WAR NEWS.

Official Dispatches from Gen. Grant.

WASHINGTON, July 22.

The following official dispatches from Gen. Grant have been received:

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 15.

To Major General Halleck, General-in-Chief:

General J. Sherman has Jackson invested from Pearl river on the North to the river on the South. This has cut off many cars from the Confederacy. Sherman says he has force enough and feels no apprehension about the result.

Finding that Yazoo City was being fortified, I sent General Herron there, with his division. He captured several hundred prisoners, one steamboat, five pieces of artillery, and all the public stores fell into our hands. The enemy burned three steamboats on the approach of the gunboats.

The De Kalb was blown up and sunk in 15 feet of water, by the explosion of a torpedo.

Finding that the enemy was crossing cattle for the rebel army at Hatches, and were said to have several thousand men there, I have sent steamboats and troops to collect them and to destroy their boats and all means for making more.

U. S. GRANT, Major General.

VICKSBURG, July 18.

To Major General Halleck, General-in-Chief:

Joe Johnston evacuated Jackson on the night of the 16th. He is now in full retreat east.

Sherman says that most of his army must perish from heat, lack of water and general discouragement.

The army paroled here have to a great extent deserted, and are scattered over the country in every direction.

Hearing that Yazoo City was being fortified, I sent Gen. Herron there, five guns were captured, together with many stores and about 300 prisoners. General Ransom was sent to Natchez to stop the crossing of cattle for the eastern army. On his arrival he found a large number had been driven out of the city to be pastured; also, that munitions of war had recently been crossed over to wait for Kirby Smith. He mounted about two hundred of his men and sent them in both directions.

We captured a number of prisoners and 5000 head of Texas cattle, two thousand head of which were sent to Gen. Banks. The balance have been and will be brought here. In Louisiana they captured more prisoners, a number of teams loaded with ammunition. Over two million rounds of musket ammunition were brought back in the teams captured, and 268,000 rounds, besides artillery ammunition destroyed. U. S. GRANT,

Major General Commanding.

The Attack on Fort Wagner.

The editor of the Savannah Republican, writing from Charleston, speaks of the battle in the attack upon Fort Wagner as the bloodiest and most destructive of the war, and then adds:

"Willing to do justice to a brave foe, it may be added that a more daring and gallant assault has not been made on either side since the commencement of the war."

North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

The Petersburg Express, of the 22d, in referring to the cavalry expedition sent out by Gen. Foster in North Carolina, says: "The Yankee raiders burned the railroad bridge over the Tar river, near Rocky Mount; destroyed the depot at that place, tore up two miles of the track, burned 5,000 bales of cotton, and a large cotton factory. The bridge over the Tar river was on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, and was about 300 yards long. They also captured a train of cars, which contained two car-loads of amunition, and 30,000 pounds of bacon, which were destroyed."

Lee's Army--The Confederate Iron-Clads Fitting out in England.

NEW YORK, July 24.

A special Washington despatch to the Post says it is definitely ascertained that Lee's main army at Winchester has made no decided advance down the valley.

The Government has decided on active measures regarding the fitting out of the Rebel iron-clad fleet in England. The authorities are urged to issue letters of marque and reprisal in view of the increase of privateers.

Lee's Army.

NEW YORK, July 24.

A special dispatch from Washington says it has been definitely ascertained that Lee's army is at Winchester, and made no general advance down the valley.

The Spoils at Jackson, Mississippi.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 24.

The Richmond Whig of July 23 says:—"The evacuation of Jackson, Miss., left in the hands of the enemy the rolling stock of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern, the Mississippi Central and Mississippi and Tennessee railroad. The motive power alone consisted of over forty engines. The loss is incalculable, important and wholly irreparable. Nothing goes well in the Southwest."

The Morgan Raid.

CINCINNATI, July 24.

Shortly after Morgan crossed the Muskingum, yesday, he was attacked by Col. Hall's militia, with two pieces of artillery; fifteen rebels were killed and several wounded. His progress was checked twice by Col. Hall, but he finally escaped via Cumberland, which place he left last night. At 7 o'clock this morning he crossed the Central Ohio railroad at Campbell's, but so closely pursued by Gen. Shackleford that he had not time to do any damage beyond burning the depot and tearing up a portion of the track. At 9 o'clock this morning he reached Washington, Guernsey county, where he did considerable damage. Shackleford is still close behind him. A courier who arrived from the vicinity of Taylorsville at noon, reports that a squad of about fifty men were detached from Morgan's command where he crossed the Muskingum river, and are prowling around the country, burning houses and wheat stacks and killing live stock. Three hundred mounted men have been sent out after them.

LATE FROM MEXICO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.

Advices through Mexican sources state that General Forey was actively attempting to recruit Mexicans for his army, without meeting with much success.

In his proclamation he promises the Mexicans a stable form of government which shall regard the obligations to foreign nations, not to permit oppressive taxation or forced loans, the press to have reasonable freedom but not license; after two warnings any newspaper committing a third offence shall be suspended. Brigandage shall no longer be allowed; the courts must be reorganized on an incorruptible basis; no more decisions shall be sold to the highest bidder; the Catholic religion will be protected; the banished bishops will be recalled, and Indians and laborers will no longer be dragged into the army.

The Mexican army is broken into many detachments, and are prowling about the city of Mexico.

General Ortega, who, the French say, violated his parole after the capture of Puebla, now commands the Mexican troops between San Luis Potosi and the city.

General Negretta has been appointed to command the Mexican troops in the State of Puebla. Having 2,000 cavalry, he was operating to destroy the communication between Mexico and Vera Cruz. No English or French couriers had arrived at Mexico from Vera Cruz within thirty days.

MURDER--HORSE THIEVES--THREE OF THEM HUNG.

Two or three days ago we gave an account of the murder of an old man named Jacob Kloppenger, in Monroe county, Illinois, on the 4th of July, and the discovery of his body on the following Sunday, greatly mutilated and disfigured, about two miles from his residence. Two horses had been stolen from him on the first of the month, and on the 4th, failing to find them up to that time, he declared his intention to come to St. Louis and see if they had been sold there. A neighbor, John Greer, told the deceased that he would find his horses for a dollar, and they went out together for that purpose, and then it was that the murder was committed. Greer and two others were arrested and committed to jail in Waterloo.

Facts were ascertained which determined the people to put lynch law in force. Accordingly, a crowd, composed mainly of Americans, to the number of two hundred, assembled in Waterloo on Wednesday, organized, and made their demand known to the jailor. He refused to open the jail door, and they proceeded at once to break it open. They got possession of the accused persons, took them out in a wagon, and, it is said, in a very orderly manner hung them. One of the prisoners, before his death, made confession of his guilt, and implicated some twenty-two others, giving their names and localities, and it is probable that, if caught, they will be treated in like manner. They compose a regular band of horse thieves, and it is alleged are all discharged soldiers. In this case, they added murder to robbery, and it is, no doubt, a part of their system.—St. Louis Repub., July 17.

☞ The Albany Evening Journal, edited lately by Thurlow Weed, and now conducted by a son of Secretary Seward, says of the election in Ohio:

"The issue of the campaign was foreshadowed as soon as it was known his (Mr. Vallandigham's) arrest was sanctioned by the President. His party determined to appeal to the people. They resolved to test the question of the "arbitrary arrest" of a citizen of a State not in a condition of rebellion, before that tribunal of last resort—the ballot box. And it must be confessed that they have the party of the Administration at a serious disadvantage. Thousands who detest the man and loathe his principles, disapprove of the manner in which he has been treated. They would like to express their disapproval, to give the Government to understand that they do not like such an equivocal exercise of power. Many, doubtless, will do so, and thus swell the Democratic vote far beyond its legitimate proportions."

FRANKING PRIVILEGES ABOLISHED.—LETTER CARRIERS.—Under the new postal law all correspondence to or from Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Polk, relicts of our ex-Presidents, as well as that of ex-Presidents Fillmore, Pierce and Buchanan, is chargeable with postage—and where not pre-paid on letters and papers sent to them, the rate on each is double. The public should also bear in mind that letter carriers being now salaried officers, no credit can be given by them to any mail matter delivered. The postage on newspapers should be invariably pre-paid. When not pre-paid, they will be chargeable with transient rates of postage, two cents each.—Washington Chronicle.

OPERATIONS AT CHARLESTON.

The landing in heavy force on Morris Island, and the commencement of extensive works designed for the reduction of Fort Wagner, indicate that the new Union General Gilmore is commencing a determined siege by land and water. The Mercury says:

"It appears to us to be useless to attempt to disguise from ourselves the situation. By whose fault we got into it, it is vain now to inquire. The Yankees having gotten possession of the southern half of Morris Island, there is but one way to save the city of Charleston, and that is the speedy and unflinching use of the bayonet. If the fight on Morris Island is to be now a fight by engineering and cannon merely, the advantage is now with the enemy. With their ironclads on the water, and their men in occupation of the land, it is likely to be a mere question of time. The fall of Fort Wagner ends in the fall of Charleston. Fort Sumter, like Fort Wagner, will then be assailable by land and sea, and the fate of Fort Pulaski will be that of Sumter. General Gilmore, the commander of the department, is the man who reduced Fort Pulaski. Charleston must be saved as Richmond was.

For six days our forces stormed the successive batteries of the enemy and saved Richmond. The greater part of the soldiers who achieved these triumphs by the bayonet had never before been in a charge. The Yankees as yet have here few or no formidable works.

They have but a few thousand troops. If our soldiers and officers here are not equal to the kind of fighting fought by the army of Virginia, and tried against such strong works as Fort Wagner and Secessionville, then Charleston falls. This, it appears to us, is the only course of safety, and we may add, too, of economy of lives. Other means may protract the fighting to days and weeks, and postpone the termination of the struggle.—No other means, in our opinion, will save the city. We believe it can easily be saved with promptness and energy and dash. It is too late for engineering. Hesitation and delay are fatal."

THE CONSCRIPTION.

The Albany Statesman, an able Republican paper, has the following sensible remarks upon this subject:—

"The Government never committed a more fatal mistake than when it abandoned the volunteer and bounty systems—systems which put into the field a million of men in eighteen months. The Government, after it puts down the riot in New York, should take a calm view of the dangers which surround us, and if possible return to a system which has never failed us, and which should never have been abandoned. Every person who wishes to see the Southern rebellion promptly put down, should use every exertion to prevent a rebellion from breaking out in the loyal States. We are no alarmist, and yet we candidly think that it will take more troops to enforce the draft in this State than is required to capture Richmond. The rioters in New York should and must be crushed. We owe this to the supremacy of the laws. Having done this, we beseech our rulers to so modify the draft that the loyal States may continue to exhibit an unbroken front against the rebellion. Nothing but this unbroken front can prevent the rebellion from becoming a success. We call upon President Lincoln to save the North from anarchy. God grant that he may be equal to the task. At the present time the Republic has more to fear from the follies of the War Office than from a pair of armies such as Lee now heads in Maryland."

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

LEE'S ARMY REPORTED IN A TIGHT PLACE.

The relative situations of the armies in Virginia is to-day clearly understood here. It is apparent that General Meade has the rebel army of Lee completely entrapped. He is evidently massing his forces to break his way through to Richmond, but will probably find it a more difficult undertaking than the one at Gettysburg.

After all the delay, there is not much prospect of Lee being able to get his army back to Richmond, or even so far as the upper end of the Shenandoah valley.

THE ORGANIZATION OF NEGRO TROOPS.

The War Department is pushing the organization of colored troops vigorously. The successes of our forces in the West have given a fresh impetus to enlistment among the blacks, and by autumn it is estimated that at least 100,000 negroes will be in arms in the valley of the Mississippi. It has been decided to raise four colored regiments in the District. The first is complete, and the second rapidly approaching completion.

REBEL WOUNDED AT GETTYSBURG.

Five thousand wounded rebels still remain on the Gettysburg battle field, kindly cared for by our surgeons. Many of them, it is reported, have asked not to be sent South, where they will again be compelled to fight against the Union.

☞ The exports from the United States to England and France, since September last, are 11,769,735 bushels of wheat less than in the previous year. At the same time the deficit in the receipts of Wisconsin and Illinois wheat at Chicago and Milwaukie were as follows:

	Sept. to July. 1862.	1863.	Decline.
Chicago	24,944,191	17,724,146	7,220,045
Milwaukie	16,923,313	12,993,402	3,929,911
Total bushels	41,867,504	30,717,548	11,149,956

This decline of more than 25 per cent in quantity, while the price is no higher, while the cost of all goods is much greater, tells upon the purchasing power of the people there.—The same quantity of wheat will now not purchase half the quantity of assorted goods that might last year have been had for it.—These facts underlie not only a greatly reduced general traffic, but also a much diminished railroad movement. The farmers must, in fact, give two bushels for one, and under the circumstances of a foreign demand to place the surplus grain of the country, it must be sold lower than it can be produced for abroad.—New York News.

WAR GAZETTE--OFFICIAL.

THE CONSCRIPTION.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, July 19, 1863.

To His Excellency John A. Andrew, Governor of the State of Massachusetts, Boston, Mass:

SIR: The Enrollment act only provides that in assigning to the districts of a State the number of men to be furnished therefrom, the President shall take into consideration the number of volunteers and militia furnished by and from said State, and the period of their service, &c.

If, however, it shall be made to appear to the Provost Marshal General, by the Governor of any State, that particular towns to which quotas have been assigned, have heretofore actually furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, an order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore.—Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls.

The number of men thus discharged from the service will be added to the next subsequent quota of the congressional district to which said towns belong.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

DRAFT SUSPENDED IN THE BRADFORD DISTRICT.

We learn that on the night of the 18th instant some person or persons unknown, by means of a ladder, entered the back window of the office of the provost marshal of Bradford county, in the town of Troy, and stole therefrom all the books, papers, vouchers, blanks, &c, appertaining and belonging to the draft in that Congressional district. It is apprehended that this robbery will cause a suspension of the draft in the district for some weeks, as a vast amount of labor must be performed before the papers can again be made ready for drafting. Most of the enrolling officers failed to preserve a copy of the enrolment.

The intensely "loyal" county of Bradford, which gave President Lincoln a majority of five thousand votes, is the last quarter in which we should expect to see resistance to the draft inaugurated. Are the Abs. getting shaky in the faith? Can't they stand a little draft? If these outrages had been committed in Berks county or New York city, what a howl against the "Copperheads" would go up from the Abolition camp! As it is, that which would be treason in Berks is simply an "irregular proceeding" in Bradford.—Patriot & Union.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT IN NEW YORK.—Loss of Life.—The walls of the station house burned by the mob in Twenty-first street, New York, last week, fell on Tuesday afternoon with a tremendous crash, burying a number of children who were gathering chips in the ruins. A gang of men were at once set to work, who, after two hours' labor, took out two little girls—one of whom was dead, and the other severely hurt. Subsequently the dead bodies of two boys and an old man and a woman were recovered from the ruins. In all eleven persons were recovered, seven of whom were dead, and the others terribly wounded and mangled.

☞ An Abolitionist is the last man in the world who should take especial pains to incite a mob; yet they have been as busy as bees in that business for the last two years under the patronage of the National administration.—They seem to have forgotten the position they hold in public appreciation. They are self-confessed outlaws, as every man becomes the moment he ignores the binding obligations of the Constitution. The Abolitionists are really detested and abhorred more than ever, for we see and feel the fruits of their iniquities.—Manchester Democrat.

☞ The Newark (Ohio) Advocate thus alludes to the great political changes that are going on in Licking county, in that State. It says of the Vallandigham feeling:

"Among others, we have reason to know that he will receive the votes of two of Lincoln's appointees—men who voted for him in 1860. What may seem still stranger is the fact that one of their candidates on their county ticket in 1861, and another on their county ticket in 1862, will this year vote the entire Democratic State ticket from top to bottom.—These are comforting signs to the genuine old fashioned 'Union savers,' and should encourage our friends to press steadily forward, and look hopefully to the ballot box."

RESISTANCE TO THE ENROLMENT IN MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, July 23.—A spirit of resistance to the enrolment has manifested itself in the vicinity of Jarrettsville, Hartford county Md., in the second congressional district.

The barn of Levi Pennington, enrolling officer, has been burned, with 500 bushels of corn; also the barn of Joseph Perry, with all its contents and one horse. Six shots were fired in the window of the residence of the enrolling officer, Mr. Pennington.

☞ Major General Dix has assumed command of the Department of the East, with his headquarters at New York, and has been succeeded at Fortress Monroe by Major General Foster.

MORE TESTIMONY.
LANCASTER, June 25th, 1863.

MR. B. MISHLER—Dear Sir: My daughter, a young girl about 12 years of age, caught a cold in her eyes early last spring, which afflicted her so much that I was afraid she would lose the sight of one of her eyes. She finally got so bad that it was found necessary to keep her continually in a dark room, allowing not even a candle to be lit. About three weeks ago I was induced to give her a bottle of your bitters, and am happy to say that one bottle cured her so completely that she is now able to go to school.
