as to-day was the time fixed on for crossing the river.

During the night the pontoons were conveyed to the river, and the artillery of 143 pieces were placed in position opposite the city.

At 5 o'clock this morning the rebels fired two signal guns, while during the latter part of the night rockets were frequently seen within their lines.

At 5 o'clock the construction of three bridges in front of the city was commenced. When about half completed the enemy opened a murderous fire of infantry from the houses on the river bank. Up to this time not a shot had been fired from our side.—The engineers were driven from the pontoon bridges and everal killed and wounded.

At 6 o'clock Gen. Burnside ordered all the guns opened on the city.

The enemy, about 7 o'clock, opened with their neavy guns from their works, but so far have done heavy guns from their works, but so has heaven no serious injury.

General Franklin constructed his bridges about three miles below the city, meeting with but slight opposition. His troops are now crossing.

The gunboats are now shelling the enemy, about fifteen miles down the river, where they have been concentrating their forces during the past two dyas.

This order was no sconer given than hundreds of brave men stepped forward, but all could not go. About one hundred were selected. These were soon on their way, while the artillery threw a perfect storm of iron hail on the opposite bank. They reached the opposite shore, but not without loss. With fixed havenest they unshed upon the rehals killing fixed bayonets they rushed upon the rebels, killing several and taking one hundred and one prisoners, who were safely landed on this side. The official dispatch of the battle of Fayetteville has been received at the headquarters of the army Sr. Louis, Dec. 9.
Major-General Halleck, General-in-Chief, Washing-

My forces of the army of the frontier united near Fayetteville in the midst of a hard fought battle. General Blunt had sustained his position at Cave Hill until Saturday night, when the enemy, twentythe thousand strong, under veneral Hindman, attempted a flank movement on his left to prevent the arrival of General Herron's forces, which had been approaching for four days by forced marches.

On Sunday, about 10 A. M., the enemy attacked General Herron near Fayetteville, who, by gallant and desperate fighting, held him in check for three hours, until General Blunt's division came up and attacked him in the rear.

Our troops then bivouacked on the battle-field, while the enemy retreated across the Boston Mountains.

The loss on both sides is heavy, but it is much the greatest on the side of the enemy, our ar-tillery creating terrible slaughter in their greater impers.

TEN THOUSAND BARRELS OF OIL LOST.-A dispatch received from Oil Creek, reports anothor calamity in that region, which is fast ecoming famous for its misfortunes. On Sunday the creek was putting out ice rapidly, which gorged near the mouth, and resulted in ction of about 10,000 barrels of crude oil, valued at $100,000. Of this amount 4,000 barrels, valued at $40,000, belonged to Shreve, Tilson & Co., the extensive shippers, who lost heavily by the late pond freshets. Every day only proves more conclusively the necessity for a railroad from the principal oil producing farms to the mouth of the creek. At a mod calculation $225,000 worth of oil has been destroyed there within the last three weeks, all of which, had there been a railroad n operation, might have been saved.

On motion of Mi Wilson the Committee on Military Affairs were in Wilson the Committee on Military Affairs were instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for more effectually suppressing the rebellion and securing tranquility in Maryland. Mr. Sumner offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Secretary of War turnish the Senate with the correspondence relating to the Army of the Potomac. The bankrupt act was taken up, but was soon laid aside and made the special order for the 18th instant. Mr. Davis offered a joint resolution proposing certain amendments to the Constitution to alter the mode of electing the President and Vice-President, which were ordered to be printed.

electing the President and Vice-President, which were ordered to be printed.

In the House Messrs. Blake, Shanks, Noel, Casey, and Haight were appointed a special committee to investigate the charges against Representative Ashley. On motion of Mr. Edwards it was resolved that the Committee on Indian Affairs be instructed to inquire whether any further legislation is necessary in relation to the Indian funds held by the government, and report by bill or otherwise. On motion of Mr. Roscoe Conckling the President was requested, if in his opinion it was not incompatible with the public interests. to transmit to the House the last official report of Major General Buell. Mr. Stevens' bill to indemnify President Lincoln and other persons for suspending the writ of habeas corpus, was ordered to a second reading by a vote of 90 to 34, and after a prolonged discussion as to whether it should be suspending to a second reading by a vote of 90 to 34, and after a prolonged discussion as to whether it should be made the special order for Thursday, was finally passed by a vote of 90 to 45. Mr. Wickliffe introduced a bill to protect and grant relief and protection to the loyal States whose property and slaves have been wrongfully taken, which was referred to the Committee of the Judiciary. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and referred the various portions of the President's Message to appropriate committees. Mr. Richardson made a speech animadverting upon the message, after which the committee rose and the House adjourned.

The House considered the Senate bill for the admission of the State of West Virginia into the Union. Mr. Conway would vote for the measure if it came in a constitutional form. The bill was not so much for the admission of a new State as it was for the division of an old one. West Virginia was not a lawful State. He wished that a territorial government had been organized there at the comwas not a lawful State. He wished that a territorial government had been organized there at the commencement of the rebellion. Mr. Brown argued that the act would be lawful, and that Kentucky was formed from Virginia in the same way. After some discussion the House took up the special order authorizing collectors, etc., to administer oaths. The order passed. Mr. Brown then resumed his remarks, a davocating the admission of West Virginia into the Union. He was followed by Messrs. Colfas, to diminister oaths. The flower adjourned without continuing the distribution of the bill. The House adjourned without concluding the question.

A bill was reported in the Senate to-day by Mr. Wilson, from the Committee on Military Affairs, to establish an arsenal and ordnance depot on the tidewater of New York harbor. Mr. Rice offered a resolution, which was referred, that the lands and annuities of the Sioux Indians be forfeited, and they be removed far away from white settlements. Mr. Wright offered a resolution instructing the Military Committee to seek some more efficient and practicable system than the one now in use for the identification and discharge of soldiers. The same was adopted. Mr. Trumbull's motion providing for the discharge of State prisoners, and authorizing judges discharge of State prisoners, and authorizing judges of the United States Court to take bail and recognizances to secure their trial was ordered to printed and postponed until Thursday.

TERRIBLE COLLIERY EXPLOSION. On Saturday, November 2, an explosion took place in the Walker Colliery, a pit about three miles from Newcastle. Sixteen men and boys were killed. The London Times says: "The appearance above ground was that of the eruption of a volcano. The spectators heard the sound of a tremendous rush of air up the working-shaft, and, on looking in that direction, saw steam and a cloud of fragments flying from the pit's mouth. Below, the first warning they had of the explosion was like the sound of a hurricane, and its effect on themselves was to throw them violently down The seam of coal itself was set on fire, and charred dead bodies were close to the which had ignited. The Secretary of War in his report states that the total number of officers and privates in the field at the present is over 800,000. When the quotas are filled up the total will be increased to one million. Under the calls for troops in July and August four hundred and thirty-two thousand were enlisted for three years. Within a fraction of fifty thousand recruits have been added to the old regiments. THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION. In an article on the Emancipation Procla nation of the President, the Louisville Jour nal of Saturday week says:

"The policy announced in the proclamation not merely violates the Constitution, but as-sumes a principle which abolishes the Consti-tution altogether, and substitutes therefor the uncontrolled will of the President. President Lincoln, as we feel assured, could not have been conscious of this fact when he consented to issue the proclamation, but the fact is nevertheless true. We, several days ago, demon-strated that the proclamation is not legimately an act of military necessity. We need not now repeat this demonstration. No man both sane and intelligent will gainsay the conclusion. If, however, the proclamation is not legitimately an act of military necessity, it must depend, for justification, on the broad principle that the President has a right to do whatever in his discretion may best preserve the nation, regardless of the Constitution and the laws. And this is, in fact, the principle on which the radicals seek to justify the proclamation. Yet what is this principle but the principle of a Dictatorship? Nothing less — It is the principle of a dictatorship of the most absolute description. It clothes the President with an authority more absolute than that o Cincinnatus. It clothes him with an authority as absolute as that of Cæsar or of Sylla. In plain terms, it makes his uncontrolled will the supreme law of the land. There is no possible escape from this conclusion."

DR. OLDS CHOSEN TO THE OHIO LEGISLATURE -The Illegal Arrests Condemned.-One of the most significant indications of the signs of the times is contained in the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

Dr. Edson B. Olds, who has been for some months imprisoned in the political Bastile at New York, has been chosen to the Ohio Leg-islature from the county of Fairfield by 2,500 majority. This is by far the largest Democratic majority ever given in Fairfield county.—At the last election it was 1,800. The people are becoming aroused on the illegal arrest system, and are expressing it in thunder tones. Dr. Olds was denounced as a "traitor," and he is endorsed by 2,500 majority in the counwhere he lives? The election was a sperial one, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Jeffries.

To the Union? boldly proclaimed that they are not for the Union as it was, but for "a Union as it ought to be." To the States? They propose to blot out State lines! To the Government? They ignore the laws of Congress, and score the decisions of the Supreme Court? To the President? They propose to depose him if he does not obey them?

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN
THE BEST MECHANICAL PAPER IN THE WORLD.

EIGHTEENTH YEAR. VOLUME VIII .-- NEW SERIES.

A new volume of this popular Journal commences on the first of January. It is published weekly, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its mds. TO THE MECHANIC AND MANUFACTURER. TO THE MECHANIC AND MAINTEAN TO THE MECHANICA OF MAINTEAN TO PERSON engaged in any of the mechanical or manufacturing pursuits should think of "doing without" the Scientific American. It costs but six cents per week; every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which can not be found in any other publication.

machines and inventions, which can not be found in any other publication.

TO THE INVENTOR.

The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents izaued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

A pamphlet of instruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new inventions, is furnished free on application.

taming Letters rates on new inventions, is turnished free on application.

Mesers Munn & Co., have acted as Patent Solicitors for more than erventeen years, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, and they refer to 20,000 patentees for whom they have done business.

No charge is made for examining sketches and models of new inventions and for advising inventors as to their natentability. stentability.
CHEMISTS, ARCHITECTS, MILLWRIGHTS AND CHEMISTS, ARCHITECTS, MILLWRIGHTS AND FARMERS.

The Scientific American will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are giving in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and oring published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and mill-owners will be found in the Scientific American, which information they can not possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns. TERMS:

To mail subscribers: Three Dollars a year, or One Dollar for four months. The volumes commence on the first of January and July. Specimen copies will be sent gratis to any part of the country.

Western and Canadian money or Post-office stamps taken at par for subscriptions. Canadian subscribers will please to remit twenty-five cents extra on early year's subscription to pre-pay postage.

This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDICAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIC, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacious form, the well-setablished virtues and properties of Cubebs and Copable. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annals of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nauseous taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfere with the digestion, while, from its greater oncentration, the dose is much reduced. It may be relied on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of oath sexes to which they are applicable. in the large class of diseases of both sexes to which they are applicable.

THE PATENT STAMP-SHALING AND POST-MARK
PREMENTING ENVELOPE.

The preservation on the letter itself of the POST-MARK and POSTAGE-STAMP, generally destroyed with the detached cover, has long been deemed a matter of the first importance. This desideratum is now triumphantly secured by this inganious invention. Many obvious advantages must arise from the general use of this envelope.

First—Increased Rafety by additional sealing; the stamp connecting the envelope and letter securely together; and this is never liable to be omitted, though the sticking of the flap is frequently neglected or imperfectly done.

Scould-Security against Impertinent intrusion; the letter and envelope being firmly attached by the stamps, and inclours cannot be inspected even if the flap be classdestinely opened.

Third—Safety against Abstraction of Valuable Inclosures. If the flap be left unsealed, or opened with folonious intent, it will be impossible to open the letter and take thence bank notes and drafts without so mutilating the envelope as to insure detection.

Fourth—Security for the free payment of the Postage:

thence bank notes and drafts without so mutilating the envelope as to insure detection.

Fourth—Security for the free payment of the Postage; as the stamp, when once properly placed in this window, cannot be removed without its destruction.

KVh—Advantage therefore to the Government; by the effectual destruction of every stamp in its first use.

Sizth—Facility to the Post Office Decrations; by a uniform location of the stamp in the upper right hand corner, which is the most convenient position for the Post Office mark.

which is the most convenient position for the Post Office mark.

Seconth—Verification of the Mailing; by securing on the letter itself the local evidence of the time and place of it being mailed. This has long been esteemed so desirable, that many prudent persons are constrained to dispense with the use of envelopes, that they may have the post-mark on the letter; and others take the precantion to pin the envelope again on the letter for identification.

Eighth—Certainty of the Date and Place on the Letter, which are so frequently omitted by writers in carelessness or hurry. which are so warmen or hurs, which, though some may think of small importance, certainly meets the approval of all of small importance, certainly meets the approval of all persons of faste.

Truh—Cost. Notwithstanding the many and unrivalled advantages of the "Stamp Sealing Envelopes," they will be furnished at a very small advance upon the prices of those not having the benefit of this patent.

No. 31 North Quee Lancaster, September 9, 1862. DENTISTRY. MOUNTING ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

I would announce to my patrons and others requiring the services of the Dentist, that I am about introducing the AMBER BASE into my practice. The advantages of this method of mounting teeth over the metalle base have been fully established in the five years in which it has been subject to the severest tests, with the most satisfactory results. It is fully as strong and durable as either silver or gold

This ruly as strong and curable as claim silver or gold—more easily kept clean, more natural to the touch of the tongue and lips, and it is firmer and more serviceable in the mouth, in consequence of our being able to obtain a more perfect fit to the gum.

This work is not so expensive as gold, but a little higher in price than silver. It will be warranted to give satisfaction, or be exchanged for gold or silver work as the patient may prefer. nay prefer.
