R. R. TSHUDY, Chairman. LANCASTER, September 224, 1863.

We have placed new Carriers on the city routes to-day. If any of our subscribers should not receive their papers, they will please report the fact at the office.

The great length of the County Convention and Mass Meeting proceedings excludes a variety of other interesting matter.

We wish to say, once for all, that the projected establishment of a daily and weekly Democratic newspaper in this city is entirely independent of the Intelligencer. deem this notice necessary in consequence of the numerous interrogations put to us by our Democratic friends in the city and county within the last few days.

The County Ticket. Democratic County Convention on Wednesday last is one of the years as they pledged the country, but that they in-Wednesday last is one of the very best that has been placed before the ding States out of the Union until they agree people of Lancaster county for many years, and should be elected by a triumphant majority if solid worth, intelligence, and real merit were the criteria by which the great mass of our voters were actuated. In consequence of the great length of preachers, or street brawlers, can no longer the proceedings of the Convention and the Mass Meeting of Thursday, we have not room to speak of the position-to destroy the old Union and the candidates as they deserve in the the mere purpose of abolishing slavery. Such present issue of the Intelligencer, is the wickedness and crime which these Abobut shall-have something to say on lition leaders have reached at last. They have the subject in our next and succeeding issues of the paper until the election. In the mean time let our it. Democratic friends throughout the and the Constitution null and void; and yet county buckle on their armor, and set to work at once as though they were determined to elect the ticket have the hardined to ask the people, and even the soldier who is enduring all the hardships notwithstanding the tremendous odds against them. We shall have hundreds of honest Republicans to aid us in the good work of redeeming the County and State from misrule and corruption, and we, as successfully, to destroy the freedom of the Democrats, ought to show by our zeal that we at least deserve success and are executing laws in violation of the in Lancaster county, whether it folows our efforts or not.

An Abolition Pow-wow came off at Fulton Hall on Saturday evening, which was addressed by two Greenback Patriots named CHASE and Montgowery. About one-half the nce, it is said, were women and children.

on Thursday last, was, in every repect, a decided success, and has not been equaled in this city in numbers and enthusiasm; by either party, ince the great Buchanan Mass Conention of 1856. A full account will be found in our local column. It is sufficient for us to say that the speeches were all characterized by great ability and force, and the thousands who listened to them so attentively will not soon forget the 17th day of September, 1863. The presence of our distinguished nominee for Governor—his manly appearance and gentlemanly bearing added much to the enthusiasm of the meeting, and the general good order that prevailed throughout our crowded streets and on the ground during the day, were creditable to our citizens of both parties who during the day, were creditable to our citizens of both parties who either participated in, or witnessed the great demonstration.

Judge Woodward expressed himself greatly gratified with the enchusiastic reception he met with not only here; but every where along the fourterform Lebanon to this city. Indeed it was a perfect ovation thoughout, he said, and completely took him by surprise. The other land, and the grant of the sort our father hand.

THE RADICAL ABOLITIONISTS. After all their pledges to be Union men, and to belong to a Union party, they are now The ticket nominated by the Union our fathers made. They tell us now coming out openly for the destruction of the end to protract the war, and keep the seceto abolish slavery. This most astounding and destructive policy they kept from the people as long as they could, to deceive them into their support, but the prospect of a return of some of the Southern States to the Union has drawn them out, and now they are showing their true colors. Bogus Union editors and bogus Union pretenders, whether speakers, soldiers and the people, that they would war only to restore the Union as our fathers made They openly proclaim the old Union dead, in the face of all this treachery and public prostitution, these same bogus Union men of actual war for his country, to vote for them.
It is not enough that these men or their party have stolen two hundred millions of dollars yearly since the war commenced, which the people have to pay in taxes; it is not enough Constitution, and most abhorrent to the people, and destructive to the Union; it is not enough that they, with their co-workers in rebellion, have alrea ady sacrificed nearly half a million of valuable lives, and thousands of millions of property; but to cap the climax of all their rimes, they must now pervert the Government from the restoration of the Union and the aiding of States to return, into a negro crusade to destroy slavery. They are now determined that the old Union and the Constitution, and slavery, shall be buried in the same grave, and this is the feast to which they invite the soldiers and the people. If there is an honest man, whether at home or in the field, who will uphold such rascality, we pity him from the depths of our heart.

The Governor's speech indicates the issues of the future. It points out the two diverging paths in which the people will be called to walk—one looking to the employment only of force, subjugation and the extinction of States, and leading to interminable warthoother superadding to force the more powerful agency of conciliation, and leading to restoration, of fraternal relations and the extinction of States, and leading to constitution.

President Lincoln has taken an other extraordinary step in the prosent condition of affairs, and issued a proclamation suspending The Walt United States. We have not space to comment upon this remarkable assumption of power, at a period when we are told the rebelion is at its last gasp, and consequently when the public danger which could be the only possible justification of such an arbitrary measure, has passed away. SCENES, INCIDENTS, &c. Thursday last, September 17th, 1863, the 76th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, was commemorated with becomng spirit by the Democracy of Lancaster City and County and the adjacent counties. It was cele orated in such a manner, too, that it will be long remembered by our citizens of every shade of political opinion. The day dawned most auspiciously and at an early hour our streets were full of people arriving from the country in all directions. We have endeavored below, from memory, to give some it will be found to be a very imperfect report. RECEPTION OF DELEGATIONS. The Democratic Central Club met at 8 o'clock, A. M., in front of the Club Room, Centre Square, and marched, under the direction of Dr. McConnick, Marshal, to the junction of the Pennsylvania Railroad and Harrisburg Pike, where they received the lelegation from Columbia, which numbered some 600 stalwart sons of Democracy. This delegation was accompanied by a fine band of music from York, and carried a magnificent silk American flag of large dimensions. They were marshaled by Mr.

JOHN PENDRICK. The Harrisburg and Middletown delegations numbered over 500, and-were received at the Depoty Chesnut street. They were a splendid-looking, body of men, and were accompanied by an excellent band of music from Lebanon, one of the very best we have heard for a long while.

In the meanwhile, the veteran and efficient Chief Marshal, Col. John H. Duchman, his excellent Aids and Assistants, were employed in making arrangements for the reception of the County delegations. The delegations from the county commenced to arrive about 10 o'clock, and from that time until noon the Chief Marshal, Aids and Assistants were kept busy in receiving and assigning them quarters. It was indeed a magnificent sight to see the long lines of horsemen, of men and ladies, too, (God bless them !) in carriages, wagons and every conceivable sort of vehicle.

The first delegation to arrive was from the North, composed of the Warwick, Manheim, Ephrata, Penn Elizabeth and other Clubs. It was about one mile and a half in length, and the welkin rung with their shouts and cheers for the good old cause. As they passed the headquarters of the Democratic Central Club they were greeted with tremendous cheering, and the Lebanon Band struck up a lively air. The Glee Club, Mr. Ponz, Leader, greeted them with their admirable Woodward Song, This delegation carried many mottoes and devices and several splendid banners. We endeavored to make a note of some of the mottoes, but the crowd was dense and the enthusiasm so great that we found it an utter impossibility. All honor to our friends of

On closing, the assemblage united in giving him This delegation was fully as large as the Northern, and on passing the residence of Mayor Sanderson, in North Dake street, where Judge Woodward was stopping, cheers rent the air from one end of the dent, and was greated with long-continued cheering. line to the other for "the next Governor of Penn-This delegation was composed of a sylvania." splendid body of old and young men, and reflected credit on the eastern section of the county. Their banners, mottoes and devices were numerous.

The imitiense Southern delegation arrived about 111 o'clock, and their appearance in the southern and other parts of the city was hailed with the greatest enthusiasm. They came by two roads, the Willow Street pike and the old Factory road, and had all remained in the delegation it is computed that it would have been from three to five miles in longth. Many, however, had left and preceded the delegation to the city, but notwithstanding this it was an immense affair. In this delegation were the men from never-flinching, untiring Colerain, those of glorious liftle Eden, the few but sound Democrats from Providence, the gallant men of Bart, Drumore, Fulton, Little Brithih, Martic, Conestoga, Pequea, West Lampeter and others. The Southern delegations were determined not to be behind their breth-

The delegations, by railroad, from the eastern end of Lancaster county and Chester arrived at 11 A. M. There were large numbers of sturdy Democrats in the ranks, and there would have been twice a many more, if there had not been a misunderstanding in reference to excursion tickets.

The last general delegation to arrive was from Mount Joy and Elizabethtown, which was accompanied by an excellent band of music. This delega tion was fully fifteen minutes in passing any given point, and with its beautiful banners, handsomely. decorated wagons, &c., made a splendid appearance ceived a majority of the votes of the citizens A pleasing feature, and one which attracted great attention, was a large wagon load of pretty young ladies, tastefully dressed in white, each one wearing a wreath and carrying a small flag and boquet .-After a short parade the delegation was dismissed. Besides these there were numerous smaller deleand received the certificate of election and gations, which helped to swell the crowd to immense proportions. The Judge is a pleasing speaker, and his noble, dignified appearance is well calculated to make a favorable impression upon all who see him. The substance of his remarks was as follows:

The substance of his remarks was as follows:

-MY FELLOW-CITIENS: It is with sentiments of extreme satisfaction that I am able to meet you in the county of Lancaster. I came here for the purpose of exchanging salutations with you, but, gentlemen, it is understood that I am to go through this campaign without discussing the political questions of the day: Such was the determination of the convention which nominated me at Harrisburg. Never, since I have held a judicial commission, the first of which was conferred by my venerable friend whom you have selected to preside on this ocne nrst or which was contented by any include whom you have selected to preside on this ocasion, have I made a political speech. I am one f those who think that the judicial office should be

But I am not unwilling to meet my fellow-cititions were determined not to be behind their brethren from the other districts in length and numbers, and we don't think they were.

"If I should be elected your Governor, it will become my duty to discuss these questions, and I promise you it shall be done at the proper time, with great plainness of speech: [Immense applause.] With these few words of explanation as an apology, I will now retire and give place to others.

The meeting was further addressed from the main stand by Hon. J. GLANCY JONES of Berks, ex-Chief Justice Black of York, Hon. William A. Porter of Philadelphia, and Max Gorpp, Esq., of New York. It is out of the question in a mere newspaper sketch to do justice to the speeches of these dissuch powerful arguments and eloquent appeals for he restoration of the Union and the maintenance of the Constitution were never before heard in this gity. We believe this was Judge BLACK's first appearance on the stump for many years, and his address on this occasion was distinguished for the masterly ability for which that eminent jurist is celebrated. The meeting was further addressed in German from this stand by Mr. D. E. SCHOEDLER.

At the second stand Hon. HENRY CLAY DEAN, o lows, spoke for two hours and a half to thousands of his fellow-countrymen and women on the all-absorbing issues of the day. It is an utter impossibility to report Mr. DEAN. He is, we think, without an equal in many respects as a stump orator in the country. At times he would convulse his vast audience with shouts of laughter and raise their enthusiasm to the highest pitch, and then would be seen the tears glistening in the eyes and coursing down the cheeks of men unused to weep. Oh! it was a glorious sight. Could Mr. D. have remained n this county, we firmly believe the Old Gibraltar of Abolitionism would be revolutionized.

The meeting was further addressed at this point by R. E. Monaghan, Esq., of West Chester, who spoke for about an hour. He discussed in an able manner the question of the repeal of the Tonnage. Tax, and laid the blame for that unjust repeal at the door at which it belongs. Dr. Jony K. RAUB, of our own county, was called for, and made a few appropriate and eloquent remarks.

The meeting at the third stand was addressed by our able and eloquent German friend, Mr. C. F. REES, of Millersville.

THE EVENING MEETING. A meeting of the City Democracy and those from distance remaining in the city was called at 8 o'- filled, and the meeting was called to order by Sauuer H. Reynords, Esq., upon whose proposition Mayor Sandenson was selected Chairman. He was assisted by a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The Mayor, on taking the chair, made a few appropriate remarks. The meeting was addressed in an able, eloquent and convincing manner by Joseph W. Parker, Esq., of Lewistown, Pa. MAX GOEPP, Esq., of New York City, and Hon. C. M. Donavon, one of the State Senators from Philadelphia. A committee, consisting of Messrs. William Morton, George Bowman and Dr. Samuel Welchens, was appointed to wait upon Hon. HENRY CLAY DEAN, and request him to address the meeting, but that gentleman was forced to decline on account of being completely worn out by the labors f the day. The occasion was enlivened with excellent music by the Glee Club and Killian's Drum Corps. Among other strangers we noticed in the audience were our joying old friend Maj. John Cun-MINGS, of Snyder county, and JAMES B. SANSOM, he fearless and spicy editor of the Indiana (Pa.) Democrat. The meeting was a glorious one in every respect.

SCENES, INCIDENTS, &c. When the procession in the afternoon was moving up North Duke street to the grove, three cheers were given by many for Mrs. GRORGE B. PORTER, on passing her residence. Ex-Governor Porter and Hon. WILLIAM A. PORTER were the guests of that Abolitionists. estimable lady:

The Young Men's Democratic Asseciation of Harrisburg, accompanied by the Lebanon Band, just know why Judge Woodward does not resign before neon, marched to the residence of Mayor, SAMPERSON, and tendered Judge Woodward and the Mayor the compliment of a serenade. On arriving at Litiz the party stopped for about an hour. The Judge was waited upon by a large number of citizens of the village and vicinity. Here a delegation of about forty gentlemen from this city and county received the Judge and suite. The whole party partock of the hospitalities of friend LICHTERTHALEB, of the Litis Springs Hotel, and afterwards visited the Seminary and grounds and the far-famed Litis Spring, and were struck with its great beauty and that of the surrounding scenery.

The party left Litiz at 5; o'clock, P. M., and arrived in this city at 7. The Judge was the guest of Mayor Sanderson. After tea he proceeded to Michael's Hotel, North Queen street, where he received hundreds of his fellow-citizens, among others a large delegation from the Democratic Central Club. Every one was pleased with the warmth and cordiality of his manner and noble and gentlemanly deportment. On Thursday morning he was waited upon by great numbers of his fellow-citizens from this and other counties. At the grove, where the meeting was held, he was greeted by hundreds and thousands, a great number being ladies. The fair sex were delighted with him. He was the recipient of seven of the largest and prettiest boquets we have ever seen, two of them from ladies at the Gap, in this county, whose names we did not learn.

On Thursday afternoon he visited the residences of SAMUEL H. REYNOLDS and J. J. SPRENGER, Esqrs., and partook of their hospitalities. At the residence of the latter gentleman a large number of young ladies were present, who were introduced personally to the Judge and with whom he entered into a pleasant conversation. He received other invitations, but was forced respectfully to decline them on account of the shortness of his visit. During Judge Woodward's visit here he met with but two gentlemen taller than himself, and those two were our venerable friend Mr. DANIEL D. SWIFT, of Fulton township, and Mr. WILLIAM McCouser, of this city. Each of these gentlemen is 6 feet 4 inches in height, while the Judge is 6 feet 3. He is, however, one of the tallest men in the State, intellectually and otherwise, and will have one of the talles: majorities.

EDITORIAL VISITORS. Among the gentlemen of the Editorial profession present at this great meeting we noticed Hon. JAMES P. BARB, Editor of the Pittsburg Post, and Surveyor General of the State; JOHN M. COOPER, Esq., late of the Chambersburg Valley Spirit; HENRY J STARLE, Esq., Gettysburg Compiler, and late of Fort McHenry; James B Sanson, Esq., Indiana Democrat ; WILLIAM M. BRESLIN, Lebanon Advertiser; John C. Barr, Esq., Pittsburg Post; Wil-LIAM MEESER, Esq., Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, and U. J. Jones Esq., late of the Harrisburg Patriot. Without any disparagement to any other body of men present, we must say that they were as fine-looking, intelligent and jovial a body as were here on that day. Long life to these wer-worn and indefatigable laborers in the Democratic cause. Among other gentlemen also present we noticed the portly-looking military form of our venerable friend, Gen. A. L. ROUMFORT, the excellent and efficient Democratic Mayor of the City of Harrisburg. His Honor, we were glad to see, is still the very picture of health and happiness. Long may

And now to sum up: This great meeting of 10 or 15,000 freemen was a perfect success in avery respect. Not a single unpleasant incident occured to mar the pleasures or harmony of the day. The thanks of the Democracy are due the efficient Executive Committee of the Democratic Central Club for the manner in which they discharged their laborious duties the whole arrangement for the meeting being placed in their hands. No men could have labored more energetically and zealously.

THE MAINE ELECTION. The election in Maine has resulted in the election of Cony, the Abolition candidate for Governor by a majority of probably 15,000. This termination of the contest neither astonshes nor alarms us; we had anticipated it, and were therefore fully prepared for the announcement. The Abolition papers crow as though they had gained a great and unex-pected victory—but they are given to small hings, and we do not feel in the least annoyed by the clamor they make. As long as the Democracy can maintain the hold they now tinguished gentlemen. It is sufficient to say that unquestionably have upon the great States of the North, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with New Jersey certain, and Wisconsin probable, they will have no reason to regret the course of Maine and er sister Yankee States. She has now, consistently we think, become a unit in support of Lincoln's administration. One after the other these peddling meddling, codfish and blubber-oil Yankee States have taken their position in the ranks of this Union-wrecking administration. Maine was the last to record her adhesion, and now all of them are in the right. place—where their infamous principles and thievish instincts lead them.
