NORTHERN REPUBLICAN SLAVERY.

The freedom-shriekers, the men who brough upon the country this awful war, and all the rain, blood, suffering and woe resulting from it-all out of pretended sympathy for the slave and detestation of slavery ; this party have already began to enslare the negroes here in the North ! And there is little doubt that we shall yet see a system of slavery bere ten times as oppressive to the negro as that from which they are liberating him at such a terrible cost of blood and treasure. A correspondent of the Newark Journal, writing from Orange County, New York, makes the following statement : Four farms are worked in this town by slave labor. Instead of slavery being abolish ed in the Southern States, this war is plant-ing it on Northern soil. From the window by which I write, I can see a New York slave at work. The farmer pays a Government agen fifteen dollars, and two contrabands, male and female, are sent him, and he owns them abcolutely body and soul, for two years, and (quoting from Seward's bell ringing speech) "No power on earth except the President of the United States can release them." To effect this, families that once lived together on a Southern plantation are now divided. The children, so the Republicans say, are to be ducated, and when old enough to work, oound out, and as the grown-up negroes can not get a living of themselves, they must work under an "instructer" for two years, after which they may get wages if they can. Other Republicans than the four that I know of are 661 Abraham Gramer, Drumore, very large banlons on both feet Thomas # Barnes, Drumore, surgeon's certificate of about to buy slaves for two years and dis-charge their white laborers. They say they and the say they are say they being the say they are say they would be doing injustice to themselves not to use the means that God and Abraham now offer them to till their farms, as white labor is hard to be got, and after the draft will be still more scarce. How the negroes' condition is much bettered, I can't see, but as the 668 David Halliger, Drumore, epilepsy

DIATE GENATORSHIP. -- MESSTS. Editors: As the Democratic County Convention will soon be held, it is not unadvisable for us to begin considering who should be candidates for the various positions to be filled, but the importance of having a good selection for the office of State Senstor cannot be overrated. We need talent, ability and lotegrity; a man whose patrioitsm and regard for the true welfare of the country has not been suck in the uncondi-tional loyadity of Abolitorism. ### FREEDOM FOR THE NEGRO. The N.Y. Post, in descanting over the probable effect of war upon slavery, very safely comes to the conclusion that it may still survive the 'irrepressible conflict" which Lincoln & Co. are waging, and says :

"If slavery is to be continued in this conntry, we want the Irish and Catholics to take place of the negroes, and let the more intelligent and more virtuous blacks be libera-

The people of Ireland immortalized their love of liberty by a long list of petriots in the contest which freed us from the insolence and tyranny of England. With the first cry of liberty they aroused themselves for battle, and in every place wherever and whenever the cry to arms has been heard, either to win or save the independence of our country, Irishmen

"Have pour'd their blood like ruby wine On Freedom's altar shrine."

It is this people the "Post" proposes to enslave in order that the negroes may be free. What philanthropists these Republicans are.

their benighted condition one disinterested. unprejudiced pen is being employed to instruct and elevate them! They will doubtlessly see in the very signature over which this "series of letters" are to written the sufficient proof that the author is of that magnanimous stamp of men, bitherto supposed to be the peculiar product of Naw England, who are not of the chary, stupid set who must be asked for not of the chary, stupid set who must be asked for their composed before they will think of offering it.— A NOR PATRIE fails on the ear with a tenderness which cannot fail to interest the undatiful frish boys and girls, and will moreover increase their ad-miration for the depth and solidity of the forthcom-ing series of letters, convincing them that their in-structor knows a thing or two, that he has made sufficient exploration of the classics to enable him to get the right verb and the proper inflection of the noun.

It is unfortunately the case that the mere professed object of an individual corporation, or party does not in all cases carry with it conviction. The history of mankind seems to justify the suspicion which men naturally have of each other, and it is more than probable that that suspicion will not be oblicerated until poor humanity is elevated into that sanctified sphere enjoyed by that happy class of men of which Avon PATRLE is the type. Here might be recalled a familiar instance mentioned in and a met work that have be a standard to be a set of the type.

of men of which Avon PATRIE is the type. Here might be recalled a familiar instance mentioned in an old and much reverenced book proving that Avon PATRIE had an example as long ago as when Chris-tienity's beautiful light broke upon the world: There were two individuals who went up to the tem-ple to pray; the one was very well satisfied with himself, and thanked God he was not like other peo-ple. The other man seems to have been pretty well convinced that he was no bleter than he ought to be, and so stood afar off asking forgiveness. We com-mend to the serions study of Avon PATRIE the ex-ample of the latter individual. A few hours of meditation on this subject we have no doubt will fully convince him that there is an ample field for labor at his own door, without obtruding his advice upon a people whose countryman and co-religionist he might have been had he been born on the other shore of the ceen. But under all the blandness so studiously assumed in the first letter of the series we think the true ob-ject is apparent. Over the whole North the Aboli-tion press have given unmistakable evidence of the 1855. The Tribune and Times of New York, the North American and Press of Philadelphia have sounded the key-note, and we should be sur-prized if our own intense pen-and-ink patriot of the Express did not joh in the borns.

have sounded the key-note, and we should be super-priced if our own intense pen-and-ink patrict of the Express did not join in the chorus Perhaps Akon interprice of '44 or '54 which Express did not join in the oborus Perhaps Auon PATELE has some reminiscences of '44 or '54 which would make an association in a revived proscription quite a familiar and an agreeable work. He per-taps has penetrated the purlieus of the city with his dark lantern that the countrymen of his fathers might be deprived of privileges he by accident fell heir to. To be charitable, we will even suppose that this loving patriot did not conspire against the heir to. To be charitable, we will even suppose that this loving patrick did not conspire against the political and religious privileges of the Irish Catho-lics, still the question would remain. by what right he assumes to advise a people who have shown their devotion to the laws of the land on every battle-field from the first Bull Run down to the victory of Get-tysburg? By what specinus pretexts are the mem-ories of thousands of Irish Catholic dead filling the trenches on every field to be questioned and insulted by stay-at-home, street-corner patrict. "The poor Irishuan, no matter how freely and bravely he may pour out his blood in attestation of his fidelity to the laws of the land, seems destined never to escape the pen of the libeller, the knavery of the demagque, and the biotry of the political preacher. The lines are as true to-day as when they "the victim of that canting crew, So smooth, so godly,-yets codvilian too;" Who, arm'd at once with prayer-books and with whips, Blood on their hands, and Scripture on their lips, Tyrants by creed, and torturers by text, Maske tixis life hell in honor of the next."

The N. Y. Times supposes the whole number of ished. men called for under the draft is 450 000. Judging secure exemption by payment of $300 each. This we have hitherto sent into the South of our domestic goods, $240 000 000 per year? of our imported goods, $100,000 000 per year? Is it matter of no consequence to us that they (the southerners) have paid as in interest and brokerage, $62 500,000 per year? that they have paid our hotels, and railroads, and shops and fashionable watering places, $55,000,000 per year, and still keep on prospering in the North, as of old?

What will be the fate of New England and her manufacturing classes after the South are "exterminated? Her surplus manufactures, in times of peace, foot up $200,000 000 pe year. If the South does not buy her usual proportion of this surplus. New England is ruined : for the balance of the northern States are yearly adding to their manufacturing interests, the West especially is yearly less dependent upon its neighbors. In twenty years the great West, which has largely contributed to the profits of New England, and other northern manufacturing States, will be independent of all outside support in that line, for notwithstanding her immense agricultural esources, she is rapidly developing a manufacturing interest which will soon meet all her

In 1860 the West reported a manufacturing interest of $139,000,000 per year, and the past ten years have given it a great impetus, an increase of many millions. Not only will New England terribly suffer from the results of this unholy crusade against the South, but our own State, and with it our great and lead-ing commercial emporium, New York city, will have the main source of its commercial glory tapped at the foundation, the result of which must be to impoverish labor here to degree never witnessed in this country .--When we investigate this commercial question the results are startling.

In the past seventy years, the mere customs collected from the South and West, a large proportion of which have been disbursed at the North, foot up one thousand one hundred millions of dollars. The fisheries of the Eastern States drew $5 000,000 as bounties paid out of the Federal Treasury, to the date of the abolition of those bounties. The mere profits to the North growing out of the trade connec tions with the South, are figured through a dozen sources, which have been alluded to during the discussion of this subject, at $232,-000,000 per year. Are the poor men of the North not interested in this profit? If it is lost, will they not feel it ?-N Y. Caucasian ----

Major Febiger, chief of the pay department of Mississ ppi, has just received a telegram stating that the steamer Ruth, which left Vicksburg on Monday Lorning, was burned a few miles below Cairo last night, and the boat and cargo were entirely con-sumed. Major Greenwalt, paymaster, and three clerks, were lost, and several other paymasters, on their way to Grant's army, sceaped only with the clothes on their backs. Two million and a half of dollars in Government funds were consumed Many lives were lost. The above are the only particulars that hare yet been received. ADDITORAL PARTICULARS

If leisure should be ours we propose following ANOB PATRIE through the series he is about giving to the public. Yours, The August 8, 1863. THE COST OF DRAFTING AND ITS RE-SULTS. The Hartford Times makes the annexed estimate of what the draft will cost: It requires about 30,000 men to make the present of raft all over the country-entrolling officers, asis-tants, boards of examination, &c., and so on. These cost the Government, in salaties, about sight times the smount paid to soldiers, with their assistants, and we have 240 000-or in other words, the means to are continged in office. In addition to this expense in carrying on the draft, the Provest Marshels have "guards," and more than 50,000 " Invalid Soldiers" is carrying on the draft, the Provest Marshels have "guards," and more than 50,000 " Invalid Soldiers" is carrying on the draft, the Provest Marshels have "guards," and more than 50,000 " Invalid Soldiers" is carrying on the draft, the Provest Marshels have "guards," and more than 50,000 " Invalid Soldiers" is guards," and more than 50,000 H Invalid Soldiers, it ward distributed over the country to aid in enforcing the draft. Most of these are able bodied soldiers, fit for duty in the field. It is evident that the cost of the draft, with the Provest Guards, is equal to the pay of an army of 300,000 men through the present year at least.
