STATE SENATORSHIP .- Messrs. Edilors ; As STATE SENATORSHIP. -- Messrs. Edilors: As the Democratic County Convention will sconge beld, it is and that visable for us to begin considering with about the candidates for the various positions to be filled, but the importance of baring a good selection for the office of State Senator cannot be overrated. We need talent, ability and integrity: a man whose patriotism and regard for the true welfare of the roomtry has not been such in the uncondi-tional loyady of Abolitionism. We need one who will fe a true and undoubted representative of Democratic policy; that can cave the nation. HENRE STATEREN of Money Jones the requisites for the place. He is honest and incorruptible; a farless, unalloyed and undoubted Democrat; a floant and ready debater, and having a sound judgment and good, practical sense. His sterling character and fine social qualities have won hum hosts of admiring friends and made him deservedly popular. He is emphatically "sman man is solved to himself, credit to the party, and advar I will not desert it now, in this the hour of ite "I am against disunion. I find no more
