PHILAD ELPHIA CORRESPONDENCE

FULL DIMPETS, November 5th, 1862.

MESSES, Exproses: There will be no draft in this city. Our people were justify indignant at the attempte of the proofs given by Col. Raft, the U.S. Mustering Officer, that our quota was more than filled. The accuse of the commissioners that their conforment didn't show it, could't and wouldn't satisfy on citizens, and so last week, in those preclucts that were apportioned as having the largest numbers of men to be raised, committees were formed to ready the commissioners that were apportioned as having the largest numbers of men to be raised, committees were formed to ready the commissioners that were apportioned as having the largest numbers of men to be raised, committees were formed to be raised, committees were formed to be raised, committees were formed to have been callated in one-half of the city. The Commissioners that mornal passed down gracefuly and publish officially the notice that there will be no draft in Philadelphia, the quest being filled.

The lion of the city just now, (there's a new one nearly years of he gag. [Dr. McC. was a native of the property week) is the camp for the drafted men from arrounding counties, about two thousand or for the drafted will be noticed that there will be not from the manner in which will be apposed to think so from the manner in which will be apposed to the draft.

A very pleasant sketch of J.-II Davis is given in the jast of (September) number of "blackweed's Magazine" It gives a southern riew of the man, of course, but it tells some hard truths against the radical politicians who declare that the South is alone to blame for this war. We wish every man in the country could read the article. There is another paper in the number relating to our country, and all the contents in fact are exceedingly entertaining. Blackwood is still an able, authoritative journal.

The "Westminster Review" is also full of agreeable and instructive artilles. One on Celebrated Literary Friendships will attract those who love to trace the entracteristics of favorite authors. We have been charmed with this article. The Dawn of Athimal Life, though addressed to accionifie readers, will interest all, as will also the articles on Pite, Sir Wm. Hamilton, and the resume of Contemporary Literature. The American public is much indebted to Mesers, Leanard Sc tt & Co. for their cheap and valuable reprint of these reviews.

To a host of readers the most interesting literary announcement of the someon will be the new book, "Miriam." by Marion finitund, author of Abone. The Hidden Path, etc. Messra, Sheldon & Co., New York, rubblish this new doved this week, five thyosand copies of the work having keen ordered in advance of the publication day. There is no disparting the popularity of Marion Haiband. Over one hundred and twenty the u-and copies of her tomer works have been soud, and their sale instead of diminishing, increases. We have read Miriam archity. It is a novel of the school as that beautiful story by Miss Wethered, Sav and Seat. The seems of Miriam is Kentucky, but not on its dark and blood by days. Parish life, or village life, is unfolded in attractive guies, and the amount of the pub and vigor of the original; and all readers should get D & F's edition. It is published in the cheap pamphlet form, but is well printed.

Ten editions of Major Winthrop's last posthumous novel, Edwin Brothertoff," have airrady been published by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields. Boston. Winthrop blasself regarded this as his best work, and the public is endersing his vertier, aithough everybody had previously surrendered to Ceell breame and John Breat. Winthrop was a forcible and to ordinal writer, and his prominent character sticks are northed in Edwin Brothertoff. It is gracefully written, though with moreh for e and directness; is bright, sparking and saccept, overthwing with whand the most delightful hum r; and its graphe delinations and vigor ons sketches of stirring times the some is laid during the Revolution) it will result the popular tisse exactly, reader should fall to read this work of the languard. The Jamous Bothe of Topering Vusible, the peem beautiful "The Jamous Bothe of Topering Vusible, the peem beautiful for the late white was widely read and nonared, is included to this volume, together with all his boattly and minor pieces, making this the first complete official of his wirks, with the author's final reviewors. The volume is one of the marked highliful in the whole bue and gold library.

The never wearying Dumas is again before the public in a very good novel, "The Twin They cleants," just published in the cheap pumphiet form by T. B. Peterson & Brothers of this city. This story is full of tunnar's peculiarities, and is one of the best he has written. It is a minitary story, and in that respect will suit popular taste new precisely. Napoleou's campaigns in Russia and Austria are freated as Dumas alone knows how, and the story rat the through from beatining to end like discharges of musketry, quick and in sessant. Commend us to Dumas for a man who can't lag in his recivis.

From the same press we have a reprint of a very line Enclish story. "Marxing for Monor" which redwith.

cited people came into the town, surrounded the jail, forced open the doors, and took the prisoner out and hung him. While he was suspended, fifteen bullets perforated his body. He was then taken down when his throat was out by the infuriated mob, and his body dragged through the streets. It was finally taken to the front of the negro church, where it was out to pieces and burned.

Hope for Iowa .- A letter from Des Moines Oct. 30th, says Martin, Dem., is certainly elected to Congress from the Fourth District, over Crinnell. This correspondent remarks: "The State has most probably gone Republican by about twelve hundred on the home vote, which is a Democratic gain of about 12,-000 on Lincoln's vote in 1860. We only want another year for political redemption. would have effected it in this but for the frauds of which we were made the victim in the taking of the soldiers' vote."

MAN AND WIFE TO BE HUNG .- Richard Aylward and his wife Ann have been condemned to death at Belleville. Upper Canada, having been convicted of the murder of a man named Munro, for the sake of obtaining money which it was supposed the deceased had in his pocket. The prisoners are ordered to be executed on the 8th of December.

Enough of treasure and blood have already been spent upon the negro question. I am fully persuaded that the unwise and untimely agitation of this subject gives strength to the rebellion, and will cost millions of treasure and thousands of lives; and that there is no hope for anything else but to restore the Union as it was and the Constitution as it is. That all efforts for anything else must end in abortion, anarchy and dissolution.

CUBEBS AND COPAIBA. This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDICAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIQ, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacious form, the well-established virtues and properties of Guebas and Copabas. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all EXYUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annais of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nouseous taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfere with the digestion, while, from its greater concentration, the dose is much reduced. It may be relied on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of both sexes to which they are applicable.

THE PATENT STAMP-SEALING AND POST-MARK PRESERVING ENVELOPE.

The preservation on the letter itself of the POST-MARK and POSTAGE-STAMP, generally destroyed with the detached cover, has long been deemed a matter of the first importance. This desideratum is now triumphantly secured by this ingenious invention. Many obvious advantages must arise from the general use of this envelope.

First—Increased Safety by additional sealing; the stamp connecting the envelope and letter securely together; and this is never liable to be omitted, though the sticking of the flap is frequently neglected or imperfectly done.

Scond—Security against Impertinent Intrusion; the letter and envelope being firmly attached by the stamp, and inclosure cannot be inspected even if the flap be clay and destinely opened.

Third—Safety against Abstraction of Valuable Inclosure Cannot be inspected even if the flap be clay.

Scond—Security against Imperthent Intrusion; the letter and anvelope being firmly attached by the stampe, and inclosure cannot be inspected even if the flap be clandestinely opened.

Third—Safety against Abstraction of Valuable Inclosures. If the flap be left unsealed, or opened with felonious intent, it will be impossible to open the letter and take thence bank notes and drafts without so mutilating the nevelope as to insure detection.

Furth—Security for the free payment of the Postage; as the stamp, when once properly pigned in this window, cannot be removed without its destruction.

Fifth—Advantage therefore to the Government; by the effectual destruction of every stamp in its first use.

Sixth—Facility to the Post Office Departions; by a uniform location of the stamp in the upper right hand corner, which is the most convenient position for the Post Office mark.

Scenth—Verification of the Mailing; by securing on the letter itself the legal crudence of the time and place of it being mailed. This has long been esteemed so desirable, that many prudent persons are constrained to dispense with the use of envelopes, that they may have the post mark on the letter; and others take the precaution to plus the envelope again on the letter for identification.

Fighth—Certainty of the Date and Place on the Letter, which are so frequently omitted by writers in carelessness or hurry.

Ninth—Ornamentation; which, though some may think

CODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1862. J GREAT LITERARY AND PIOTORIAL YEAR.
The publisher of Godsy's Lady's Book, thankful to that ublic which has enabled him to publish a magazine for as last thirty-three years of a larger circulation than any a America, has made an arrangement with the most popu-in America, has made an arrangement with the most popular authoress in this country—MARIAND,

Authoress of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Moss Bide," "Nemenia," and "Miriam," who will furnish a story for every number of the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book for 1863. This alone will place the Lady's Book in a literary point of view far ahead of any other magazine.
Marion Harland writes for no other publication. Our other favorite writers will all continue to furnish articles throughout the year.

THE BEST LADY'S MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD, AND THE CHEAPEST.

THE LITERATURE
is of that kind that can be read aloud in the family circle, and the clergy in immense numbers are subscribers for the Book. is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the music stores; but most of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except in "Godey."

OUR STEEL ENGRAYINGS.

All efforts to rival us in this have ceased, and we now stand alone in this department, giving, as we do, many more and infinitely better engravings than are published in any other work.

From five to seven fall length Colored Fashions on each plate. Other magazines give only two.

FAR AHEAD OF ANY FASHIONS IN EUROPE OR AMERICA.

Godey's is the only work in the world that gives these immense plates, and they are such as to have excited the wooder of publishers and the public. The publication of these plates cost than fashion-plates of the old style, and nothing but our wonderfully large circulation enables us to give them. Other magazines cannot afford it. We never spare money when the public can be benefited.

$10.00 MORE

These fashions may be relied on. Dresses may be made after them, and the wearer will not subject herself to ridicule, as would be the case if she visited the large cities dressed after the style of the plates given in some of our so-called magazines.

OUR WOOD ENGRAVINGS, of which we give twice or three times as many as any other magazine, are often mistaken for steel. They are so far superior to any others.

IMITATIONS.

Beware of them. Remember that the Lady's Book is the original publication and the chespeat. If you take Godey, you want no other magazine.

Everything that is useful or ornamental in a house can be found in Godey.

No other magazine gives them, and we have enough to fill several large volumes.

Receipts upon all subjects are to be found in the pages of the Lady's Book. We originally started this department, and have peculiar facilities for making it most perfect. This department alone is worth the price of the Book.
