Ah! the longing of the steep ess For the soft arms of the choosen . Ah! the longing for the faces Peeping through the opening door-+ - -WHEN ?

When will the heavens shine again ? When cease the s orm of grief and pair. That bends the Nation's brow?

When will a golden gleam of light Gush from the gloomy skies? When end this weiry, warring hight, With passes and this weiry, warring hight, h peace and love's subrise

Is He asteep ? and are there none To wake him, as of yore To look upon a world undone, And bid its strife be o'er?

Is there no Israel in the land. Le thère no assant in the To wrestle and prevait? A doubting Thomas, then, must stand Affrighted by the gate !

Oh! that the hand or God would part nd bathe the name of or word part ad bathe the N cion's breeding heart With mercy's soothing baim !
