GOVERNOR CURTIN.

The following article we copy from the Pittsburg Gazette of July 20th, an Abolition sheet of the darkest dye, which shows the estimation in which Governor CUBTIN is held by a large majority of his own party. An artist from the infernal regions is not likely to paint the Devil blacker than he is, and we may fairly infer that it is a correct likeness as far it goes, and that the history of the balance of his misdeeds, which the writer says he has "scarcely yet opened," would exhibit this reckless aspirant for new Gubernatorial honore (and perhaps new shoddy contracts) in a still more unfavorable light :

"We have already suggested that we would regard the re-nomination of Governor Curtin as a great calamity to the party and to the country, for the double reason that we should expose ourselves to the imminent risk of a defeat, if we did not even show thereby that we had deserved it, and that we should render a very doubtful service to either, by electing him. We now proceed to assign some of the reasons for that opinion.

"It cannot be disputed, we think, that his administration has proved eminently disas-trous to the party which brought him into power. That it has been an unfortunate one for the State, the present condition of her plundered sinking fund and dilapidated revenues will abundantly attest. It is not clear that it has been a wholesome one for the country. It is but too clear that it has been a damaging one for himself—so damaging that it is ore than doubtful whether the Union sentiment, strong as it unquestionably is, would be sufficiently powerful to override the unfavorable opinions so generally entertained of integrity and wisdom, notwithstanding the more than charitable reserve of the press, which has flung a mantle over his faults, and nerhaps encouraged his friends and himself believe that the history of his administration will continue a sealed book, or be forgotten amid the clangor of arms and the strife of the battle-field.

'He came into office less than three years ago, with a huge majority, and a Legislature of which nearly three fourths of both branches either were, or claimed to be, Republican At the end of one session he had thrown all that majority away." ** *

" Entrusted with the privilege of expending the first appropriation made by the Legislature and was calculated to compel his party (who for the common defence, he gave to his own creatures the power of making contracts, as his private agents, in relation to articles with motion having answered its purpose, was withdrawn. We cannot refrain from giving the concluding paragraph of a powerful speech made in the Convention by Judge Woodward on

"I am sure the sober sense of our citizens would be outraged by a decision that negroes are to vote, and this will be decided if you Ceased to condemn it. During the session of the Convention, name-ly, on the 10th day of January, 1838, a memreject the amendment. At no stage of our history have our people been willing to give them this right, and now let us not offend against nature, and do violence to the general eeling, by saying that in all time to come they shall possess it. It declared that 'the absence of a strict supervisory power had been the cause of much of the mischief that had befallen the It remarked, in observing upon the character of the Governor's agents, that it could not for a moment be supposed that there were not men in Pennsylvania, whose services could have been commanded, and who, by education and ability, were equal to the occasions that had arisen, and that the appointment by an Executive, from personal or partisan motives, of incompetent agents to perhaps, more than any other candidate, re-offices of great responsibility, is, at all times, quired to await quietly the decision of the partisan motives, of incompetent agents to a grave dereliction from duty, never more so than in great public emergencies, when the disasters resulting from the ignorance or incompetence of the agents, for whose appointment he is responsible, will inevitably excite suspicions of fraud, and return home to the Executive in humiliating charges of collusion.' And it closed by observing that 'they also report, in general, as the result of their investigations, that they have found instances of ignorance, of incompetence, of sharp dealing never praiseworthy, and here eminently disgraceful, of bad appointments, which, although under the peculiar circumstances of the times are to be expected, are none the less to be condemned. We hope this will put a stop forever to some croakers about here who intimate that there are people enough friendly to the South, in the North, to restore the Union as was. And we also hope that the Government at Richmond will not humiliate itself to the one end of final and substantial indeendence. The North is not less set on a ourpose of final separation than we are. The Republican party are not fighting to restore this Union, any more than the old Romans fought to establish the independence of the countries they invaded. The Republicans are fighting for conquest and dominion, we for liberty and independence. There is only one party in the North who want this Union restored, but they have no more power-legislative, executive, or judi-cial-than the paper we write on. It is true they make a show of Union and strength, but they have no voice of authority. We know that the Vallandigham school wants the Union restored, for he told us so when here in exile, partaking of such hospitality as we extended to a real enemy to our struggle for separation, banished to our soil by another enemy, who is practically more our friend than he. And if Vallandigham should by accident or other cause, become Governor of Ohio, we hope Lincoln will keep his nerves to the proper tension, and not allow him to enter the confines of the State. His administration would do more to restore the old Union than any other do more to restore the old of therefore we pray power in Ohio could do, and therefore we pray that he may be defeated. Should a strong Union party spring up in Ohio, the third State in the North in political importance, it might find a faint response in some Southern States, and give us trouble. But, as long as the Republicans hold power, they will think of conquest and dominion only, and we, on the other hand, will come up in a solid column for freedom and indedendence, which we will be certain to achieve, with such assistance as we may now (after the refusal of the Washington Cabinet to con-cur) confidently expect, before the Democrate of the North get in power again, and come whispering in our ears, "Union, reconstruc-tion, Constitution, concession, and guarantees." Away with all such stuff! We want separation. Give us rather men like Thaddeus Stevens and

Charles Sumner. They curse the old Union and despise it and so do we. And we now promise these gentlemen that, as they hate the Union and the "accursed Constitution," let them keep down Vallandigham and his party in the North ; then they shall never be troubled by us with such whining about the Constitu-
