GENERAL LEE'S NEW LINE. The portion of the Ohlokahominy River to which General Grant is advancing is the same along which General McClellan operated in besieging Richmond in 1862. The Chickahominy River runs a course from northwest to southeast. The Fredericksbarg Railroad crosses it seven miles northeast of Rich-mond. The Gordonsville Railroad crosses two miles below, and the grossing place known as Macdoo mond. The Gordonsville Kaliroan orvesses who have below, and the crossing place known as Meadow Bridge is five miles north of Bichmond. One mile Distort The state of the stat Bridge is hve miles north of Richmond. One mile pelow Meadow Bridge is Mchanicsville. This town is five miles northeast of Richmond, and a turnpike connects them. This turnpike bridge is four miles and a quarter from the Capital, aud McCiellau's pickets, who stood on the river bank at its eastern end, were the nearest Federal soldiers to Richmond. Five miles below Mechanicsville is New Bridge; it is six east of Richmond. Søven miles below New Bridge, and twoive miles eat of Richmond, and store the strike of Richmond and York River Rail-road, which runs from the Capital past White House to West Point, at the head of York River, orosses the Chickahominy a mile above Bottom's Bridge.

Bridge. To this portion of the Chickahominy General Grant is advancing. The road from Hanovertown, where he crossed the Pamunkey, crosses the Chicka-hominy at Mechanicsville. It is not probable that the Confederate will oppose only series obvieth to hominy at Mechanicsville. It is not probable that the Confederates will oppose any serious obstacle to the Federal advince until the Cnickahominy is resolved. In 1862, when McClellan approached it, there were twenty huge forts at different points on the southern bank, commanding the roads and bridges. The stream itself is peculiarly adapted to defensive warfare. The river is a small one, and flows sluggishly. It does not run like other rivers in a simple bed. It divides itself into a half-dozen streamlets, running, non and out of each other at subjects charged with the streamlets, running into and out of each other at random. These water courses occupy a space about seventy yards in width. immense trees grow up out of the water, and the entire stream is covered furnish asylum to dangerous criminals who are offenders against the human race and it is believed that if in any case the comity could by a thick woods. It is a remarkable instance of a river running through and watering a long strip of woods. From each side of this woodland a flat surinquiry of the Senate furnished a just occasion woods. From each side of this woodland a flat sur-face extends for about a half a mile. This is near-ly always overflowed, and becomes an impassable morass. It is only when the water in the river is yery low that more can safely walk upon the ground bordering it. On these flat surfaces there is not a solitary tree. They are bare, and any thing mov-ing mon them can easily he diverged. From the ar its exercise. ing upon them can easily be dispersed. From the ters of these plains huge huis, in some cases two

A large and valuable naval whart boat was burned this evening. The fire was first discovered in the paint and oil room, and is supposed to have origi-nated from spontaneous combustion. The fire was not discovered until it had spread beyond control. The progress of the flames was rapid and nothing could be saved. Many on board inde narrow escapes, the smoke and fiame render-ing egress by the stairways impossible. No lives wore known to be lost.

Our Consul at Havana writes to Secretary Seward, May 234, that on the arrival of Ar-Paymaster Boggs, U. S. COMMENTARY LEDGE THE WAR. We find the following decision of the Superior Court of that city, in reference to some cotton speculations in the military department of U. S. Grant-the father of the latter being the plantifi in the suit: inoffensive man. He never obtrinded his no-the never obtrinded his no-In the law reports of the Cincinnati Commercial father of the latter being the plaintiff in the suit of the function of the latter being the plaintiff in the suit of the suit of the suit. The facts developed in the case are a striking commentary on the war and upon the spirit of its prose-intifference of the suit of the spirit of the spirit of the spirit of the suit of the spirit of oution. The latter of the Grant makes a contract with a speculating firm in Chickianal, in considera-tion of one-quarter of the realized net profits, to produce from the headquarters of theorem of Grant a permit to purchase collou, secure transportation, and such other facilities as might be consistent with the usages and intervents of the army. It appears that Mr. Jesse M. Grant fulfilled his part of the con-tract. that here versus to the transmission of the con-tract. He produced the permit to purchase cotto which the Court declared megal, unless carried o by permission of the President through the frea-ury Department. The Court also declared that the senaring of the versus the senaric of the versus the versus the senaric of the versus the versus the senaric of the versus the senaric of the versus the versus the senaric of the versus the ver ary Department. The Court also decared that the securing of transportation, which the plaintiff aver-red he did, was an improper and illegal use of toy-ernment horses and wag-ma, or steamboats; and that the "other facilities" may have been procured by honest or dishonest influence.

by honest or dishonest influence. The Court very properly stated in its opinion that the employment of the plaintiff to produce the file-gal co-operation of the military in a private enter-term of encoder way with distribution to the deprise, if proved, was equally disgraceful to the de-fendants and the plantiffs, and would insure the dismissal of the petition of the plantiff to compel the payment by the detendants of one-quarter of with re-0, the net profits in the transaction, probation to both parties. We call especial attention to the remarks of Judge Storer, whose "loyalty" and Republicanism cannot be questioned. He felt "constrained to say that the whole of the trade, as disclosed in the proceedings, was not only disgrace ful, but tends directly to disgrace the country. is the price of blood

After these remarks of the Court, it is unnecessary After these remarks of the Court, it is unnecessary for us to add a word of condemnation upon the in-famons outrages which have been, and are being committed, similar to those developed in this case, and with the consent, if not the participation of high, eivil and military officials. Says a "loyal". Judge, "this trade is a disgrace to the country "-nay more, "it is the price of blood." Here is the damning evidence that the nation is being impover-ished and hundreds of thousands of valuable lives sactificed to gratify the cupidity and avarice of shoddy officials, contractors and speculators. If all for us to add a word of condemnat sacrificed to gratity the cupility and avai shoddy officials, contractors and speculators. sense of honor, pride and justice is not paralyzed in the public mind, the day of retribution, tearful and overwhelming, will not long be delayed.—Indianavolis Sentinel.

BIGGEST WELL IN OILDOM .- On the subject f big flowing oil wells, the Oil City Register emarks of the Hammond well, recently open-" At first, so great was the amount of water, that there was considerable trouble in exhau-ting it. But now it is flowing oil, and clearing itself nicely from the water. It is estimated to flow nearly six hundred barrels of i per day, and over seven hundred and fifty barrels of water and oil, with a fair prospect of an increase. This makes it the largest producing well in the oil region The Noble well producing scarcely five hundred barrels per day. The Maple Shade scarcely one hundred barrers per day. The Maple Shade scarcely one hundred and filtry harrels of oil." The principal owner of the new well, Mr. Hammond, has been laboring in the oil district for years, with very indifferent success, but now his persever-ance will be handsomely rewarded. 10 The Washington Chronicle says that
