THE REIGH OF SHODDY A New York paper, after giving an account of the opening of the opera season with an overcrowded house and unprecedented display of costly dresses and magnificent diamonds, proceeds as follows: "The same brilliant story is also true of of entertainment given seems to be of little Provided the pieces are high and the place fashionable nothing more is required. All the hotels are as crowded as the theatres; and it is noticeable that the most costly acnodations, in buth hotels and theatres, are the first and most eagerly taken. Our merchants report the same phenomenon in their stores; the richest silks, laces and jewelry are the soonest sold. At least five hundred turnouts may be seen any fine afternoon at the Park; and neither Rotten Row, Lou-don, nor the Bois de Boulonge, Paris, can show a more splendid sight.

Before the golden days of an Indian summer are over these five hundred new equip-ments will be increased to a thousand. Not to keep a carriage, not to wear diamonds, not to be attired in a robe which costs a small fortune, is now equivalent to being nobody. The war has entirely changed the American character. The lavish profusion in which the old Southern aristocracy used to indulge is completely eclipsed by the dash, parade and magnificence of the new Northern shoddy aristocracy of this period. Ideas of cheapness and economy are thrown to the winds. The individual who makes the most money-no matter how-and spends the most money-no matter for what-is considered the greatest To be extravagant is to be fashionable These facts sufficiently account for the im-mense and brilliant audiences at the opera and the theatres; and until the final crash comes such audiences will undoubtedly con-"The world has seen its iron age, its silver age, its golden age and its brazen age. This is the age of shoddy. The new, brown stone palaces on Fifth Avenue, the new equipages at the Park, the new diamonds which dazzle unaccustomed eyes the new silks and sating which rustle over-loudly, as if to demand attention, the new people who live in palaces, and ride in the carriages, and wear the diamonds ride is the carriages, and wear the diamonds and silks—all are shoddy. From devil's dust pretended the war was for the Union; and al they sprang, and unto devil's dust they shall re urn. They live in shoddy houses. They ride in shoddy carriages, drawn by shoddy horses, and driven by shoddy coachinen, who a dollar. wear shoddy liveries. They lie upon shoddy beds, which have just come from the uphol-ster's, and still smell of shoddy varnish. They wear shoddy clothes, purchased from shoddy merchants, who have erected mammoth stores shoddy. They set or follow the shoddy fashions, and fondly imagine themselves a la mode de Paris, when they are only a la mode and, during the appropriate passages, this shoddy successor to the old Apostle wipes his weak eyes with a shoddy lace hardkerchief as he mildly pleads with his hearers, who are sleeping soundly upon their shoddy cushions, and begs of them to believe the Saviour was crucified with intelerable terments in order that the shoddy aristocracy might be wafted upon the wings of shoddy angels to a shoddy heaven. Nor are their polities less shoddy than their religion. They belong to the shoddy party, which are always loyal to shoddy, and they always vote the shoddy ticket, and support the shoddy Administration, which is conducting this shoddy war, not for the obsolete idea of the restoration of the Union, but for the profit and perpetuity of a shoddy dynasty. Oh! for some shoddy hius, with a pen as keen as shoddy steel. and words that burn like shoddy 'Greek fire,' to write the history of this shoddy age, and prophesy that downfall of shoddy which is to ome. Already shrewd Daniels scent a storm in the Babylonish air, but still the days are golden, and King Shoddy marches on triumphantly. Let us, thee, enjoy the park, the theatres and the opera, and leave the future to take care of itself. That is the sum of shoddy wisdom, and we shall not question such high authority."

Well, very likely there are "giants in these days," but no one will charge Stauton with being one .-That was done to operate on the New York election. Next we have a terrible plot discovered in Canada, to liberate the prisoners on Johnson's Island, burn the city of Buffalo, and set fire to the lakes generally. It is hard to tell whether the whole thing is a "sell" of the Administration, or whether it is not a move of the "powers that be" to initiate some other proceedings. The Toronto Leader, speaking of it, says:

"The whole American frontier appears to be in a blaze of excitement in consequence of a sensation story, said to have been tele-graphed by our Governor General to the British minister at Washington, Lord Lyons, and by that distinguished pobleman communicated to the Federal authorities. We would advise these exciteable people to possess their souls in quiet. The people of Canada have no intention or desire to rival the "jayhawking" feats of Jim Lane, of Kansas notoriety, or the fillibustering exploits of the Yankees in Nicarauga and Cuba We are a peace-loving community, and should we take up arms, it would be to drive back the invader from our frontier, as we did in 1812-14, and not to engage in savage forays for rapine and plunsuch as those led by Montgomery and Butler, which have disgraced the Federal These allegations Gen. Dow denies with the greatest emphasis, and states that what he learned concerning the rebel commissariat on the Island he could not avoid hearing, as it was uttered by our men, prisoners, in load tones of complaint, in the presence of rebel officers General Winder has substituted a board of Union officers to make the distributions in question, and states that so large is the quantity of such things being received that he must appoint other such boards to aid that already appointed.

The rebel authorities will not permit our agents to accompany the goods within their lines, substituting rebel commissaries in their stead where the flag of truce boats meet.

Below we publish another lot of certificates received by B. MISHLER, concerning the great cures effected by his wonderful remedial agent known as HERB

BITTERS:

ALTONA Pa. Sept. 2, 1863.

Dr. Whifield—Sir: I had been afflicted with a very sever ocid on the breast for three or four weeks, and had tried different domestic and patent remedies without any benefit. From your recommendation I was induced to try Mishler's Bitters. I am happy to say they had the desired effect—and I am better than I have been for a long time. I have also used the Bitters for a severe Diuhnez and they completely cured me. No one should be without them. I am determined to have some in the house all the time.

Yours respectfully,

JOGEPH H. BROWN.

JOSEPH H. BROWN. JOZEPH H. BROWN.

ALTOONA, Pa, May 1, 1863.

Dr. Whitfield—Sir: This is to certify that I have been affilided with the Rheamatism for many years, and have tried many things eald to be cures without any relief. I am employed drying sand for the P. R. R., and having to be in the damp and steam nearly all the time, I was afraid that I never would get well again. One of my arms has been so bad that I was afraid I would lose the use of it altogother; it was so weak and painful that I had to raise it with my other hand whenever I wished to change its position. The bottle of Mishler's Herb Pitters I got from you the other day, has so much relieved me that I can now raise my arm without difficulty and it is getting as strong as ever.

From the wonderful improvement it has made in my health, I can recommend Mishler's Herb Bitters with the greatest confidence to all those afflicted with the Rheumatism. Respectfully yours,

MANHEIM Nov 5th 1863 MANHIM, Nov. 6th, 1863.

B. Mishler—Dear Sir: I have been selling your Bitters for a long time, and have dsed it myself for Neuralgia, which has entirely cured me, and my customers use it and think it to be the best Bitters they have ever heard of. Indeed it has given entire actifaction in every particular. I intend to keep a full supply on, hand all the time at my hotel, "Washington House," Manheim. A. H. REIST.

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA

OMPANY,

51 VESEY STREET, NEW YORK, since its crganization, bas created a new era in the history of Wholessing Teas in this Country.

They have introduced their selections of TEAS, and are selling them at not over TWO CENTS (02 Cents) per pound above Cost, never deviating from the one price asked.

Another peculiarity of the Company is that their Tea Taster not only devotes his time to the selection of their TEAB as to quality, value, and particular styles for particular localities of country, but he helps the Tea buyer to choose out of their enormos stock such Teas as are best adapted to his particular wants, and not only this, but points out to him the best bargains.

It is easy to see the incalculable advantage a Tea Buyer has in this establishment over all others.

If he is no judge of Tea or the Market—if his time is valuable—be has all the benefits of a well organized system of doing business, of an immense capital, of the judgment of a professional Tea Taster, and the knowledge of a superior salesmen.

This cnables all Tea buyers—no matter if they we uperior salesmen.

This enables all Tea buyers—no matter if they are housands of miles from this market—to purchase on as cool terms here as the New York merchants. Parties can order Teas and will be served by us as well athough they came themselves, being sure to get original honger they came themselves, being sure to get original hages, true weight and tares; and the Teas are War packages, true weight and taries; and the Teas are Warranted as represented.

We issue a Pricé List of the Company's Teas, which will be sent to all who order it; comprising

UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUS. UNION OF THE WORLD AND ARGUE.

The World, to which the New York Weekly Argus has been united has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It do dresses weekly more than 100;000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least RALY WILLIAMS TRACES. With the stack increase in develation which it now enjoys, these numbers will be doubled by the last of January, 1864. Nothing less than this should saidly these who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted and divided country, lies in wresting hower from the hands of those whose fanatisism has helped to provide invite itself. who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the title authority of the Constitution over a now distracted the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted the authority of the constitution and and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hands of those whose the same hands of the work and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hands of the work of the constitution and the work of the work authority for exhorting or compelling the allegiance of the South.

It will oppose every infraction of THE LAWS, in high places or in low, by reckiess and misguided partisans, or by the administration which has been their example.

It will fearless'ly exercise the Freedom of the Press; it will constantly uphold and defend Freedom of Speech, and Freedom of the Ballot.

To the lawless acts of the Administration, its arbitrary and unjust arrests and expatriations, its denial of the right to the writ of habets corpus, its illigal proclamations, its abrogation of State and rederal laws, its despotic accumulations of ougranted power, and its subversions of the safe-goards of CUIL AND PERSONAL LIBERT, it will constantly oppose the letter and spirit of our supreme law and the advocacy of sound doctrine, until American freemen shall be roused to the recovery of their rights, their liberties, their laws, and their limited and well-balanced government, by the resistless decision of the ballot.

Profoundly impressed with the desire to contribute all that it may to the great work of this generation—namely, to restore our rational unity, and to place the United States again foremost among the nations of the earth, and first in the peace, prosperity and happiness of its people—The World seeks from those who desire such things their sympathy and support, and, above all, the favor of Him who crowns every good work.
