Fancuil Hall, the " Cradle of Liberty," the boasted temple of free speech, and next in the public streets of Boston, where citizens are supposed to be free.—Boston Post, October 7.

AFRAID THE WAR MAY END-The following from the N. Y. Anti-Slavery Standard illus trates the spirit which animates the radical party:

"We cannot think that there is any applica ble ground for fear that the rebels, warned of the impending fate of the diabolical institution for which they have made war, will 'lay down the weapons of their rebellion' before the end of 'the days of grace' accorded them by the President: and thus drag the North into a renewal of 'the covenant with death and the agreement with hell,' which has been the source of all our woes. If the President had issued such a proclamation one year ago, there might indeed have been some danger of such a dis graceful termination of the war."

ANECDOTE OF BISHOP WAUGH .- The late Bishop WAUGH, of the M. E. Church, when young, was eloquent. He once preached an anti-slavery sermon. There wa venerable Quaker, who addressed Mr. WAUGH at the close, saying, "Friend Waugh, thee preaches well against slavery. When thee comes again, will thee preach the remedy?" The nail was struck directly on the head and took full effect. The Rev. gentleman de-cided afterwards to preach the Gospel of Christ and let slavery alone, except so far as preach ing the Gospel equally to the master and the slave. Would that ministers of the Gospel generally would go and do likewise .- Journal of Commerce.

OARD.—Having recovered my health offer the hardships of a water campaign in the Cavairy service, I have again volunteered to take the field against our common fee. The Governor having authorized me, as Captain, to raise a select Troop of Cavairy under the late requisition of the War Department, bearing date of July 29th and August 14th, 1862, holding out inducemouts to the patriotic and brave, superior to former orders, I would appeal to the young and middle-eged active men of Lancaster City and County to rise up with renewed energy, and help to crush out the defiant rebels. Fellow cittizens, they are now assailing the gates of our flate—the time is at hand for desperate action—action defensive and offensive—soon it may be too late.

I want strong hands and willing hearts—brave men that will do the State some service—that will measure the steel of Union and Justice against the steel of Rebellion and Treason.

TOXCELENDER BURR STONE MILLS.

(FOR FARMERS AND MILLERS.)

Took Ten First Premiums at Western State Fairs las Took Ten First Premiums at Western State Fairs last year, and are justly considered superior to all others. The Mill may be driven by horse, water or steam power, does its work as well as the flat stone mills in milling establishments, and requires but one-half the power to drive the largest izes. They are very compact, perfectly simple, and for farm use will last Thirty Years, and cost nothing for PRICES-$100, $140 and $170.

has proved itself to be the best ever invented. The friction is reduced by IRON BALLS, so arranged in all the bearings, that the whole weight of the castings runs upon them. THREE POUNDS DRAUGHT, at the end of a ten feet lever, will keep the power is motion! thus permitting the entire strength of the horses to be used on the machine to be driven. One horse will do as much work on this power as two on the endless Chain Power. It is port able and may be used in the field as well as in the house. More than Twenty-Five Per Cent. of horse flesh is saved over any other power in use. It is simple in construction, and not liable to get out of order.

THE $125 POWER WILL DRIVE ANY THRESHING MACHINE. EVERY MACHINE IS GUARANTEED TO GIVE SATIS FACTION, OR THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

L. BAUM, No. 31 North Queen street. Lancaster, September 9, 1862. 3m 35 M A N H O O D;

The world-renowed author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequence of Self-Abuse may be removed without medicine, and without daugerous surgical operations, bougles instruments, rings, or cordials, poluting out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheapily, privately, and radically. This lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
