telegraph, and in cipher; that of Halleok, in-reply, was in manuscript: [EXEINT No. 1. Copy in cipher.] BERLEX, Va., Aug. 4, 1862. Maj. Géneral Halleok, Commander-in-Chief.— Your despatch of last evening is received. If must confees that it has caused me the greatest pain 1 ever experienced, for 1 am convinced that the order to draw this army to Aquia creek will prove disastrons in the astreme to our cause. I fear it will be a fatal blow. Everal days are necessary to complete the proparations for so important a movement as this, and while they are in progress 1 beg that careful consideration be given to my statement. This army is now in excellent discipline and condition, we hold a debonche on both banks of the Jamesriver, so that we are free to act in any direction, and, with the essistance of the gunboats, I consider our communi-cations as now secure. We are twenty-five miles from Richmond, and are not likely to meet the enemy accounting of the guidouts, a counter our communi-cations as now secure. We are twenty-five miles from Richmond, and are not likely to meet the enemy in force sufficient to fight a battle until we have reacted fifteen or eighteen miles, which brings us practically within ten miles of Richmond.

practically within ten miles of Richmond. Our largest line of land transportation would be from this point twenty-five miles, but with the aid of the gunboats we can supply the army by water luring its advance, certainly to within twelve miles of Richmond. At Aquia creek we would be seventy-ave miles from Richmond, with land transportation all the way. From here to Fort Monroe is a march of about seventy miles, for Lorger di tes impractiall the way. From here to Fort Monroe is a march of about seventy miles; for I regard it as impracti-cable to withdraw this army and its material except by land. The result of this movement would then be to march one hundred and forty-miles to reach a point now only twenty-five miles distant and to deprive ourselves entirely of the powerful aid of the gunbouts and water transportation. Add to this the certain demoralization of this army which would ensue, the terribly depressing effect upon the people of the North, and the strong probability that it would in-fluence foreign powers to recognize our adversaries; and these appear to me sufficient reasons to make it my imperative daty to urge, in the strongest terms of our language, that this order may be rescinded, and that far from recalling this army, it be promptly reinforced to enable it to resume the offensive. It may be said that there are no reinforcements availa-ble. I point to General Burnside's force—to that of the out brock. ble. I point to General Burnaide's force—to that of General Pope, not necessary to maintain a strict de-fence in tront of Washington and Ilarper's Ferry— to thuse portions of the Army of the West not re-quired for a strict defence there. Here directly in front of this army is the heart of the rebellion. It is here that all our resources should be collected to strike the blow which will determine the fate of the nation. All points of secondary importance else-where should be abandoned, and every available man brought here. A decided victory here, and the malitary strength of the rebellion' is orushed. It matters not what partial reverse we may meet with I point to General Burnside's force-to that o matters not what partial reverses we may meet with elsewhere-here is the true delence of Washington. It is here, on the banks of the James river, that the fate of the Usion should be decided. Glear in the fate of the Usion should be decided. Ghear in my convictions of right, strong in the consciousness that I have ever been, and still am; actuated solely by love of my country, knowing that no ambitious or selfish motives have influenced me from the com-mencement of this war, I do now, what I never did in my life before, entreat that this order may be re-scinded. If my counsel does not prevail, I will, with a sad heart, obey your orders to the utmost of my powers, devoting to the movement, one of the utmost difficulty, whatever skill I may possess, what-ever the result may be; and may God grant that I ever the result may be; and may God grant that I am mistaken in my forebodings. I shall at least have the internal satisfaction that I have written and spoken frankly, and have sought to do the best in my power to arrest disaster from my country. GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, Major General. Official copy. Headquarters Army, Washington, D. C., Noven

EXHIBIT No. 2.1

WASHINGTON, August 6, 1862. MAJOR GENERAL MCCLELLAN, Commanding. &c., Berkley, Va.-General: Your despatch of yesterday mas received this morning, and I immediately telewas rece graphed a brief reply, promising to write you more fully by mail.

General, certainly could not have been more You, 'General, certainly could not have been more pained at receiving my order than I was at the necessity of issuing it. I was advised by high offi-cers, in whose judgment I had great confidence, to make the order immediately on my arrival here, but I determined not to do so until I could learn your -wishes from a personal interview, and even after that interview, I tried every means in my power to avoid withdrawing your army, and delayed my de-dision as long as I dared to delay it. I assure you, General, it was pout a hasty and inconsiderate act. General, it was not a hasty and inconsiderate

General, it was not a hasty and inconsiderate act, but one that caused me more anxious thought than any other of my life But after full and mature consideration of all the pres and cons, I was reluc-tantly forced to the conclusion that the order must be issued. There was to my mind no alternative. Allow me to allude to a few of the facts of the case You and your officers, at the interview, esti-mated the enemy's force in and around Richmond at two hundred thousand men. Since then, you and others report that they have received, and are re-ceiving, large reinforcements from the South. Gen Pope's army, now covering Washington, is only forty thousand usen.

Your effective force is only about ninety thousand Your effective force is only about ninety thousand men; you are thirty miles from Richmond, and Gen. Pope sighty or ninety, with the enemy directly be tween you, ready to fall with bis superior numbers upon ouce or the other, as he may select. Neither can reinforce the other in case of such an attack. If General Pope's army be diminished to reinforce you. Washington, Maryland, and Pennsylvanis would be left uncovered and exposed. If your force be reduced to strengthen Pope you would be too weak to even hold the position you now occupy, should the enemy turn round and attack you in full force. In other words, the oid Army of the Potomae is split into two parts, with the entire force of the enemy directly between them. They cannot be united by
