PHILADELPHIA, Thursday, Jan. 29. In the Court of Quarter Sessions, this morning, Judge Ludlow requested the Grand Jury to lay all other business aside until the authority of the State law had been vindicated. Judge Ludlow cited the case of the forcible arrest of Mr. Boileau, the proprietor of the Evening Journal, the closing up of his business establishment, and carrying him out of the State without the authority of law.

He directed the Grand Jury to hold a consultation and to take action, to have Montgomery and the Provost Marshal, and all others concerned in the forcible arrest, called before them, that they may be asked under what authority they acted in the arrest of Mr. Boileau, and why they took him out of the State without the authority of law. Judge Ludlow said he acted on his own responsibility in this matter, and without consultation with his brother Judges.

It is published weekly, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten briginal sugravings of new inventionsa discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for TO THE MECHANIC AND MANUFACTURER.

every number contains from six to ten engravings of new machines and inventions, which can not be found in any other publication.

TO THE INVENTOR.

The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but each number contains an Official List of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous; thus giving a correct history of the progress of inventions in this country. We are also receiving, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany; thus placing in our possession all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns copious extracts from these jougnals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

A pamphiet of lustruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new inventions, is formished free on application.

Meetra MINNA & Co., have acted as Patent Solicitors for more than reventeen years, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, and they refer to 20,000 new inventions and for advising inventors as to their patentability.

CHEMISTS, ARCHITECTS, MILLWRIGHTS AND FARMERS.

The Scientific American will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry are giving in its columns, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and mill-owners will be found in the Scientific American, which information they can not possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American; most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

CUBEBS AND COPAIBA. This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDICAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIQ, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacious form, the well-established virtues and properties of Gubebs and Copaiba. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annals of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nauseous taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfere with the digestion, while, from its greater oncentration, the dose is much reduced. It may be relied on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of noth sexes to which they are applicable.
