ARRESTS BY THE WAR DEPART-MENT.

LETTER FROM JUDGE GOULD, OF NEW YORK.

LETTER PROM JUDGE GOULD, OF NEW YORK. To the Edizor of the Herald: The following ictuter sufficiently explains itself. It was sent to the President two days after its date by a friend of his, who sforded the first opportunity that could be relied on to insure the delivery to the President in person, and it was so delivered. It was read, and a verbal reply that the case would be in-vestigated was given. But no pretence was made that the cause for the arrest was not correctly stated in my letter.

in my letter. Though the claim to "investigate" by means of an arbitury arrest, personal duress, and whatever secret appliances a Cabinet inquisition might see fit to resort to, was reasserting the right so to arrest for such causes, and thus was a claim as utterly at vari-ance with all law, as would have been the similar arrest of a man who (in New York, had picked the Secretary's pocket, still steps were taken to present the case again to the President and the Secretary, through their personal and political friends (and they are in high position.) in the hope of obtaining they are in high position,) in the hope of obtaining

But as up to this time (after nearly three weeks) But as up to this time (after nearly three weeks) nothing has resulted, except an infamously rigorous imprisonment of Mr. Tracy, forbearance has reached its limit. It is highly important that the people should thus and now have a specific statement, showing the enormity of actual oppression exercised in this case, as a warning to them and to the ad-ministration. Yours, &c., Troy, New York, Dec. 4. 1862.

Troy, New York, Dec. 4, 1862.

JUDGE GOULD TO MR. LINCOLN.

To his Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States: bin: On my arrival in this city, from my residence in Troy, N. Y., 1 find that a cousin of mine, G. Colden Tracy, a broker of this city, has been, first arrested and sent to fort Lafayette, secondly, to.day taken as a prisoner to Washington. The newspapers say—and so far as 1 can learn by all inquiries of authorities, I can hear nothing different—that the cause of the arraet is some dealings he has had in contractors' drafts on government officers for moneys; and it is said, some Irauda were committed in or by the drafts, and he is charged with complicity there. the drafts, and he is charged with complicity there-the drafts, and he is charged with complicity there-with. If this be so, it is a crime cognizable by the courts, and only by the courts. And 1 am amazed at the fatuity of public officers who can take no warning from the distinctly uttered voice of a free people. I am, always have been, an unwavering cnemy of this rebelliou-(cursed in its origin, most accursed its progress)—and a supporter of the administration. I am a Judge of the highest court of this State.— And if no honest voice has yet reached the ear of our government, I wish to say, and to be heard in saying, that Star Chamber process and Secretary's warrants are dangerous instruments to play with and that, among us, the true, stauach supporters of his own pecuniary interests he makes abolition speeches and defends the outrageous conduct of the administration, yet lets out some truth occasionally. In a recent published letter he says:

" The amount of corruption in every department of the government is perfectly astound-ing, and at the same time disheartening to a loyal man. If I were editing a public journal I would expose these frauds, this treachery, and all connected therewith, if it cost me my life.'

STILL HANKERING AFTER THE NEGRO .-When the army appropriation bill, which amounts in the aggregate to over $70,000,000 was before the House of Representatives, on Thursday last, Mr. MALLORY, of Kentucky, offered the following amendment: Resolved, That no part of the money appropriated shall be so expended as to encourage the escape of slaves from their masters, or to support and maintain slaves that do escape from their masters, or for any purpose of emancipation or colonization, or for any other object than the reestablishment of the authorof the Constitution and the laws of the United States over the Rebels. This was opposed by the Abolitionists in that body and defeated by a vote of 66 nays to 33
