THE WAR IN MISSOURI.

The Rebels Repulsed at Springfield-Three Columns of Troops in Pursuit $251].

Str Louis, Jan. 12.

Late last night General Curtis received despatches from Col. Cr-bb, commanding at Sprigfield, stating that the rebels were repulsed at every advance and that his troops still held the town. Our loss is 17 killed; the number of wounded is not known.

We have buried 35 rebels and many more were taken off the field.

WAR NEWS.

The Battle of Murfreesboro'.

An army correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Rosecrans' headquarters, says:
It has been ascertained that Bragg's force did not at any time exceed 45,000 effectives of all arms. On the 24th December it had been depleted by the detachment of a portion of Forrest's cavalry, sent to cut Grant's communication, of Morgan's cavalry, pushed out to cut our own communication, and of one division, say 5,000 men, of Kirby Smith's corps, which were ordered to reinforce the rebel army of Mississippi. All together, say 10,000 men. It now seemed opportune to strike. It was unfortunate that the Cumberland river was almost hopelessly unnavigable, so that it was of no possible advantage to us. The Battle of Murfreesboro'.

Hattle.

LOUISVILLE, January 6.

Headquarters are advised that previous to the Murfreesboro' fight a large portion of the Anderson Troop mutinied at Nashville, and refused to advance. The remainder, about three hundred in all, went into the fight under Majors Rosengarten and Ward, and behaved gallantly. Notice has been sent along the line for the arrest of a large number, reported to have deserted, and their return to Nashville in irons. Further of the Battle Near Murfreesboro The latest intelligence from General Rosecrans' army is favorable. The slaughter went on for four days, and, according to the last account, Rosecrans had taken Murfreesboro', and was pressing the retreating enemy. The news of the capture of the Rebeistronghoid is not in detail and definite, but the probabilities are that it is covered. Can Rosecrate probabilities are that it is correct. Gen. Rosecram certainly established himself on the coast side of

Mr. Wilson to-day reported back to the Senate the bill to suspend temporarily the zact to prevent and punish fraud on the part of officers intrusted with masking contracts for the government, and moved its passage. After some discussion the subject was posiponed. Mr. Wilson, from the Committee on Mintary Affairs, reported back to House of joint resolution for the payment of the sondiers of the army and the seamen and marnes of the may with an amendment authorizing the Secterary of the Treasury to issue $50,000,000 of demand treating the section of the same and marnes of the may have a served to the Committee on Finance. Mr. Aktnony replied, and Mr. Powell also spoke on the subject.

In the House Mr. Washburn introduced a bill to promote the efficiency of the commissary department. Mr. Stevens, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill for the support of government. A vote of $3 to 28. The battle of Murfresboro' was discussed in the House. Quite a scene took place between Mr. Stevens and several other members. The two following oblitaries on the death of this estimable lady are from different writers:

Omtruart.—There are those for whom Death has no terrors; who look upon the cold, dark and gloomy grave as a happy resting place, believing that, when 'ille's fittel fever is over," they shall sleep well and undisturbedly in it; quiet brosom.

One of such—of Christ's meek and lowly ones—but yesterias entered that chamber of shadows, and to-day deoilate hearts make mean. Why is the Joyous family circle broken, and the counceting link of finest gold removed! Why is the loving wife, the tender mother, the dutiful daughter, the aff-cilomate sister and the faithful friend gone forever honce?

Ah! questioning ones, tearfol and bereaved, even tendered arms that yours enfold her now in the everlasting embrace of lafinite Love. And now her ransomed spirit looking down, from its blisful home, over the shining path that her weary feet trod on this Heavenward march, says, Weep not, hut "walk in the light" and join me here.

Seldom has our community suffered such a loss. So pure, so good, the world was made the better by ber living. See hus left behind a memory pleasant as Spring's balmiest breath, and one which must be blessed in its indicence. Under the weight of our great grief we humbly and reversely box, praying—

"Fold her, O Father! in Thine arms,
And let her henceforth be
A messenger of love batween
Our human hearts and Thee."

Our tunan hearts and Thee."

Ab righter and better realization of this great truth than the whole life of the deceased cannot readily be found. How her has the whole life of the deceased cannot readily be found. Show the him the security is counted that meek and thous of life, as daughter, sister, wife, mother, and friend, she combined that meek and lowly spirit which ever characterizes the sincere Christian.

In her the poor have lost a valued friend, whose modest charity was only equa'el by the kindness of the heart that felt for their sorrows and reliered their wants. That charity was of a lovely order and extended to all the human family; for an unkind word never fund expression from her ligs or an unkind thought a dwelling place within her mid. Her children may well "arise and call her blessed," and her example will be a shrine at which through life they can be reverence, and londly strive to imitate. To her bereaved husband, children, mother, and sistor, we can but offer our kindest sympathies. The void in their hearts is great—but the sad reality is hallowed by the reflection that the departed one has exchanged the sorrows and sufferinces of this life for a far happier and eternal home in Heaven. The consolation is great also, since the cheerful consciousness is theirs that the "loved one" knew and was reconciled to her tate, and felt that her confidence in her God was an abiding refuge! She knew that she must die and was prepared.

TMPLOYMENT.—The Undersigned has, for your years years past, been engaged in a husiness. In PLOYMENT.-The Undersigned has, for several years past, been engaged in a business, which has yielded him at the rate of three thousand dollars per annum, and is now willing to teach it to others. The business is of highly useful and general character, adapted both to cities and villages, and one that any person of ordinary capacity, young or old, make or female, can acquire with a few hour's practice, and by which they can secure a very handsom laceme. Several young ladies who have received instructions from me, both in New York State and Pennsylvania, are earning upwards of $15 per week by it, and there is no reason why, any one else cannot do the same. Invalida, seven, can do well by it, as it is no pedding affair, but a business that is perfectly respectable. Gentleman and jadies of leisure who would like to learn the business for fiber-oun amusement or pleasure, will find the practice of it a pleasant pastime, and one that they will take great interest in. On receipt of $1, I will send printed instructions by which any person can readily acquire the art, and these instructions will also contain every particular relative to the carrying it on so that it will be highly profitable. The purchaser of the "printed instructions" will also be authorized to teach it to others, and I have sometimes received as high as $200, for teaching the recognity to a single individual. I would state instructions" will also be authorized to teach it to others; and I have sometimes received as high as $200, for teaching it personally to a single individual. I would state further that $2.50 or $3 will buy everthing that is neess rary to commence the business with, and the articles can be got almost anywhere, in city or country, or, if preferred, I can furnish them.

The first wash-House attached on the subscriber of the Post-Mark wash-House attached on the subscriber of the Post-Mark wash-House attached over, has long been deemed a matter of the first importance. This desideratum is now triumphantly secured by the ingenious involution. Many obvious advantages and is a most desirable property in all respects.

A M D F O R S A L E .

First—Increased Safety by additional sealing; the stamp county, Pa., and on a well traveled public highway. A vein of coal about 4 feet thick underlays about one-third of the tract. The surface over the coal is gently undulating and affords most exceeded for its adaptedness to the growth of grass. The tract is nearly a square in shape, and is surrounded by fine, well cultivated farms, and a good neighborhood, and is near to Post Office, Mills, Schools and Churches.

A Price $12 an Acre, and terms easy. For particular address.

A Too TUESDAY, JANUARY 13th, 1833, will be sold at upiblic sale, on the premises in Warwick toweshin, and the property of the Post Office Departions; by a uniform location of the static property in the first pr which is the most convenient position for the Post Office mark.

Scientif — Verification of the Mailing; by securing on the letter-itself the legal cridence of the time and place of it being mailed. This has long been esteemed so desirable, that many prudent persons are constrained to dispense with the use of envelopes, that they may have the post mark on the letter; and others take the precaution to plu the envelope again on the letter for identification.

Fighth—Certainty of the Date and Place on the Letter, which are so frequently omitted by writers in carelessness or hurry. which are so frequently omitted by writers in Calviosanaor hurry.

A'inth—Ornamentation; which, though some may think of small importance, certainly meets the approval of all persons of taste.

Tenth—Cost. Notwithstanding the many and unrivalled advantages of the "Stamp Scaling Envelopes," they will be furnished at a very small advance upon the prices of those not having the benefit of this patent.

TO THE INVENTOR.

The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these Journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

A pamphlet of instruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new Inventions, is furnished free on application.

"THERE IS NO SUCH WORD AS FAIL." ARRANT'S

This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDIOAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIC, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacions form, the well-setablished virtues and properties of Cubebs and Copaba. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annals of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nanesom taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfere with the digestion, while, from its greater oncentration, the dose is much reduced. It may be relied on at the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of both sexes to which they are applicable.
