by the 11th Army Corps, in the gallant oharge on Longstreet's corps. They are said to have at first alightly failtered, but when Gen. Howard cried to them to remember Chancellorville, they rushed into the fight like informated demons, and the whole line of the ensury gare way before them. During the early part of to-day, up to noon, when our informant left, there had been no general battle fought, though beavy skirmishing had been going on all the morning, resulting in heavy loss to the ensury, and the capture of over 5,000 additional prisoners.

prisoners. In all these skirmishes, which were conducted under the direction of General Meade, our arms were entirely successful, but the enemy studiously avoided surg general engagement, and it was thought that there would be none before to morrow, when it that there would be none before to-morrow, when it was said to be the intention of General Meade to

was said to be the intention of treneral Meade to press the enemy along the whole line. The pru-dence and skill displayed by General Meade in the management of his army, and the strategy evinced by him in coping with Lee, had already won the confidence of his troops, and his presence drew forth the strongest demonstrations of attachment. The by init in origing with the interval acted by the only on the strongest demonstrations of attachment. The army evinced a determination to win at all hazards, and had been strongly impressed by the officers with the dreadful consequences that would ensue to them, should disaster occur to our arms in the coming conflict. The onemy was rapidly concentrating his troops, and General Meade's whole army had reached the field of battle. General Couch was expected to press down through the Guers Note and Valley on the enemy. Midnight.—Over 800 rebel prisoners have just parsed down Pratt street, under guard. 5,050 Rebel Prisoners at Baltimore. BALTIMORE, July 5. Twenty-three hundred prisoners have just passed along Baltimore street, from the Central Railroad depot, and 1.900 more are shortly expected, which will make 5,050 for to-day. This is but a small in-stalment, it is stated, of all who are to come. While passing through the streets so the parties had the bad taste to raise cheers of triumph, which induced the rebels to give their peculiar yell and cheer for Jeff. Davis. In addition to the above number, 839 passed through on Friday night, which will make the entire through on Friday night, which will make the entire number so far nearly 6,000.

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF

CUBEBS AND COPAIBA.

This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDICAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIC, as combining, in the meet convenient and effections form, the wall-stabilished virtues and properties of Catabas and Copailas. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DISEASES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annals of medicino, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nanescus tasts is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfore with the disestion, while, from its greater on-centration, the dose is much reduced. It may be rolled on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of both sexes to which they are applicable.
