account of their Treatment while There

BALTIMORE, Des. 18. Two Union prisoners, Capt. W. T. Anderon. of the 51st Indiana, and Lieut. J. T. Shelton, of the 17th Iowa, who escaped from Lit by prism a week sgn, reached here this monaing by the Fortress Monroe boat. They traveled night and day through the woods down the peninisula, directing their course by means of a picket compass. They is ted the American office, and in behalf o their late companies in prison desired to express their grateful thanks for the timely relief sent to them, through the instrumentality of Bult. American Relief Fund. They represent that while the supplies furnished by the rebel authorities were of very pour quality and very meagressili it was the best they had to give

Apart from this, the conduct of the relief officers and guards had been generally kind, though there had been individual cases of harsh and perhaps cruel treatment.

So far, however, as their own experience goes, they feel it due to say that there has been much exaggeration. The supplies of i ad sent from here and from the north was meet timely, and doubtless there would have been intensely more suffering but for such Deen interfety more surving out of addi-relief. The condition of our prisoners on Belle Lland the officers say, is doubtless far warso than these in the Libby prison. At least 1500 of our poor fellows there are with-out shelter of any kind, and most of the tents are so wirn and threadbare as to afford but line proceedian. Thus they are exposed to the old winds and wee sands, and must suffer intensely apart from the scarcity of provis-1,54. . . . . . . . A DRUG IN THE MARKET .- The New York
