TUESDAY, March 8. TUESDAY, MARN 5. In the Senate to-day the principal business under consideration was the resolution of Mr. Powell call-ing for the report and evidence of the military com-mussion of which General McDowell was the head, and which was appointed to examine into cotton and other speculations by military officers. The resolu-tion excited an animated discussion, during which the excited an animated bus the commission was app tion excited an animated discussion, during which the fact was elicited that the commission was ap-pointed by the Secretary of War, without the knowl-edge of the President. The resolution went over at the expiration of the morning hour. The bill to promote enlistments came up, and Mr. Brown, of Missouri, thereupon delivered an extremely radical speech. Several bills were introduced, one of which provides for the better organization of the Quarter-master's Department.

In the House the Deficiency bill was again called up in Committee of the Whole, and after being amended was reported back to the House. A com-mittee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the Defisiency bill was appeinted. The told bill was taken up, on the resolution offered by Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, authorizing the Borstary of the Tresury to use the surplus gold in ix divisions and two old brigades of rebel by Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, authorising the Beerstary of the Treasury to use the surplus gold in the Treasury, from time to time, to anticipate the payment of interest on the public debt, with or without rebate of interest, as may seem to him ex-pedient. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 90 yeas to 34 mays. A joint resolution was reported by Mr. Bohenck, which provides tor dropping from the rolls all major and brigadier dens. who arg hot on appropriate duty on the 15th of March next and have not been on duty for three months continually. All the pay of such is to cease and the vasoncies are to be filled as provided by law. After some debate the bill was made the special order of the day for Tues-day next, and the date from which it is sould take effect was changed to April 1st. WENENDAY, March 9. The Senate to day voted to insist on its amendinfantry, viz: four brigades, consisting of Rhoddy's Patterson's Hume's and Davidso cavalry; Hardee's infantry corps, consisting of Walker's Cheatham's and Claiborn's divisions; Hindman's corps, made up of Stevenson's, Stewart's and Bates' command. Four thousand men is a large estimate for each division of infantry, and three thousand for a division of cavalry.

WEDNESDAY, March 9. The Senate to-day voted to insist on its amend-nents to the Deficiency bill, and a committee of onference was authorized. Mr. Wilson reported a will be well gnarded. conference was authorized. Mr. Wilson reported a bill in reference to army chaplains. A bill was in-troduced to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to get a title to lands in Nevada for a mint. Mr. Powell gave notice of a bill to prevent the Secretary of War from interfering with ministers of religion. The bill equalizing the pay of colored soldiers being taken up, Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, spoke at length. After an executive session the Senate adjourned. In the House the Committee of Ways and Means were instructed to inquire into the expediency of taxing United States bonds. A resolution of thanks to Generals Thomas and Rosecrans was passed, as was also the bill providing for the protection of emi-gerants to the territories. Bills creating a Bureau of THURSDAY, March 10. In the Senate to-day various patitions having been received, a bill was passed conterring the franking privilege on the President and Vice President. The Committee on Slavery reported in favor of making the Emancipation proclamation a statute. The con-sideration of the bill for the sale of gold was post-poned till to-day, and the Senate took up the bill equalizing the pay of soldiers. Mr. Pomeroy spoke at length, making out-a platform for a new party. The bill was finally passed.

ne bill was finally passed. In the House bills were referred appropriating money for lakes, harbors, &c., and abolishing court of claims. A bill increasing the pensions ishing the revolutionary soldiers was passed, as was also that placing the name of John L. Burns, of Gettysburg, placing the name of John L. Burns, or decrystally, on the pension roll. The lilinois ship canal, after debate, was postponed till Monday. 'In Committee of the Whole the appropriation bill was taken up and afterward reported to the House, but no final action was taken. A bill was introduced granting pensions to the soldiers of 1802, and the House ad-

FRIDAY, March 11. FRIDAY, March 11. In the Senate to-day memorials were presented from the citizens of Philadelphia asking for new railroud facilities between them and New York. A message was received from the President establishing the initial point of the Union Pacific railroad. The Senate then took up the House joint resolution to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to antici-pate the payment of the interest on the national debt. A long debate ensued, and the bill finally passed.

In the House, Mr. Blair asked leave to introduce stimony in reference to the contested seat occupied whim. Mr. Knox, the contestant, remonstrated after some discussion the testimony was referred to the Committee on Elections. The Senate bill to more effectually exclude spirits and wines from the Indian country was passed, as was the executive, legislative, and judicial appropriation bill. An amendatory Homestead bill having been reported, he House adjourned.

 The publishers of The Age could easily fill their columns with the unsonght and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence, well known and established. They believe it has acquired this reputation by the candor, fastlessness and independence with which it has been conducted, through times of extraordinary confusion of ideas ou public subjects, and latterly of almost unexampled public trial. It is now, and will be, as heretofore, the supporter of truly national principles. opposed alike to radicitism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of good governeans, law and order.

 The publishers of The Age conceive that it thus renders peculiar services and has peculiar claims upon all met by whom its principles are valued, and who, by the proper means, look to promote and secure the Constitutional restoration of the Union These can best show their sense of the untiring efforts of the publishers, in behalf of this paper in all its business relations.

The death of Colonel Dahlgren is confirmed. He got detached from the main com-mand, and Col. Pollard, with a company of the 9th Virginia and some home guards fell Dahlgren made a determined upon him. effort to force his way out, and was killed leading the charge. Ninety of his men and thirty-five negroes were captured. From the orders which were found upon him, it appears that the purpose of the expedition was to re-lease the prisoners in Richmond, burn the oity and kill Jeff. Davis. [It is believed that this last is an interpolation by the rebels.]

The following is his address to his men : OFFICERS AND MEN .- You have been selected from brigades and regiments as a picked command to attempt a desperate undertaking ----an undertaking which, if successful, will write your names on the hearts of your trymen in letters that can never be crased and which will cause the prayers of our fel low soldiers, not confined in loathsome prisons to follow you and yours wherever you may hope to release the prisoners from Belle Isle first, and having seen them fairly started, we will cross the James river into Richmond, destroy the bridges after us, and, exhorting the released prisoners to destroy and burn the hateful city, will not allow the rebel leader Davis and his traitorors crew to escape.

The prisoners must render great assistance, as you cannot leave your ranks to far or be come too much scattered, or you will be lost Do not allow any personal gain to lead you off, which would only bring you to an ignominous death at the hands of citizens. Keep well together and obey orders strictly, and all will be well, for in union there is strength. With strict obedience to orders and fearlessness in their execution, you will be sure to succeed. We will join the main force on the other side of the city, or perhaps meet them inside. Many of you may fail; but if there is any man here not willing to sacrifice his life in such a great and glorious undertaking, or who does not feel capable of meeting the enemy in such a desperate fight as will fol. low, let him step out, and he may go hence to the arms of his sweetheart, and read of the braves who swept through the city of Rich.

We want no man who cannot fee sure of success in such a holy cause. We will have a desperate fight, but stand up to it when it does come, and all will be well. Ask the blessing of the Almighty, and do not fear the enemy.

U. DAHLGREN, Colonel Commading.

HOW THE BLACK FIGHT. The Americans of African descent, who were engaged in the late Florida disaster did not it seems come up to Abolition expectation. The correspondent of the New York Times, giving an account of our defeat under Gen. SEXMOUR, speaks thus disparagingly of contraband courage:

At the commencement of the fight the Eighth United States colored troops were supporting HAMILTON'S battery, but when their assistance became really indispensable, by some strange order they filed to the right in rear of the battery, for the purpose of joining their right on the left of the Seventh Connecticut. At that particular time the movement was decidedly an error, for by carrying t out it left HAMILTON'S battery unsupported In an attempt to enfilade the enemy on his right, HAMILTON moved forward four pieces; but, before he got into position, the rebels on that portion of their line had concentrated all their fire upon him and the Eighth U. S. who had again come up to his support. In twencut up, the General ordered a retreat.

This preparation is particularly recommended to the MEDIOAL PROFESSION and the PUBLIC, as combining, in the most convenient and efficacions form, the well-established virtues and properties of Cubebs and Copalha. For the speedy and effectual relief and cure of all SEXUAL DIBRAES, it may justly be considered one of the greatest and most valuable discoveries in the annals of medicine, frequently effecting a cure in three or four days. In its preparation as an extract or a paste, the usual nanescous taste is avoided, and it is, consequently, never found to interfare with the digestion, while, from its greater on-centration, the does is nuch reduced. It may be relied on as the best mode for the administration of these remedies in the large class of diseases of both sexts to which they are applicable. HOLIDAY PRESENTS D GOLD.
