"Lehigh Will Do Better!" On Wednesday last an immense Democratic Mass Meeting for the Teath Legion was held at Allen-town. It is estimated that there were 30,000 persons present. The procession is said to have been nine miles long, and in the line were two regiments of returned volunteers and militia of one thousand men each who were sent home to vote ed orators, and attended by thousands of the people, and in the evening an immense meeting was held in the public square of the town which was addressed by Col. DAVIS of the 167th P. V., and several other Andrew G. Curtin and the buzspeakers. The Tenth Legion is good for 10,000 majority for WooDzards claim to be the especial friends WARD and LOWRIE.

Figures Don't Lie.

To show our readers what has been lost to the State through Governor Curtin having the Tonnage Tax of $300,000 a year repealed, and the $700,000 which he bestowed to the Pennsylvania Railroad, the WHITE MAN. Then vote for WOOD-WARD, LOWRIE, and WHITE being the soldier's especial friend is whether intended to flotten by an esteemed friend. It is very all a humbug, intended to flatter well calculated to startle the taxhim and thereby catch his vote.— | payers, and we commend it to their special consideration.

One of the best known Printers in this section of the State, died, after a lingering Illuess, at his residence in Bouth Queen street, on Taesday last. Mr. R. had for many years been connected with the press of this city, hav-ing been respectively Foreman of the Union, Intelligencer and Examiner offices, and was one of the fastest and best Job Printers we ever knew. Justafter John J. Coebran, Eso, was appointed Postmaster of this city, he tendered Mr. Rutr the position of Letter Carrier, and, owing to failing health, he accepted the same, discharging ite duties to the entire satisfaction of the public. In all the relations of life he was an honorable and strictly honest man. and child in the county; or, computing the taxable inhabitants at ten thousand, fifty-five dollars for each one to pay every year. For The Intelligencer. STRASBURG, Oct. 5th, 1863. MESSES. EDITORS: A few of the members of a prominent Church in our ancient and venerable Borough have suddenly come to want, and therefore to grief. Although the number of sufferers is very small, the want is very great. Great emergencies always require desperate efforts, and our sufferers, there being no newspaper published in the Borough whereby they could make their wants known, adop-ted the singular method of advertising from the pulpit of their church. In the absence therefore of the regular pastor, they induced one of their num-ber, an individual whom public sympathy some time ago placed in a position more prominent than he ever dreamt of filling, to invade the saored desk, and there, in the presence of the whole congrega-tion, to proclaim his and their wants. Most of the congregation left the church in disguet-these who remained, did so, merely to show the sufferers that they were not willing thus to be driven from their proper place of worship. Now, in olty for the wants of these sufferers are How do the tax-payers of the county like the entertainment to which they are invited by Governor CURTIN and his friends?

speeches as this are vastly indignant at the "Copperheads" if they venture to use similar language. Is it not high time that men should be put in office who will again make this contest a war for the Constitution and the Union ?

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE. That Andrew G. Curtin, the shoddy candi-date for Governor, signed the bill for the re-THOUSAND DOLLARS. For the sake of round numbers—as we did hefore—we will say five hundred and fifty thousand—which peal of the tonnage tax on the Pennsylvania railroad company, against the remonstrance of Hon. S. A. That he signed it "upon a private agreement in writing, made by Thomas A. Scott the light of facts, and see what is the ability for the company, to pay the sum of $75,000 per annum into the Treasury, which agreement he concealed from the people, and afterwards surrendered to the company, without even preserving a copy of it."

That he signed three acts of a Republican Legislature, "Stripping the Sinking Fund of at least EIGHTEEN MILLIONS OF DOL-LARS." "THAT HIS NOMINATION LARS." "THAT HIS NOMINATION WOULD BE DISGRAOEFUL TO THE PARTY AND HIS ELECTION IMPOSSI-BLE."-Pittsburg Gazette Aug. 5.

It is only necessary to remind the reader that the journal making these bold and monstrous charges is the ablest and most widely circulated Republican print west of the Allegheny mountaine.

The other notorious Abolition Disunionist. The other night, however, he made a speech in New her, she could not meet her obligations by NINE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. That is,

"We have a class of men among us in Maine who very much want THE CONSTITUTION AS IT worth. And this is the result of ADOINTON plunder and mismanagement! Tax payers of the State-tax-payers of Dauphin county, them here? [Voices, 'Yes.'] I am very SOLLY INCOME AND A STATES AND A NONSENSE-IT IS NOT VERY GOOD NONSENSE .--Why the Union as it was? If there are men in this goodly city of New York who have any tears over such results, I am inclined to the opinion that they are crocodile tears. If you have got those here who have tears to shed over the Union as it was, I think that would form a very good sketch for a picture."

As Mr. HANLIN is sworn to support " the Constitution as it is," those old fashioned people who have scruples against perjury must be highly pleased to learn "it is nonsense" to expect that their rulers will obey it.

WORLD & ARGUS.

The consolidation of the New York Weekly Argus with the New York World was announced in Thursday's issue of the latter journal. It is with pleasure we announce that the valuable services of ELON CONSTOCK, Esq., of the Argus, will be continued under the new arrangement, as he is one of the ablest ournalists and most accomplished gentlemen in the country.

NEW ROMANCE BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, -Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers announce as almost ready for publication a novel by Mrs. Stephens, entitled "True as Steel," the story, incidents and characters being all American. It is some time since this popular authoress has presented a new work, and we have no doubt that " True as Steel" will by received with great interest by her many zdmirers. A fresh American romance will be a genuine treat, and we hope to enjoy it in this new book of Mrs. Stephens. BOLL BURGER
