GRAND RATIFICATION MEETING-TRE-MENDOUS OUTPOURING OF THE DEMOC-RACY—FULTON HALL ALIVE WITH GLORY AND ENTHUSIASM-LARGE ATTENDANCE of Ladies, &c.-Fulton Hall on Thursday night presented a grand spectacle—the occasion being the ratification by the Democracy of Lancaster of the nominees of the Chicago Convention. Long before the hour of commencing, 8 o'clock, the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Fifteen hundred people were in attendance, and hundreds had leave without obtaining admission. A large number of the fair sex (God bless them!) were present, and manifested a lively interest in the proceedings. A little before 8 o'clock Killian's Drum Corps marched into the hall at the head of a large delegation who bore a banner with the following inscription on it: "For President-Geo. B. McClellan. For Vice President-Geo. H. Pendleton." The enthusiasm of the audience knew no bounds when the names of our gallant standard-bearers were noticed. At 80'clock Dr. Samuel Welchens. 1st Vice President of the Young Men's Democratic Association, under whose auspices the meeting was called, ascended the rostrum, and called the vast assemblage to order. He made a few eloquent, pertinent and appropriate remarks, and then read the following list of officers, which were ratified by acclamation:

President. WILBIAM P. BRINTON, Esq. Vice-Presidents. Hon. Emanuel Schaeffer, John A. Scheurenbrand, Charles E. Wentz, General Geo. M. Steinman, Dr. Henry Carpenter. Christian Widmyer, Villiam Carpenter, Esq., Jacob Zecher, James H. Barnes, Junius B. Kaufmar Henry Blickensderfer, Michael Withers, Philip Fitzpatrick, H. W. Harberger, Lightner, Esq., Newton Lightner, r Tharles F. Rengier, Adam Trout, Samuel Patterson, Henry Musselman, A. D. Campbell. Secretaries Harry Z. Rhoads,

Albert E. Carpenter, John H. Reigart, George W. Kendrick. Mr. Brinton, on taking the chair, made truly eloquent speech. He spoke of the eminent fitness of the nominations at Chicago, and the mention of the names of Mc-Clellan and Pendleton by him, as well as by the other speakers, was received with tuultuous cheering. He made one or two humorous allusions to the Prince of Jokers, Old Abe," which were received with shouts of laughter and applause. Mr. B. is a forcible and pleasing speaker, and presided with great ability and diguity. He was, until after the war broke out, a consisten member of the Republican party, but the abuse of power and the corruption of this Administration have entirely changed his views, and he is now heart and soul with the great Democratic party.

At this stage of the proceedings, the Glee Club were called for, and sung a new hunorous song, entitled "Shouting for Little Mac and Freedom," with much effect, Calls for "Reynolds," "Reynolds," the came from all parts of the house, and the young "War Horse" walked to the platform amid enthusiastic cheering and applause. He spoke in his usual able, sarastic and eloquent manner. He made mention of the great popularity of the Chicago nominees, and entered into a searching review of the imbecile and corrupt Adnistration in power. Mr. Reynolds is : decided favorite with our Democracy, and is eloquent and convincing speeches always attract the masses. The Glee Club then entertained the audi-

William R. Wilson, Esq., was then loudly called for, and responded in an able, pointed and argumentative speech. He spoke of the great military ability of Gen. McClellan, and the complete unfitness of his competitor, the "old Joker of the White He reviewed Mr. Lincoln's policy, and laid bare its corruption and inconsistency with a master hand. He spoke of the statesmanship and ability of the nominees, and concluded his remarks amid much applause,

The Glee Club then sung "Give us Back our Old Commander," and the vast audience dispersed. It was a most glorious meeting in every respect. The Democracy of old Lancaster are fully alive to the crisis and intend giving a good account of themselves at the October and November elections. They have commenced the campaign in real down earnest, and don't intend resting until the polls close on the evenings of the second Tuesday in October and first Tuesday in November.

GROCERY STORE ROBBED.—The cellarun der Hubley's Grocery Store, corner of Centre Square and North Queen street, was enered by means of false keys on Sunday night last, and robbed of a quantity of cheese, white and brown sugars, rice, buckets, &c. Mr. Hubley offers a reward of $20 for the discovery of the thief or thieves, and return of the goods.

INTRODUCTORY SERMON.—Rev. Samuel Laird, the newly-elected pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Duke street, preached his Introductory Sermon on Sunday morning, to a large congregation, notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather. His text was from St. Matthew, 1st chapter, 21st verse, "Thou shalt call His name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins, He gave a very able, lucid and eloquent exposition of the text. Mr. L. is a very sant speaker, has a clear, musical voice which can be distinctly heard in every par of that venerable temple. The congregation of Old Trinity, we think, are fortunate in having secured the services of so able and

A Whopper.-Our neighbor of the Examiner of Saturday morning states that the Ratification Meeting of the Democracy, at Fulton Hall, on Thursday evening, "was spiritless, and the name of little Mac scarcely elicited any applause." In the same article he says the unterrified were addressed by Messrs, Harris, Brown and others, Now neither of the gentlemen named was present at the meeting, and of course made speech.

Hambright to Lieut, John Rees of this city, which says that the men whose time has expired in his Regiment will not be discharged, according to orders, until the 4th of October. It will be recollected that there were some fifty who did not re-enlist. The Colonel is making effort to have them discharged at the end of the three years for which they enlisted, viz: the 15th of September. We hope he may be successful, as the men's families and relatives are very with the announcement in the Express, there was an illumination of the Union League rooms in honor of the capture of Atlanta. The word "Victory" formed b gas jets burned brilliantly, and the band played spiritedly. Quite a large crowd having assembled, a member of the League stepped out on the balcony and seized the opportunity as a favorable one to make a little political capital for "Old Abe." was through war was received with luguthat line, why don't he shoulder a musket and go himself." An attempted eulogy on Lincoln brought forth a clieer from one solitary boy in the middle of the street, to which another boy replied by "hurrah for McClellan." At the conclusion of a few labored remarks the distinguished (?) member wound up with a call for three cheers for Lincoln and Johnson. This was joined in by a small crowd of small boys who had een located on the balcony, but in the street below there was no response. We concluded the whole crowd must belong to the Sag Nichts. At all events they had no theers for Lincoln. As it is here so it is everywhere. It is impossible for our opponents to get up any enthusiasm. The masses are not with them, and they will find it out to their sorrow when election

This community, as you may be aware, s largely made up of the Quaker element, one of the cardinal doctrines of whose reone of the cardinal doctrines of whose re-ligious faith is Peace upon Earth and good will towards all men. But so far as that doctrine is practiced upon here, no one can recognize it, except in their unwillingness to do the fighting themselves. They are, essentially, stay-at-home patriots. They have ransacked every nook and corner of the township to get poor men to fill the the township to get poor men to fill the quota. Although pretending to be opposed to every sort of oppression, and abolitionists from conscientious motives, yet their consciences rest easy, when they themselves engage in the work of buying and selling men, white and black, to engage in a worse servitude than was ever experienced by the servitude than was ever experienced by the slave upon the plantations of the South.— Nearly every negro as well as poor white man has been bribed and coaxed to enlist in this war. Yet these men, who have been mainly instrumental in enveigling them into the service, pretend to be the friends of humanity. What rank hypocrisy?

There is a rapid change going on here in the political sentiments of the people, the Quakers alone excepted. They are getting tired of this Abolition war, and still more tired of the imbedility of the National Administration. Old Abe's incompetency is tired of the imbecility of the National Administration. Old Abe's incompetency is daily becoming better known to the masses, and since he is better known, all respect for him is lost. Every one, unless blinded by fanaticism, is willing to admit that he is at best a low bufloon, utterly incapacitated to understand our system of Constitutional Government, and his election in 1860 was a disgrace to the American people, for which they are receiving their punishment in the murder and mutilation of their sons and brothers in this fratricidal war, as well as brothers in this fratricidal war, as well as the enormous taxes which must be paid out of their labor and sweat. Four years of Abolition rule, such as the smutty joker and dirty story-teller of the White House has given the people, has been sufficient. They want no more of it; and if every section of the Union shows as great a change in public sentiment as this little township of Fulton, McClellan will carry every State in the Union. The talk of "nobody is hurt," won't do any longer. The country wants a statesman, not a miserable trickster. It wants a frank, open, manly gentleman for brothers in this fratricidal war, as well as wants a frank, open, manly gentleman for President, not a low, cowardly buffoon, who, to evade resposibility, is willing to lose sight of the dignity of his official position, and address an official paper "To whom it may concern."

OUR BOTANIST NEIGHBOR .- The local editor of the Expressis disposed to be funny over our notice of Mr. Swisher's large Dahlia. He says he had "some of his Dahlias perform this freak, growing 'too high to measure,' and he cut them away,' Now, the misfortune with our neighbor is that he becomes slightly "obfusticated" at times, and hence mistook something else, possibly the nasty "gympsum weed," for the heautiful flower in question. We are perfectly aware of our neighbor's transcen-dentabilities as a Botanist, but "for a' that" we hold to the opinion that the Dahlin is a

A communication from the Mayor, relative to a revision of the market ordinances, was presented in Select Council, and read as follows:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, LANCASTER, September 6, 1864.
To the Select and Common Councils—
GENTLEMEN;—The Market rules and regform me that it is impossible for them to enwas through war was received with lugu-brious and most ominous silence, broken only by a cry, "if he wants it fought out on and all others. If the ringing of the bell is and all others. If the ringing of the bell is to be the signal for opening the market, it is contended that no one should be permitted to buy or sell meat, vegetables, or anything else of a marketable nature until the signal is given. In addition, it is contended that the truckmen have no right to sell from their stands in the Square except during market hours. There is force in all these objections, and the attention of Councils is directed to the subject so that the proper directed to the subject so that the proper remedy may be applied. If it is improper to include meat or vegetables in the prohibition, then the Ordinance should specify bition, then the Ordinance should specify the exception or exceptions. At all events the law regulating the markets and the boundaries thereof should be so abridged and simplified as that all may understand it. As it is, there are several features of the law which seem to conflict with others, and make it difficult for the executive officers of the correction to know except what to do the corporation to know exactly what to do. FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT,-Last Thursday morning, a man named Joseph inyder, an employee in the Ore Banks at Marietta, was killed on the railroad, by the 11.10 passenger train west, about a mile below the city. He came here this morning to enlist as a substitute for another person, but failed to pass as such on account of an impediment in his speech. He afterwards became slightly intoxicated, and was warned by his comrade not to go near the railroad, but he failed to heed the warning. The engineer noticed him and whistled down breaks," but the man paid no attention to the alarm. He was struck by the engine, knocked under the train, and both his legs were cut off. He was brought to the city on the train, and died as soon as he was brought into the depot.

WHILE on the look-out for locals a day or two since, we heard a boy-whose one shoulder bore a bag well filled-call to anthe amount of Water Rents for 1864 paid to other a few paces in his rear: "Charlie, bring McClellan along." "There he is beside you," was the reply. The name being very suggestive, we looked with some curiosity to see who "McClellan" was, and found him in the form of a small specimen of the canine species "deeply, darkly, beautifully" dved in "the Government" color. Better call him Lincoln, the dog is so black," we quietly suggested. But a hange of name would not suit the political prodivities of the youths in charge of the ternier. Upon closer examination, we discovered the excessively ebonish trait of his logship's complexion to be somewhat relieved by "leather-colored" extremities. We left our ground of inspection, meditating upon the flattering prospects of the animal whose double-hued exterior will enti-tle him to the entree of both "loyal" and ashionable (versus Shoddyite) circles, while "little General Mac" must be consigned to the "vile" companionship of those 'scoundrelly copperheads," who, presumptuous rascals that they are, expect to bestow onsiderable "elevation" upon their leader of "slow movements" by the first Tuesday of November. Astonishing impertinence WHILE perambulating the streets on Friday morning, we came across a party of boys engaged in daubing clay over some black hieroglyphics defacing a fence em-braced within the circuit of our observation. Stopping to fisten to a conversation going on between one of the youths and a bystander, we caught the following explanation: "The boys over there," (pointing to the opposite pavement,) "at Camp Lincoln wrote Old Abe here, (this is Camp McClellan,) and we are rubbing him out." There was an exultant twinkle in the eye of the bystander as he replied: "Ha! he'll be more effect ually rubbed out in November."

By this time "Camp Lincoln" was com etely deserted, its latest occupant "ske daddling" 'round the corner, his cheers for 'Old Abe'' drowned in the rubbers' deafening huzzas for "Little Mac" and shouts of "le blackie go, he'll not be seen in November. We pursued our way, smiling over the incident which, though trifling, seemed to us to be very significant. What an immens amount of rubbers will come swarming from hill-top and valley on that first Tuesday to erase from the face of our suffering country the "buffoon," the fanatic and everything opposed to constitutional liberty.

saying that Mr. Wise was the assaulting party in the fight, in front of the Provost Marshal's office, on Monday evening. This is not, however, the point in dispute. It is simply this, a crowd of five or six Abolitionists assisted to beat one man, which certainly exhibited great bravery on their part, as the Express will readily admit. A Democrat, according to our cotemporary's notions, should submit to all the taunts and sneers of Abolitionists, but should never resent the same. We are happy to inform our neighbor that there are a good many Democrats in this city who do not believe in that kind of doctrine, but will resent at insult whenever given, and Charley Wise is one of them.

One of her officers and two of her crew left the Florida at Teneriffe. At noon a salute of 100 guns was fired at the arsenal for the brilliant achievement of

S. 7 - 3 0 L O A N . The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from Aug. 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum, -principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars. The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the eccipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be prepared. As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dolars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of onequarter of one per cent., which will be paid by he Treasury Department upon the receipt of bill for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U.S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.

It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always e sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for discounts. CONVERTIBLE INTO A SIX PER CENT, 5-20 GOLD

BOND. In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conver-sion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent, U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per
